THE KTVO BULLDOG REPORT can be seen every Sunday evening on Your Source KTVO Channel 3 in Kirksville following the 10 p.m. news. Bryan Dunn talks with Truman head coach John Ware and a Bulldog player about the previous day's game, and they look ahead to next week's contest.

TRUMAN (2-5, 2-3 MIAA): The Bulldogs held Central Missouri's Division II leading scoring offense to nearly 20- points below its average in Truman's 28-22 loss in Warrensburg last Saturday. The 'Dogs hope to bounce back this week by regaining the Old Hickory Stick as they travel to Northwest Missouri for the oldest NCAA Division II trophy game.

The Bearcats suffered a 30-27 loss in overtime to Missouri Western on Saturday. The 'Cats were also displaced in the AFCA national poll by the Griffons last week.

Last year, Northwest captured the Stick from the 'Dogs in a 31-24 decision in Kirksville. In 2001, Truman got the Stick back after a five-year absence from Kirksville, beating the Bearcats 24-23 in Maryville for homecoming that season. The longest ownership of the Old Hickory Stick is by Truman who held it hostage for 11 years, prior to NWMS's five-year skein (see page six for Old Hickory Stick history).

Nineteen freshmen are among the 44 or so regulars that have seen playing time for the Bulldogs this year, including two at quarterback.

The Bulldogs will have just their second losing season under head coach John Ware, and the team's first since 1999. It is the Bulldogs' 28th losing campaign in the team's 96-year history, dating to 1900.

YEHYAWI NAMED MIAA DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Tameem Yeheyawi (Keokuk, Iowa) helped the Bulldogs limit then-No. 14 Central Missouri State well under their 410.3 yards per game total offense average and nation's best 46.7 points per game scoring average.

He recorded a career-high of 16 tackles - nine solos and seven assists -- in his fourth straight game of double-figure tackles, and fifth overall for the 2003 season.

TRUMAN AT CENTRAL MISSOURI: The 'Dogs out-gained CMSU 358-245 in total yards, but made some costly miscues.

The Mules scored on their first possession after a 13-play, 54-yard drive, but the Bulldogs equalled that on the next series following an 18-play 71-yard drive that culminated with a 3-yard pass from junior quarterback Jake Czeschin (Fulton, Mo.) to freshman tight end Cole Voigt (Tolona, Ill./Unity). It was Voigt's first career score and Czeschin's first after missing the two previous games with an injury. The Mules answered with another 70-plus yards drive to take a 14-7 lead. The Truman defense held the Mules to three-and-out on their next possession and the 'Dogs got the ball back on CMSU's 48-yard line after the punt. Czeschin and freshman receiver James Perry (St. Louis/Riverview Gardens) hooked up on an 18-yard pass on the 'Dogs' next drive, but sophomore running back Jerard Leveryson (Dolton, Ill./Thornridge) ran off the 35 other yards in that drive and scored from the one-yard line. A missed PAT kick left Truman with a mere one-point deficit at the break.

After intermission, Czeschin was intercepted on the Bulldog's second play from scrimmage and the resulting 22-yard return left CMSU in control, 21-13. But the Truman defense again held the Mules to three downs on their next series and got the ball back on another short field. Kamphoefner booted a 23-yard field goal to end a 13-play, 50-yard drive and put Truman closer, 21-16.

In the fourth quarter, Keagan Coleman broke a 56-yard TD run to give the Mules a 28-16 lead with 5:49 left to play. The ‘Dogs defense limited CMSU to four plays and minus 23 yards on their next drive, while Czeschin and sophomore receiver James Walton connected on a 63-yard TD pass to bring the ‘Dogs within six points of their host, 28-22, with 1:45 to go. Despite the on-sides kick attempt, CMSU got the ball back and ran the clock out to seal the win.

NORTHWEST MISSOURI: The Bearcats dropped a 30-27 overtime decision to Missouri Western Saturday.

The Bearcats scored on the first play from scrimmage, when quarterback Josh Lambersohn (So., Wilber, Neb.) hit Adam Otte (Sr., Maryville, Mo.) for a 71-yard touchdown pass. The only glitch for Northwest in the first half came on its next possession. Lambersohn’s pass was tipped and intercepted by T.J. Barnet for a 15-yard Missouri Western score.

Northwest broke the 7-7 tie when Corey Paetznick hit a 22-yard field goal midway through the first quarter. The Bearcats got a seven-yard TD pass from Lambersohn to Otte and a two-yard touchdown run from Jamaica Rector (Jr., Celeste, Texas) in the second quarter and led 24-7 at the intermission.

Missouri Western shut Northwest out for the remainder of regulation play. Meanwhile, new Griffon quarterback Michael Cooper led MWSC to 17 unanswered points. The final seven points for Missouri Western in regulation came on a 23-yard pass from Cooper to Erick Fields with 39 seconds remaining. That score tied the game at 24-24.

In the extra period, Northwest stalled at the MWSC 8-yard line and settled for a 25-yard field goal from Paetznick. The three-pointer gave Northwest a 27-24 lead. But the lead didn’t last long. Cooper rolled to the right, looking to pass, on the Griffons’ first play in overtime. Cooper then reversed his field, picked up a couple blockers and scrambled into the left corner of the end zone for a 25-yard TD run, lifting Western to the 30-27 win.

COACHES RECORDS: Truman head coach John Ware is in his ninth season as taskmaster of the Bulldogs, but has been a member of the Truman coaching staff since 1985. He has posted a career record of 52-43 (.547) as head coach for the ’Dogs, and is 47-31 (.603) in MIAA games. Ware graduated from Drake University in 1981 and was an all-America offensive lineman for the Bulldogs. He is 2-6 vs. Northwest Missouri.

‘DOGS & MULES AMONG MIAA AND NCAA DIVISION II STATISTICAL LEADERS ... Senior linebacker Tameem Yehyawi (Keokuk, Iowa) leads the MIAA in tackles with 10.9 a game and is tied for 17th among NCAA Division II leaders this week.

Sophomore Mark Kamphoefner (Defiance, Mo./Washington) tops the league in punting (41.0 ypp) and ranks 26th in NCAA DII in that category. He is also eighth in conference kick scoring (3.0 ppg) and sixth in field goal percentage (58.3) and field goals per game (.88). He ties for 35th in DII field goals.

Sophomore defensive back Marcus Yokeley (Marshall, Mo.) is third among MIAA leaders with 11 passes defended this year and is tied for 32nd among MIAA leaders with 11 passes defended this year and is tied for 32nd in the nation. He is also tied for second in the MIAA with three interceptions on the season.

Derek Kent (Lucas, Iowa/Chariton) is eighth in MIAA tackles for a loss (1.12 pg).

Jerard Leerson is fifth among conference leaders with 100.0 yards a game. He enters the week with 800 for the year. Leerson is also seventh in the conference in all-purpose yards (107.2 pg).

Jake Czeschin is second in MIAA passing average (162.0 ypg), fourth in total offense (161.0 ypg) and 10th in pass efficiency (87.5).

James Walton is eighth in receiving yards (53.8 ypg) and 10th in receptions (3.36 pg).

Jason Douglas is fourth in MIAA punt return average (10.5 ypp).

NORTHWEST MIAA AND NCAA LEADERS: Jamaica Rector leads the MIAA and is seventh in the nation in all-purpose yards (168.6 pg). He is also tops in the league in kick return average (35.8) and second among NCAA Division II leaders in that category. In receiving yards per game, he is also the MIAA leader and ranks 33rd in DII with 87.6 yards a game. He is second in conference receptions (5.50 pg).

Josh Lamberson is 30th among conference leaders in receiving yards (5.36 pg).

NO HOLDS BARRED ... Along with his team-leading three interceptions, Marcus Yokeley has been invaluable on special teams for the Bulldogs. As the holder, Marcus as converted several misguided snaps into points. Against Pittsburg, he took matters into his own hands on a PAT kick attempt and dove into the end zone, and he completed a two-point pass to Mike Mowen vs. Emporia.

At Missouri Southern, he handed off to Mark Kamphoefner who scored a touchdown on a faked field goal, and Yokeley nearly assisted in a score on another faked field goal vs. Washburn when Kamphoefner reached the two-yard line. As a true freshman last season, Yokeley completed a pass for 11 yards on a faked punt vs. Drake.

DON'T GO FOR IT ... The Bulldog defense has stopped five of seven attempts by its opponents to convert on fourth down, the best percentage (28.6) in the MIAA. Against Missouri Southern, the 'Dogs stopped all three fourth down conversion attempts.

FLAG FOOTBALL ... Truman is ranked at the top of the MIAA in least penalty yards (41.6 pg) and most penalty yards by its foes (76.4). The 'Dogs committed the fewest penalties of the season vs. Missouri Southern and Illinois State with just four for 25 yards in both games. ISU committed the most against the Bulldogs this season with 13 for 122, while Pittsburg drew 11 flags for 112 yards and CMSU had 11 thrown for 90 yards.

A HAPPY KAMPER: Mark Kamphoefner became Truman's first MIAA athlete of the week this season after making the first four field goals of his collegiate career in the 'Dog's 12-6 win over Washburn. His longest of the day was a 36-yarder that extended Truman's lead to 12-3. He is tied for the team-lead in scoring with 13 for 122, while Pittsburg drew 11 flags for 112 yards and CMSU had 11 thrown for 90 yards.

IN THE RECORD BOOK: Jerard Leverson put the ball 10 yards on a faked field goal, narrowly missing the end zone in that game. He is tied for the team-lead in scoring with 30 points, picking up his first touchdown vs. Missouri Western on his second faked field goal attempt of the year.

FRESH AIR: Eight Bulldog freshmen have caught passes this year. The group is led by redshirt slot receiver James Perry (St. Louis/Riverview Gardens) who has 24 receptions for 251 yards to rank second on the team in receiving. Against MWSC when he had a team season-high 67-yard catch for a TD. Perry rang up his most receiving yards to date vs. the Griffons with 71. He had the best rushing game of his career at Missouri Southern with two carries for 16 yards and a long run of 13 yards, and carried three times for nine yards against MWSC.

Next is reserve slot receiver Vance Schuring (Pella, Iowa), a true freshman, who is currently third on the team with 14 catches for 111 yards and a touchdown. He had long catches of 14 yards in the first two MIAA encounters with Pitt and WU, and led the team with three receptions for 31 yards against Washburn.

First-year running back A.J. Eads
(Webster Groves, Mo./John Burroughs)
is sixth on the squad with nine catches for 69 yards and had a long reception of 40
yards in his first college game vs. Winona.
He is also second in rushing with 42 carries for 177 yards and a touchdown.
Unfortunately, Eads withdrew from school
this past week.

Redshirt tight end Cole Voigt has 10 receptions for 86 yards to rank fifth on the team in receiving. Voigt enjoyed his best game to date with two catches for 22 yards and a long of 15 yards against Missouri Western. He scored his first TD
vs. CMSU on a 3-yard catch

Linebacker Darryl Reddick has been a part-time starter this season. He tied for the team-lead with 12 tackles vs. Emporia, and was a valuable backup as well, but is expected to be out the rest of the season with an injury.

Redshirt freshman Darnell Williams
Chicago/Corliss) and redshirt Josh Mayson (Mexico, Mo.) have served as backup safeties in nearly every game.
However, after Yokeley went down vs.
CMGU, Mayson made his first start at free
and is the likely starter this week.

Redshirt defensive end Jeff Poulos
(Mt. Zion, Ill.) has contributed in all seven games this year, assisting on his first collegiate stop at Illinois State for a loss of a yard, and he had his second assist at Missouri Southern.

Tackle Justin Smith (Holts Summit, Mo./Jefferson City) made his first start vs. Emporia, and was a valuable backup as well, but is expected to be out the rest of
the season with an injury.

CHEERS FOR YEHYAWI ... Senior linebacker Tameem Yehyawi (Keokuk, Iowa) is having his best year ever. He is leading the team with 87 stops and has seven tackles for losses. Through the first five games, he had the Bulldogs’ only sack
for a loss of eight yards. Yehyawi had 12 tackles in four games this season, including last weekend against MWSC. Two of those four times were against national ranked Pitt State and Emporia. He has nine career games with double-digit tackles, five this year, including his career-high of 16 stops vs. Central Missouri.

SENIOR O-LINEMEN ... Three senior offensive linemen have helped the ‘Dogs limit their first six opponents to just five sacks on the season. Left tackle Eric Stewart (Moline, Ill.), center Greg Klipsch (St. Louis/Lindbergh-Mo.
Southern-Morningside) and right guard Craig Knoth (Cape Girardeau, Mo./Central) have also been driving forces for the ‘Dogs. The trio has combined to make 59 starts over their careers, including every game in 2002 when the team produced 419.4 yards of total offense a game to rank among the top 20 teams in Division II.

WALTON’S WORLD: Sophomore split end James Walton (Hinsdale, Ill./South) leads the receiving corps with 27 receptions for 430 yards.
Walton led the team in receiving in the season-opener with Winona, grab-bng six passes for 96 yards. He also had a team-high of six receptions for 62 yards vs. Pittsburg State. Walton had three catches for 90 yards vs. Emporia, including a career-high 60-yard catch. He had two catches for 68 yards, including a 63-yard TD bomb, vs. CMSU.

KENT HITS HARD: Derek Kent enjoyed his 15th career game with at least 10 stops when he made 11 at Central Missouri last week. He had a team-leading 13 stops in the Missouri Southern contest and tied for the team-leader with 10 total tackles vs. Winona. Kent posted five games with 10 or more tackles last season, en route to his second all-MIAA honors. He leads the team with 12 tackles for a loss.
Kent is currently second in total tackles
(67) for the Bulldogs and has finished among the team’s top two tackle-leaders
since his freshman season. For his career, he has 356 total stops.

Members of two-deep in bold.
In 1930, President U.W. Lamkin of Northwest Missouri State University sent a 30-inch piece of hickory to President Eugene Fair of Truman State University. At that time, neither man could have envisioned the impact of the “Old Hickory Stick” on the two teams during the next 69 years.

President Lamkin found the “coveted trophy” on a farm in the Northwest Missouri State district, where Dr. Fair was born, and the two schools started playing for its possession in 1931. It may not have the prestigious and familiar name of say, the “Little Brown Jug” (Michigan versus Minnesota), but observers of the annual ‘Cat-Dog fuss feel the “Stick” should not be underrated.

The two-and-one-half-foot piece of wood has been the prize for the oldest traditional trophy game in NCAA Division II history.

Seemingly, this trophy has played a significant role in many unpredictable finishes. Perhaps, the small piece of hickory stimulates the adrenaline flow in the athletes. But whether it’s the “Stick”, many seasons of rich tradition between the Bulldogs and Bearcats or some intangible explanation, the players appear to perform a little harder.

Truman has a decided edge in “Old Hickory Stick” meetings, capturing 42, losing 22 and tying NWMS on four occasions. Moreover, the Bulldogs have dominated the entire series, dating back to 1908. The ‘Dogs have posted 54 triumphs, against 24 setbacks and four deadlocks (see series scores on page 55).

Defensive tackle Steve Stock performed the Truman heroics in a, 26-20, victory in 1960 by storming through the forward wall and intercepting a NWMS screen. Without hesitation, he rumbled the remaining 15 yards un molested for a TD with 1:45 showing on the clock.

The Bulldogs’ speedy Joe Spinello virtually defeated the Bulldogs by himself in 1966, catching a touchdown pass and returning two punts for scores. Spinello made an electrifying 72-yard return after Rick Gorzynski’s kick bounced off teammate John Newcomb’s helmet. He also scammeder 86 yards on another punt return to make the score, 21-14. The ‘Cats eventually won, 24-21, on a Mickey Thompson field goal with 1:02 left.

The following year, the Bulldogs had victory within their grasp, 7-6, with 1:54 remaining, only to see fullback Wayne Woolsey snatch a 44-yard TD aerial from quarterback Don Orlowski. However, the 1968 Purple and White recovered the “Stick” in a 9-7 thriller at Maryville. Quarterback Don Cummings kept the ball and ran 30 yards in the first quarter for the Bulldogs’ only TD. Bob Levy added a 30-yard field goal a few minutes later, and Truman spent the rest of the game protecting the slim margin. In the second half, the Bearcats attempted four field goals, the first hitting the uprights. NWMS’s final three-point try, coming with 1:32 to go, was short.

The 1980 Bulldogs trailed the ‘Cats, 10-7, early in the fourth quarter on a homecoming afternoon. But then moved from their 30-yard line to the NWMS five on 12 plays. Quarterback Craig Towbin, spotted flanker Eric Holm in the end zone for a 6-yard TD pass, and the PAT by Greg Dolence made the final score, 14-10.

In 1992, with his team leading by a mere point (21-20) early in the fourth quarter, Bulldog defensive tackle Geoff Hiddleston recovered a fumble and hauled it 46 yards for a TD. After the PAT, the ‘Dogs led 28-20, and it held up the remainder of the game. However, Truman needed a couple of strong defensive series late in the fourth. The final threat was halted with 1:19 remaining, as Truman defensive back Robert Merriman intercepted a pass on his 15-yard line.

Truman’s 11-year ownership of the stick came to a heart-wrenching end when Northwest came to Kirkville in 1996. The Bulldogs scored first, but the Bearcats rolled by Truman in the first half, taking a 28-16 lead into intermission. The eventual MIAA co-champion and NCAA second-round playoff participant would score four more TDs in the third quarter. Truman’s Harlon Hill winner Jarrett Anderson scored the final TD of the game with 1:40 left. Northwest Missouri snapped the longest winning streak since the sticks inception, beating the ‘Dogs, 52-22.

Northwest Missouri held the stick hostage and won two national titles following the ’96 meeting. However, the Stick game kept to its legend of unpredictable finishes in 2001 as the ‘Dogs rallied in the fourth quarter, snapping a 11-game MIAA winning streak for NWMS.

The Bulldogs reclaimed the stick from the then eighth-ranked Bearcats, 24-23, overcoming a 20-7 deficit to start the fourth quarter.

Defensive end Jim Marischen sparked the ‘Dogs come-back by blocking a 24-yard field goal attempt. On the next drive, Austin Lepper made a 30-yard field goal after which the Bulldogs stopped Northwest on its 22-yard line.

Harlon Hill finalist Eric Howe completed passes of seven and 38 yards to get to the ‘Cats’ 8-yard line. Two plays later the Bearcats drew a costly second pass interference call of the drive, leaving fullback Carl Swenson the honor of bringing Truman within three points of the host. Northwest put its last points up after kicking a 31-yard field goal. With 1:30 left in the game, Howe began the Bulldogs’ final drive and connected with Alfonso Pugh on a 17-yard pass, but threw three incompletions after that. Howe stayed poised and found Geoff Jensen on the come-back route, and connected with Andrew Blakley for seven yards and Pugh for 34-yards to get to the NWMS 4-yard line. Howe then made his way to the end zone, just making the right corner to tie the score at 24 apiece. Lepper’s PAT silenced a school-record 9,500 Bearcat homecoming fans.
