THE KTOV BULLDOG REPORT can be seen every Sunday evening on Your Source KTOV Channel 3 in Kirksville following the 10 p.m. news. Tim Peters talks with Truman head coach John Ware about the previous day’s game and they look ahead to next week’s contest.

TRUMAN (2-0 OVERALL, 0-0 MIAA): The Bulldogs begin MIAA play this weekend at Emporia State. They enter the game with a 2-0 record after knocking off Drake and Quincy in non-conference action.

The ‘Dogs have dropped the last two encounters with the ESU Hornets and will be looking to get back on the winning track, as far as MIAA openers are concerned, when they take the field on Saturday.

Head Coach John Ware’s teams had won six straight conference openers, and the Bulldogs had a streak of seven straight wins in league openers going when ESU handed the ‘Dogs a 34-14 loss in last year’s MIAA opener. Truman is 54-19-2 all-time in conference openers.

Senior slot receiver Andrew Blakley (St. Joseph, Mo.) could break the MIAA record for career receptions in that game. He is just four away from tying ESU’s Jarrett Vito’s (1995-98) record of 226. Blakley surpassed Vito on the MIAA career receiving yards list in game one this year and now has 2,708 yards for his career, 526 yards from the MIAA receiving yards record of 3,234 held by Lester McCoy of Emporia from 1997-2000. Blakley is also 22nd on the NCAA Division II receptions list.

Blakley contributed to three touchdowns last Saturday, two of which were the second and third TDs he ever scored on the ground. The only receiving touchdown he caught vs. QU left him three away from the school record of 22.

Senior transfer quarterback Dusty Burk (Tuscola, Ill./Illinois State) has made a big splash in the first two games as well, charting two of the top seven games in total offense in Bulldog history with 411 yards in the season-opener and 376 against Quincy. He also carried the ball 89 yards for a touchdown to tie the score in the opener vs. Drake, the fourth-longest rush for a TD in Bulldog history.

Burk and senior split end Alfonso Pugh (Galesburg, Ill.) connected on an 89-yard touchdown pass early in the second quarter of the QU matchup. It was the second-longest pass reception for a touchdown in school history. Pugh hauled the ball 60 yards after the catch to put the ‘Dogs ahead 14-0.

Later in the game, Pugh also scored on a 32-yard punt return, his second career punt return for touchdown. He would end up with a total of 123 yards in punt returns and 94 yards in catches to lead the team in all-purpose yards.

The Truman defense scored on Saturday too when junior strong safety Billy Bundy (Vancouver, Wash./Battle Ground) scooped up a punt that was blocked by junior free safety Derek Kent (Lucas, Iowa/Chariton) and returned it seven yards to give the Bulldogs a 55-7 lead late in the third quarter.

Considering the 'Dogs had the ball for only 18:22 in the QU game, they scored an average of 3.8 points a minute.

TRUMAN VS. QUINCY: The ‘Dogs took a 28-0 lead over Quincy after a 6-yard scoring run by Blakley. Pugh’s 89-yard reception, a one-yard run by senior running back Mike Redding (Lake Zurich, Ill.) and Blakley’s 12-yard TD catch. Quincy put together a 10-play, 80-yard drive and scored its only first half points with 57 seconds left in the half when LeVar Ammons ran three yards for the score.

However, the Bulldogs practiced their two-minute offense and drove 67 yards on six plays in the closing seconds of the half to score on an 11-yard pass from Burk to senior flanker Geoff Jensen (Grinnell, Iowa).

Truman ruled the third quarter, beginning with Blakley’s third TD on a 1-yard run, followed by Pugh’s 32-yard punt return and Bundy’s 7-yard blocked punt return. Quincy’s QB, Shane DeSherlia, marched the Hawks down the field, using 13 plays and 78 yards to score on a one-yard run with 5:42 to go.

But the Bulldog reserves had the last word when redshirt freshman quarterback Brandon Gutshall (Platte City, Mo./Platte County) carried the ball five yards for the final tally of the day with 4:25 left.

MIAA LEADERS: Burk leads the MIAA in total offense (393.5 ypg) and passing average (270.0 ypg), is second in rushing (123.5 ypg) and pass efficiency (185.7) and is seventh in all-purpose yards (133.5 pg).

Blakley tops the league in receptions (9.0 pg) and receiving yards (107.5 pg), and is second in scoring (150 pg) and eighth in all-purpose yards (113.0 pg).

Pugh leads the conference in all-purpose yards (159.0 pg) and punt returns (26.6 ypr) and is second in kickoff returns (31.5 ypr). He is also seventh in receiving yards (55.5 pg).

Redshirt freshman receiver Justin Bodenhansen (Cosby, Mo./Savannah) is tied for ninth in receptions (3.5 pg).

Redding is tied for seventh in scoring (9.0 pg).

Senior kicker Austin Lepper (Ames, Iowa /Gilbert) is fifth in scoring by kicks (7.5 ppg) and is tied for sixth in the MIAA in field goals (1-of-1).

Senior linebacker Judd Lienhard (Louisiana, Mo.) is sixth in tackles with 8.5 a game, while sophomore linebacker Tameem Yehyawi (Keokuk, Iowa) is tied for fifth in tackles for a loss with 1.50 pg.

EMPORIA (2-0 OVERALL, 0-0 MIAA): The Hornets have won both of their non-conference games as well, beating Ft. Hays State (Kan.) 38-7 and East Central (Okla.), 17-9. Last Saturday’s game vs. ECU was shortened to a little over three quarters after lightening forced the game to be called.

Quarterback Kelton Copeland has completed 13-of-26 passes for 205 yards and two touchdowns, and is fifth in MIAA passing (102.5 ypg), third in pass efficiency (141.6) and tied for sixth in total offense (133.0 ypg).

Paul Taylor leads the team in rushing (43 for 264 yards, 1 TD) and had 20 carries for 132 yards in the ECU game. Taylor leads the conference in rushing (132.0 ypg).

The Hornets return first-team all-MIAA defensive back Dontaye McCoy and second-team right guard Eric Martin from a year ago.

yards and now has 222 for his career. He broke Rich Otte's receptions record of 202 from 1980-83 and with 2,708 yards, Blakley is just 114 from claiming Otte's career yardage record of 2,821. Blakley is also inching closer to the career receiving touchdowns record after adding three so far this year. He is now tied for third all-time with 19, three away from Lloyd Henry's (1975-77) mark of 22.

Pugh is sixth with 17 career receiving touchdowns and is 14th among Bulldog career receiving yards (1,355) leaders and tied for 12th on the career receptions (92) list.

Senior flanker Geoff Jensen (Grinnell, Iowa) ranks 13th among career receiving yards leaders with 1,420 since 1999 and is tied for 15th in career receptions with 89. He caught two of the top three longest touchdown aerials in school history, including the longest ever at 93 yards from Eric Howe in 2000 and the fourth-longest at 84 yards from Howe in 2002.

AMONG NCAA CAREER LEADERS, BLAKLEY entered the season ranked 29th in receptions, but moved up to 25th after the season-opener and is now in the 21st (226) spot. He's sure to continue his climb up the DII chart on Saturday and needs just two catches to tie for 20th.

FIRSTS VS. QUINCY: Sophomore quarterback Jake Czeschin (Fulton, Mo.) saw his first action in two years, taking over in the fourth quarter. On the first down, he completed a 4-yard pass to redshirt freshman receiver James Walton (Hinsdale, Ill./South). Walton's first career reception. Czeschin was 4-for-5 for 16 yards and played back-to-back series after a fumble occurred on the punt in the first series and was recovered by Kent. Czeschin redshirted last year and saw limited action in 2000 behind Harlon Hill finalist Eric Howe.

Redshirt freshman Brandon Gutshall (Platte City, Mo./Platte County) took his first snap at quarterback in a college game in the Bulldogs' final series vs. Quincy. He threw a complete pass for a touchdown from eight yards out, but it was called back for holding. However, Gutshall did the job himself two plays later, scoring his first collegiate touchdown on a 5-yard run.

True freshman running back Jerard Leverson (Dolton, Ill./Thornridge) caught the first pass of his career in the first opener and is now in the 21st (226) spot. He's sure to continue his climb up the DII chart on Saturday and needs just two catches to tie for 20th.

COACHES RECORDS: Truman head coach John Ware is in his eighth season as taskmaster of the Bulldogs, but has been a member of the Truman coaching staff since 1985. He has posted a career record of 46-32 (.590) as head coach for the ‘Dogs, and is 41-22 (.651) in
