THE KTVO BULLDOG REPORT can be seen every Sunday evening on Your Source KTVO Channel 3 in Kirksville following the 10 p.m. news. Bryan Dunn talks with Truman head coach John Ware and a Bulldog player about the previous day’s game, and they look ahead to next week’s contest.

TRUMAN (3-7, 3-5 MIAA): The Bulldogs wrap up the regular season at Southwest Baptist Saturday. The ‘Dogs narrowly escaped with a 35-28 win over Missouri-Rolla last Saturday.

Truman has definitely had a lot of growing pains to work through this year with nearly half of its regulars playing their first seasons of college football. Health issues have also taken a toll with at least four starters having been sidelined for all or part of the season.

The Bulldogs will have just their second losing season under head coach John Ware, and the team’s first since 1999 when the team was 5-6. It is the Bulldogs’ 28th losing campaign in the team’s 96-year history, dating to 1900. In 1973, Truman was 2-7-2, and have had seven four-win campaigns since then, including the most recent 4-7 season in 1999.

The Bulldogs’ 141 points so far this season is the lowest by a Truman squad since the 1979 team scored just 112 and went 4-7. The 342 points that the ‘Dogs have given up this year is second only to the 361 points that the 1991 team allowed in its 5-6 season. It is also just the fourth season, that Truman has given up more than 300 points.

TRUMAN VS. MISSOURI-ROLLA: The Bulldogs came back from a 21-0 deficit in the second quarter, getting on the board on an 8-yard run by Marc Heinecke (Colorado Springs, Colo./Air Force Prep) with a little over six minutes left in the first half.

That touchdown sparked three-straight scores in the third quarter starting with a 3-yard run by sophomore Jerard Levenson (Dolton, Ill./Thornridge) whose work was made easier by sophomore defensive back Jason Douglas (Shawnee, Kan./S.M. Northwest) who picked off the first of two Miner passes on the second UMR play from scrimmage in the third period. His 27-yard return on the pick, left Truman on the UMR 12-yard line and Levenson ran off all 12 yards in three plays to bring the ‘Dogs closer at 21-14.

The Bulldogs defense held the Miners to three-and-out on the next series, and Truman used just six plays to drive 65 yards and even the score on a 20-yard catch by senior Colin Shaw (Naperville, Ill.) from junior quarterback Jake Czeschin (Fulton, Mo.). Shaw’s TD catch preceded a 20-yard run by Levenson and a 30-yard reception by freshman Vance Schuring (Pella, Iowa).

The defense again stopped UMR next drive on the Miner’s own 36-yard line after sniffing out the fake punt on fourth-and-12. Freshman James Perry (St. Louis/Riverview Gardens) caught a pass from Czeschin, covering those 36-yards on the first play of the next series to give Truman its first lead of the day.

Douglas snatched his second stray UMR pass of the day on the Miners’ last drive in the third quarter, but UMR put together an 8-play, 8-yard drive to start he fourth quarter and again tie the score at 28 apiece.

With almost 11 left in the game, the Bulldogs mounted a 19-play, 81-yard drive, that included a 12-yard reception by Schuring on fourth-and-11. Heinecke helped run almost eight minutes off the clock in that drive with eight rushes for 26 yards, and enjoyed the best game of his career with 21 carries for 80 yards. Czeschin found freshman tight end Cole Voigt (Tolono, Ill./Unity) on a six-yard pass for the winning touchdown.

UMR Sophomore Mark Kampafoener (Defiance, Mo.) made 5-of-5 PATs for the day. Senior cornerback Matt Marble (Blue springs, Mo.) also had a pick, his 2003 TRUMAN SCHEDULE third of the year to tie for the team lead.

Senior linebacker Tameem Yehyawi (Keokuk, Iowa) had his seventh game of the year with a team-leading 12 stops and a forced fumble.

Czeschin also had the best game of his career, with 312 yards passing and completed 22-of-29 passes and had three touchdowns with no interceptions.

COACHES RECORDS: Truman head coach John Ware is in his ninth season as taskmaster of the Bulldogs, but has been a member of the Truman coaching staff since 1985. He has posted a career record of 53-44 (54.6%) as head coach for the ‘Dogs, and is 48-32 (.600) in MIAA games. Ware graduated from Drake University in 1981 and was an all-America offensive lineman for the Bulldogs. He is 7-1 vs. Southwest Baptist with the only loss coming in 1999, 18-16.

‘DOGS AMONG MIAA AND NCAA DIVISION II STATISTICAL LEADERS ... Among MIAA statistical leaders, Jerard Leverson (Dolton, Ill./Thornridge) ranks sixth in rushing with 89.5 yards per game. He had the most carries in a game in the league this year when he rushed 48 times vs. Washburn, tying the Truman record for single game carries.

Quarterback Jake Czeschin (Fulton, Mo,) is second in MIAA rushing average (165.1 ypg) and fourth in total offense (183.5 ypg), ninth in pass efficiency (100.9) and fourth in total offense (182.9 ypg).

Sophomore defensive back Marcus Yokeley (Marshall, Mo.) ranks tied for fourth in the league with 0.33 interceptions a game this season. He is also tied for fifth in passes defended (11).

Jason Douglas (Shawnee, Kan./S.M. Northwest) is fourth in MIAA punt return average (9.4 ypr) and eighth in kickoff returns (19.5 ypr).

Freshman defensive back Chandler Terry (Marshall, Mo.) is fourth in kick return average (24.0 ypr).

Senior linebacker Tameem Yehyawi (Keokuk, Iowa) leads the conference in tackles (11.1 pg) and is ranked 15th in the nation this week.

Derek Kent (Lucas, Iowa/Chariton) is eighth among MIAA tackle leaders with 8.8 per contest. However his career was ended after sustaining an injury at Northwest Missouri.

Sophomore Mark Kamphoefner (Defiance, Mo./Washington) is tied for the lead in the MIAA in puntin (40.5 ypp), and is fifth in field goal percentage (50.0), tied for fifth in field goals per game (0.70 pg) and is eighth in kick scoring (2.9 pgp). He is tied for the most field goals kicked in a MIAA this year with four vs. Washburn, tying the Truman single-game record. Kamphoefner ranks 28th in DII puntin average this week.

ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT SELECTIONS: On Thursday, it was announced that three Bulldogs made the Academic All-District team as selected by the College Sports Information Director’s of America. Tameem Yehyawi was named to the first team and advances to the all-America ballot for the second year in a row. He earned second-team academic all-America honors last year.

Second-team all-district honors went to Jerard Leveryson and Derek Kent. Kent was named to the second all-district team last year as well, this is Leveryson’s first year of eligibility for the award.

IN THE RECORD BOOK: Jerad Leverson put his name in the Bulldog record book when he carried the ball 48 times against Washburn. He tied the school record, also held by Chad Guthrie (1989-92) who rushed 48 times vs. Missouri Western on Nov. 16, 1991.

Kamphoefner’s four field goals in that game tied the school record also set by Dave Austinson vs. Nebraska-Omaha (9-4-82), Brad Schrader vs. Southeast Missouri (10-8-83) and Scott Bresaw vs. Missouri Southern (9-29-90).

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT
Tameem Yehyawi is the team-leader in tackles with 111 heading into his final game, for a league-leading 11.1 tackles a game. Last week he ranked tied for 17th among NCAA Division II leaders with 10.9 per game. Yehyawi was named MIAA athlete of the week for his performance against Central Missouri two weeks ago when he had a career high 16 total tackles and nine solo stops, against the nation’s top scoring offense. He has made double-digit tackles in seven games this year, and in 11 games since joining the team as a redshirt in 1999. Yehyawi earned his first all-MIAA recognition a year ago when he was an honorable mention pick. A two-year starter, he has played in a total of 41 games and has made 259 stops heading into the day, along with 3.5 sacks, 20 tackles for losses, five pass breakups and two interceptions. Yehyawi has the highest grade point average on the team with a 3.96 in biology/pre-med. He was a named first-team Academic All-District linebacker this week and now advances to the all-America ballot where he earned second-team Academic All-America status in 2002. He has been a three-year member of the MIAA commissioner’s academic honor roll, was an academic all-MIAA honoree last year, and is a two-time first-team Arthur Ashe, Jr. Sports Scholar. Yehyawi was selected to represent Truman at the NCAA Foundation Leadership Conference last summer.

Nick West has been sidelined since early in the season, but started three games on the defensive line a year ago. He redshirted the 2000 season, and is on track for early graduation with a degree in computer science and will forgo his final year of eligibility. West played in 15 games in 2001 and 2002, making nine tackles and two sacks.

Eric Stewart has made 21 straight starts at left tackle for the Bulldogs, and has seen playing time in 31 career games since joining the team in 1999 as a redshirt. He has helped the Bulldogs limit their 2003 foes to just seven sacks. Last year, Stewart helped the team finish among NCAA Division II’s top 20 teams with 419.4 yards of total offense a game. He is a two-time member of the MIAA commissioner’s academic honor roll. Stewart is a history major.

Colin Shaw has been a valuable reserve wide receiver in 34 games over the last four years with the Bulldogs. He had his best season as a true freshman in 2000 with 11 catches for 147 yards and two touchdowns. Shaw has a total of 22 career receptions for 306 yards and five touchdowns. He caught three passes for 51 yards, with a long catch of 36 yards against Washburn in 2000. Shaw is a two-time MIAA commissioner’s academic honor roll member, and an accounting major.

Matt Marble took over as a starting cornerback this year and has played in 35 games for the Bulldogs since redshirting in 1999. Marble has had the best season of his career, currently ranking fifth in team tackles with 44 along with tying for first on the squad with three interceptions this season. He enjoyed the best game of career this year vs. Northwest Missouri with nine total stops, six solo tackles and his first sack. Marble has 71 career tackles. He is a three-time member of the MIAA commissioner’s academic honor roll, and majors in communication at Truman.

Shaun Lowery has started every game this season after serving as a part-time starter in the Truman secondary the previous two years. In 37 career games for the Bulldogs, Lowery has made 131 total tackles, and enters the day third in team tackles this year with 58. He has a career-high of 15 tackles against Washburn last year, along with personal bests of nine solos and six assists in that game. Lowery grabbed his first interception in the ‘Dogs’ win at Missouri Southern this year. He also has two forced fumbles this year, along with his first eight tackles for losses. Lowery is completing a degree in business administration major at Truman.

Craig Knoth has been a three-year starter at right guard for the Bulldogs, playing in 37 career games before today. He has started the last 31-straight games and will be a four-year letterman. Knoth has helped the Bulldogs limit their 2003 foes to just seven sacks. Last year, he helped the team finish among NCAA Division II’s top 20 teams with 419.4 yards of total offense a game. Knoth redshirted the 1999 season with the ‘Dogs. He is a business administration major at Truman.

Greg Klipsch has started the last 21 games on the offensive line for the Bulldogs. He played every game at left guard last year, and took over at center this season. Klipsch has started in a total of 31 career games at Truman, after transferring from Morningside College (Iowa) where he was a part-time starter in 11 games in 2000. He has helped the Bulldogs limit their 2003 foes to just seven sacks. Last year, Klipsch helped the team finish among NCAA Division II’s top 20 teams with 419.4 yards of total offense a game. He is working on a degree in history/secondary education.

Derek Kent has been a standout in the ‘Dogs’ backfield for the last four seasons, after walking on the team. As a freshman, he finished second in total tackles with 71, and the next year he led the team and was fourth in the MIAA with 119 tackles. Kent was named a second-team all-MIAA linbacker as a sophomore and earned honorable mention recognition a year ago when he again finished second among the Bulldogs with 96 stops. His career was cut short during the Northwest Missouri game, but he will again finish second in team tackles. For his career, Kent made 365 total tackles, six interceptions, 33 tackles for losses, 5.5 sacks, 15 pass breakups and five forced fumbles. He had a career high of 19 total tackles in Truman’s cliffhanger win at Washburn in 2001, making 12 solo stops that day. Kent enjoyed his 15th career game with at least 10 stops when he made 11 at Central Missouri this year. For the second year in a row this week he was named second-team academic all district and is a two-time member of the MIAA commissioner's academic honor roll. Kent is a business major.

Marc Heinecke has been a valuable contributor both as a running back and fullback over his five-year career at Truman. He has seen action in 34 games, carrying the ball 126 times for 501 yards and four touchdowns, and has two catches for seven yards and a touchdown for his career. Heinecke is currently third in team rushing with 31 carries for 123 yards in just three games this year. He returned to action last week after missing the previous six contests, and had the best game of his career vs. Missouri-Rolla on Saturday with three interceptions. A year ago, Heinecke transferred to Truman in 2000 and has served as a linebacker, defensive back and defensive end for the 'Dogs the last two seasons and has played in 38 career games. He is tied for second on the team in sacks with two for losses of 11 yards. For his career, Bredenkoetter has 41 total tackles, five sacks and 13 tackles for losses. He had career highs with four solo tackles vs. Central Missouri in 2001, and had four total stops vs. Missouri Southern this season. Bredenkoetter has also been named to the MIAA commissioner’s academic honor roll once and is a mathematics major.

Billy Bundy has been a valuable contributor both as a running back and fullback over his five-year career at Truman. He has seen action in 34 games, carrying the ball 126 times for 501 yards and four touchdowns, and has two catches for seven yards and a touchdown for his career. Bundy has been a part-time starter at defensive end for the 'Dogs the last two seasons and has played in 38 career games. He is tied for second on the team in sacks with two for losses of 11 yards. For his career, Bredenkoetter has 41 total tackles, five sacks and 13 tackles for losses. He had career highs with four solo tackles vs. Central Missouri in 2001, and had four total stops vs. Missouri Southern this season. Bredenkoetter has also been named to the MIAA commissioner’s academic honor roll once and is a mathematics major.

SOUTHWEST BAPTIST IN THE NCAA:
Marco Kirvin ranks 12th among NCAA Division II rushing leaders this week and is 33rd in all-purpose yards (154.6 ypg).
Marc Green is 33rd among DII reception leaders with 5.7 a contest.
Steve Mattson is tied for 12th in DII field goals per game (1.2).
Travis Howry is tied for eighth in the nation in forced fumbles with 0.44 a game (4).
