Truman (7-26, 7-12 MIAA): The Bulldogs, fresh off of a three-game sweep over Southwest Baptist last weekend, will play seven MIAA games this week, including the final home games of the 2004 season.

Truman, which has 12 MIAA games remaining, is currently four wins shy of tying the school record for most conference wins in a season. The team also moved up two spots in the MIAA standings over the weekend and is currently in eighth-place. If the Bulldogs can stay or move up from that spot, it will be the best conference finish for the team since 1999.

Adding marks to the win column could be tough early this week, as the Bulldogs have road doubleheaders at the top two teams in the MIAA, Central Missouri and Northwest Missouri. This weekend, the Bulldogs host Missouri-Rolla in a three-game series, the final home games for the team.

Bulldogs vs. Upcoming Opponents:

Central Missouri (37-5, 15-4 MIAA): The Mules, which have been No. 1 in the country for most of the season, took a big step towards another MIAA regular season title last weekend with a three-game sweep over Missouri Western, who entered the series just a game behind the Mules. The team has won four straight and 10 out of its last 11 entering this week.

Central Missouri has one of the top pitching staffs in the country with a current ERA of 2.77. Starters Nick Denning, Steve Sharpe and Steve McReynolds are a combined 21-1 on the season and all have ERAs below 2.50.

Offensively, the team is averaging nearly nine runs a game and only one regular starter is hitting below .300. Francisco Leandro leads the team with 49 RBIs and 11 home runs and Eric Errante has a team-high .381 batting average and 65 runs.

Head coach of the Mules is Darin Hendrickson who is in his first season. He is in his fifth season as a collegiate coach and has a career mark of 161-59.

Central Missouri leads the all-time series by a 102-21 margin.

Northwest Missouri (28-15, 14-7 MIAA): The Bearcats have also been hot lately and have moved up to second in the conference standings. The team has won six straight MIAA games, including a three-game sweep over Missouri-Rolla last weekend.

Northwest Missouri also has a good pitching staff with a 4.81 ERA on the year. David Dugan is 8-0 for the team with a 2.45 ERA in nine starts. Matt Coons has relieved in 12 games and has one win and eight saves.

Offensively, the team is in the middle of the pack in the conference with a .305 batting average and averaging around seven runs a game. Brad Schwarz is the top threat with a .336 average, 41 runs, 41 RBIs and 10 home runs.

Head coach, in his fifth season at the school, is Darin Loe. He has a record of 137-119 at Northwest Missouri and a 293-253 mark in his 11th year as a head coach.

Northwest Missouri swept the Bulldogs earlier in the year in Kirksville and now lead the all-time series by a 106-34 margin. Both games were close as the Bearcats won by scores of 5-4 and 2-0. In game one, Truman led 4-0 after five innings but the Bearcats came back late for the win. In the second contest, the Bulldogs were one-hit, wasting a good start from Brant Kraner.

Missouri Western-10, Truman-0 (Game 2)

An injury forced the Bulldogs to change starting pitchers and the Griffons took advantage by scoring seven runs over the first two innings and easily won a 10-0 decision.

Truman managed just three hits in the game and never got a runner past second base. Adam Davis, Jamie Wolf and Jon Peckron all had singles in the contest. Tom Kammerer pitched four innings in relief and allowed just two runs.

Truman-6, Southwest Baptist-2 (Friday)

Brant Kraner allowed just three hits and one earned run as he threw a complete game victory over the Bearcats.

After Southwest Baptist scored once in the first inning, the Bulldogs took the lead for good with a pair in the bottom of the first. Truman added three more in the fifth and that was more than enough for Kraner, who moved into Truman's top 10 career victories list with the win. He struck out three and walked five over nine innings.

Josh Rubin and Jon Peckron each drove in two runs in the game and Adam Davis and Andrew Pitts each cross the plate twice. Rubin and Pat Wilmes had two hits apiece.

Truman-8, Southwest Baptist-5 (Saturday, Game 1)

Andrew Pitts hit a fifth-inning grand slam to lift the Bulldogs to an 8-5 victory over Southwest Baptist in the second game in their series.

Two walks and a single loaded the bases for Truman in the fifth when Pitts cleared the bases with a two-out home run. The hit broke a 4-4 tie and the Bulldogs never trailed again.

The Bearcats scored twice in the first inning and held the lead until Truman scored four times in the fourth inning. Andy Vandepopulier had the big hit with a two-run triple to score the first two runs.

Matt Kupferle earned the win and Dan Hillen picked up the save. Kupferle pitched 2 2/3 innings and gave up just five hits and five runs, only four of which were earned. Hillen came in with the tying run at the plate in the ninth and got the final batter to ground out.

Pat Wilmes started the final inning off with a single, and after an out, Jon Peckron and Patrick Hardin each had singles to load the bases. Mike Arway then drew a walk to score Brad Miller, who had pinch-run for Wilmes, and Travis Freeman walked to bring in Peckron with the game-winning run.

Truman fell behind 4-0 early but got within one with two runs in the second and one in the third. Patrick Hardin then tied the game in the fifth with a two-out single.
