TAKE A KID TO THE GAME DAY: On Oct. 26, the Bulldogs are sponsoring Take a Kid to the Game Day. Kids 12 and under will receive free admission when accompanied by an adult.

TRUMAN (4-1 OVERALL, 2-1 MIAA): Truman entertains the winless Washburn University (0-5, 0-3 MIAA) Ichabods on Saturday for Homecoming. The ‘Bods have lost six straight games dating back to the 2001 season finale. The Bulldogs have won their last two Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association games, beating Southwest Baptist on Family Day last weekend, 44-32. The ‘Dogs have an all-time record of 39-18-2 (67.8%) on Homecoming day.

In the first NCAA regional rankings that were released this week, the Bulldogs came in 10th among 10 teams. The rankings determine postseason qualifiers.

Senior transfer quarterback Dusty Burk (Tuscola, Ill./Illinois State) leads the MIAA and NCAA Division II with 336.2 yards of total offense a game. He completed 14-of-24 passes for 207 and three touchdowns last weekend, carrying the ball 16 times for 115 yards and a TD. It was his second game this year with over 100 yards rushing, but well off of the 160 yards he ran for in the season-opener, the most ever by a Truman quarterback.

Burk’s lowest total offense output so far has been 258 yards vs. Missouri-Rolla. He posted the fourth- and seventh-best games in school history with 411 total yards against Drake and 376 in the Quincy game.

The ‘Dogs are seventh in the nation, averaging 481.4 yards of total offense a game.

Senior slot receiver Andrew Blakley (St. Joseph, Mo./Central) has been a big part of that offensive output as well and leads the nation again this week with 9.0 receptions and senior split end Alfonso Pugh (Galesburg, Ill.) is battling for the Truman receiving touchdowns record. Each has 21 for their career and one or both could break the current record of 22 held by Lloyd Henry (’75-’77) on Saturday.

Pugh also ranks among Truman’s elite receivers of all-time with 109 receptions for 1,550 yards and is eighth and 11th, respectively, among Bulldog career leaders. He has been a special teams weapon as well and leads the team in all-purpose yards (134.6) and tops the MIAA in punt returns (20.1 ypr).

Defensively, junior linebacker Tameem Yehyawi (Keokuk, Iowa) and senior linbacker Judd Lienhard (Lousiana, Mo.) are vying for the team-lead in tackles with 38 and 37, respectively. Yehyawi and senior strong safety Jake Willrich (Grimes, Iowa/Dallas Center-Grimes) each have two interceptions this year with Willrich's second coming in the last outing with SBU.

Senior defensive lineman Nick Weite (Ottumwa, Iowa) also had a pick in that game and leads the team with six tackles for a loss and three sacks, and had four tackles for losses and two sacks against the Bearcats.

Sophomore linebacker Ben Wilson (San Diego/Scripps Ranch) led the team with 12 total tackles against Southwest Baptist and appeared to have recovered a fumble on the SBU 1-yard line, giving Truman the ball back midway through the first quarter. Junior running back Marc Heinecke (Colorado Springs, Colo./Air Force Prep) scored one play later to tie the score at seven apiece.

WASHBURN (0-5, 0-3 MIAA): The Ichabods lost their slated starter at quarterback, Tyler Schuerman, on the first play of the season to a knee injury. Sophomore Dustin Hickel took over and he completed 11-of-20 passes for 193 yards and a TD last week. He is fourth in MIAA total offense (212.4 ypg) and fifth in passing average (185.8 ypg).

Northwest Missouri torched WU for 530 yards of total offense last week, to the Bulldogs in the MIAA and NCAA:
The Bulldogs lead the MIAA in pass offense (280.0 ypg) and are second in total offense (481.4 ypg).

Burk is first in the league in total offense (336.2 ypg), second in passing average (250.0 ypg), third in pass efficiency (149.8) and fifth in rushing (86.2 ypg). Among NCAA Division II leaders this week, Burk leads the nation in total offense and is 18th in passing efficiency.

Blakley tops the MIAA in receptions (9.00 rpg) and is fifth in all-purpose yards (121.8 ypg) and second in scoring (10.9 rpg). Blakley also leads the nation in receptions and is eighth in receiving yards and tied for 10th in scoring.

TRUMAN VS. SOUTHWEST BAPTIST:
Truman scored 14 straight points in the first quarter on the 1-yard run by Heinecke and a 67-yard touchdown catch from Burk to Blakley, after letting Southwest Baptist score on the first series of the game with a 9-yard run by Marco Kirven. After Blakley’s TD catch, SBU’s Kevin Whitley used just one play from scrimmage to score on an 87-yard run with 3:25 left in the first, but the ‘Cats missed the PAT kick, making it 14-13.

Southwest Baptist took the lead again less than a minute into the second quarter when QB Chris Lowe found Marc Green for a 14-yard score. But the Bearcats stalled from there, while Burk carried the ball four yards at 10:51 in the second and senior Austin Lepper booted a 44-yard field goal with 2:03 left in the third quarter to take a 24-19 lead.

Blakley scored his second touchdown on an 8-yard run at 9:06 in the third to put Truman up 31-19, SBU rallied before the Bulldogs in the MIAA and NCAA:

The Bulldogs lead the MIAA in pass offense (280.0 ypg) and are second in total offense (481.4 ypg).

Burk is first in the league in total offense (336.2 ypg), second in passing average (250.0 ypg), third in pass efficiency (149.8) and fifth in rushing (86.2 ypg). Among NCAA Division II leaders this week, Burk leads the nation in total offense and is 18th in passing efficiency.

Blakley tops the MIAA in receptions (9.00 rpg) and is fifth in all-purpose yards (121.8 ypg) and second in scoring (10.9 rpg). Blakley also leads the nation in receptions and is eighth in receiving yards and tied for 10th in scoring.

fourth in the MIAA with 1.20 tackles for a loss per game and is tied for fifth in sacks with 0.60 per game.

Senior Austin Lepper (Ames, Iowa /Gilbert) is seventh in conference punting (36.8 ypp), fourth in scoring (7.4 ppg), second in scoring by kicks (7.4 ppg), third in field goal percentage (66.7), fifth in field goals (4-of-6) and seventh in PAT kicks (89.3%).

THE ABC'S OF BULLDOG FOOTBALL: ANDREW BLAKLEY CATCHES-
Blakley leads the nation again this week in receptions (90), and at that pace is likely to ascend the DII career list another spot after Saturday's game. Despite currently ranking eighth all-time, he will have difficulty reaching the pinnacle where Clarence Coleman of Ferris State sits with 323 catches from 1998-01.

A preseason all-America, Blakley broke the school record for career receptions in the '01 season finale after making 13 receptions for 133 yards, surpassing Otte's mark of 202.

Blakley set the MIAA career receptions mark when he caught his fifth pass of the ESU game in the second quarter on the Bulldogs' first scoring drive. It was a 19-yard reception and put him one over the former record of 226 set by Emporia's Jarett Vito (1995-98). Blakley ended up with eight catches for 104 yards that day.

He broke the Truman career receiving yards standard against Missouri-Rolla and is now 195 yards from setting the MIAA's career receiving yards record that is currently held by Emporia's Lester McCoy (1997-2000) with 3,234. Blakley's father, Charles, is a member of the Truman Hall of Fame and 1999-2000 All-Century football team. Charles was a standout in the Bulldog receiving corps from 1967-70, but made his mark as an outstanding special teams player.

THE PUGH PUNCH: Pugh, who has piqued interest from the pros, has been a valuable weapon on special teams for the 'Dogs, returning a total of three kickoffs for touchdowns, and two punt returns for touchdowns during his career. The most recent TD return was for 32 yards on a punt with 3:00 left in the third quarter of the Quincy game to give the 'Dogs a 48-7 lead.

His three career kickoff returns are an MIAA record. Pugh also caught the second-longest touchdown pass in school history when he and Burk teamed on an 89-yard aerial vs. Quincy this year. Pugh carried the ball 60 yards after making the catch.

AND JENSEN MAKES THREE: Senior flanker Geoff Jensen (Grinnell, Iowa) rounds out the Truman triple receiving threat. He ranks among Truman's most prolific receivers as well with 93 career catches for 1,490 yards and 14 touchdowns. He's been a deep threat for the Bulldogs and caught a 45-yard pass last week. Jensen caught two of the top four longest touchdown aerials in school history, including the longest ever at 93 yards from Howe in 2000 and the fourth-longest at 84 yards from Howe in 2002.

DUST'EM BURK: Dusty Burk has already run into the Truman record book. In the opener vs. Drake, he rushed for a Truman quarterback record of 160 yards, including an 89-yard touchdown run. He threw for 251 yards, tying for the fourth-best game in school history with 411 yards total offense.

The next week against Quincy, Burk charted the seventh-best game in school history with 376 yards of total offense, 289 yards through the air. In that game, Burk threw the second-longest touchdown pass in school history, an 89-yard bomb to Alfonso Pugh.

Against Emporia, Burk had over 500 yards of total offense, racking up 271 passing yards and 43 yards on the ground, and vs. UMR Burk had 258 total yards. In the SBU game, had 207 yards passing and 115 yards on the ground. Burk was the Gateway Conference's freshman of the year and played for Illinois State the last three years, before transferring to Truman to finish his eligibility.

THE REDDING RAILROAD: Mike Redding charted his fourth career game with 100-plus yards after gaining 108 yards on 14 carries vs. Missouri-Rolla. However, it was far from his career high of 144 yards and 14 carries vs. Emporia State in 2001. As a sophomore, Redding had 11 carries for 114 yards vs. UMR and 17 carries for 123 yards vs. Central Missouri. He led the team in rushing after adding five carries for 20 yards vs. SBU on a 5-yard run. He is now third with nine carries for 63 yards after moving into the top four on the team in total tackles with 57.6 yards per game on the ground. Redding has rushed for 1,770 yards on 380 carries (4.7 ypr) for his team in rushing after adding five tackles for losses. Lienhard had one for a loss and is second on the squad with 12 total tackles vs. SBU, including eight stops vs. SBU, including eight stops vs. SBU, and senior linebacker John Ware is in his eighth season as a taskmaster of the Bulldogs, but has been a member of the Truman coaching staff since 1985. In his 80th game as head coach this year, Ware enjoyed a 57-28 win over Missouri. He has posted a career record of 48-33 (.593) as head coach for the ‘Dogs, and is 43-23 (.652) in MIAA games. Ware is 6-1 vs. Washburn.

Craig Shurig is in his first season as head coach of the Ichabods. He is a 1987 graduate of the Colorado School of Mines and served as an assistant coach at Pittsburg State for nine years prior to taking over at WU.

BULLDOGS MAKE PRESEASON ALL-AMERICA TEAMS: Senior first-team all-MIAA center Nick Ruud (Moline, Ill.) and senior linebacker Jake Willrich (Grimes, Iowa/Dallas Center-Grimes) were named first-team preseason all-Americas by D2Football.com, while Blakley and Lepper were both named to the second-team. Lepper was also named to Street & Smith’s list of preseason All-Americas. The Don Hanssen Football Gazette touted Blakley and Lepper as second-team preseason all-Americas as well.

IN THE RED ZONE: For the year so far, Truman has scored 26 of the 31 times the Bulldogs have had the ball in their opponent’s red zone.

The ‘Dogs were 100% vs. Missouri-Rolla, scoring all eight times they got inside the Miners’ 20-yard line, with seven touchdowns and a field goal.

The Bulldogs scored 4-of-6 times in the red zone vs. Drake, getting three touchdowns and one field goal. Against Quincy, Truman was 7-of-8 in the red zone with seven TDs, while vs. ESU, the Bulldogs scored 2-of-3 times in the Hornet red zone on one touchdown and a field goal.

TRUMAN VS. WASHBURN IN LAST YEAR’S CLIFFHANGER: Austin Lepper kicked a 46-yard field goal with six tenths of a second remaining on the clock for a cliffhanger win over the Ichabods last year. The NCAA defines a cliffhanger as a game won on the final play of the game, including PAT kicks. It was the first-ever cliffhanger for the Bulldogs since the NCAA began keeping the record in 1973. It was also the first cliffhanger in the MIAA since Nov. 23, 1996.

Truman had taken a 14-0 lead over Washburn by 13:44 in the second quarter only to see that dwindle as WU’s running back Brandon Rainer scored on three straight drives, capitalizing on two Bulldog turnovers and giving the Ichabods a 20-14 halftime lead. Lepper made good on a 35-yard field goal in the third quarter to bring the ‘Dogs within striking distance.

In the fourth quarter, senior quarterback Eric Howe began the Bulldogs’ second series with a career long run of 24 yards, and then completed passes of 13 and 27 yards to Jensen and Blakley, respectively, to put Truman on the ‘Bods’ 2-yard line. Fullback Carl Swenson punched in the TD to give Truman back the lead, 24-20.

Cornerback Justin Walter grabbed intercepted Schuerman on the ensuing WU drive, but the ‘Dogs could not capitalize on the turnover, failing to convert on fourth and a long one at the 50-yard line.

Washburn then completed three passes, the last one for 33-yards and a touchdown, to regain the lead. However, strong safety Derek Kent blocked the PAT kick for what would turn out to be the ‘Dogs’ margin of victory.
