This Thursday, Central Missouri is at Washburn. On Oct. 25, the Missouri Southern at Missouri Western contest will air, and on Nov. 8 the final MetroSports broadcast will be of the Pittsburg State at Central Missouri State game. All games begin at 7:08 p.m.

TRUMAN IS COMING OFF OF A CLIFFHANGER with Washburn University last weekend in which sophomore Austin Lepper (Ames, Iowa/Gilbert) kicked a 46-yard field goal with six tenths of a second remaining on the clock for the win. Lepper had practice from that distance after booting one of equal length at Southwest Baptist the week before.

The NCAA defines a cliffhanger as a game won on the final play of the game, including PAT kicks. It is unknown at this time if any other cliffhangers have occurred in Division II this year, but it was certainly the first-ever for the Bulldog football team since the NCAA began keeping the record in 1973. It was also the first cliffhanger in the MIAA since Nov. 23, 1996. At the start of the season only 48 other cliffhangers were in the NCAA Division II record book.

Truman had taken a 14-0 lead over Washburn by 13:44 in the second quarter only to see that dwindle as WU’s running back Brandon Rainer scored on three straight drives, capitalizing on two Bulldog turnovers and giving the Ichabods a 20-14 halftime lead. Lepper made good on a 35-yard field goal in the third quarter to bring the ‘Dogs within striking distance.

In the fourth quarter, senior quarterback Eric Howe (West Des Moines, Iowa/Chariton) began the Bulldogs’ second series with a career long run of 24 yards, and then completed passes of 13 and 27 yards to juniors Geoff Jensen and Andrew Blakley, respectively, to put Truman on the ‘Bods’ 2-yard line. Junior fullback Carl Swenson punched in the TD to give Truman back the lead at 24-20.

Junior cornerback Justin Walter (Chillicothe, Mo.) grabbed the ninth interception, but the ‘Dogs could not capitalize on the turnover, failing to convert on fourth and a long one at the 50-yard line.

Washburn then completed three passes, the last one for 33 yards and a touchdown, to regain the lead. But sophomore strong safety Derek Kent (Lucas, Iowa/Chariton) blocked the PAT kick for what would turn out to be the ‘Dogs’ margin of victory.

KENT NAMED MIAA DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Kent had career-highs with 19 total tackles and 12 solo stops in the Washburn win, aside from his game-winning PAT kick block with 40 seconds remaining. He has led the team in tackles in three games this season and tied for the team-lead once. For the season, Kent tops the team with 57 total tackles, 32 solos and 25 assists.

Last week, Eric Howe was named MIAA offensive player of the week after moving into second-place on the MIAA’s career passing chart and passing for 310 yards and four touchdowns in Truman’s 43-14 win at Southwest Baptist. He was 16 of 26 that day with no interceptions.

THE MISSOURI SOUTHERN LIONS (1-4 OVERALL, 0-4 IN THE MIAA) are coming off a 38-3 loss at Northwest Missouri. Their only win was in the season-opener against Northeastern State (Okla.), 24-0. The other losses that followed were to Southwest Baptist 41-29, Washburn 29-28 and Pittsburg State, 35-13.

Missouri Southern’s game against Northeastern State was called after two quarters due to lightning. NCAA rules state that the statistics do not count since the game did not go at least three quarters. However, the win did count on their overall record.

Against Northwest Missouri, junior quarterback Josh Chapman paced the MSSC offense, completing 14 of 30 passes for 158 yards and gaining 96 yards on 14 carries.

Freshman middle linebacker Nathan Bonnett led the defense with 10 tackles, while senior defensive linemen Kevin Nelson and L’Quincy Prior had nine apiece.

LAST YEAR VS. MISSOURI SOUTHERN, the Lions took an early 7-0 lead on a 3-yard run by Joey Ballard. However, the ‘Dogs would rattle off four touchdowns of their own, beginning on the next drive when junior tailback Mike Redding (Lake Zurich, Ill.) carried the ball 22 yards.

Then-senior defensive back John Naeve grabbed the ninth interception of his career on the Lions’ next series. Lepper capitalized on the turnover for the ‘Dogs by kicking a 29-yard field goal at 3:31 in the first to give Truman the lead, 10-7. The Bulldogs later went ahead 17-7 on a 52-yard TD pass from Howe to Kevin Collins.

Junior split end Alfonso Pugh (Galesburg, Ill.) would push the ‘Dogs’ lead to 17 points after returning a punt 51 yards for the score on MSSC’s next possession. The Lions then drove 75 yards on 18 plays to narrow the margin to eight heading into halftime.

Howe threw the first of three interceptions for the game on the first series in the second half, while the Lions scored on a 9-yard run on their first drive in the third quarter to make the score 24-21. Truman

HOWE FOR THE HARLON HILL: Eric Howe, who is now second all-time in the MIAA, and first at Truman, in career passing yards (7,817) and total offensive yards (7,779) (see page 6), is a candidate for the NCAA Division II player of the year award, the Harlon Hill trophy as he completes the best career ever enjoyed by a Truman quarterback, and one of the best ever in the conference.

However, after playing in just five games as a freshman, he will have trouble catching Kasey Waterman of Missouri Western who is completing his career this season and claimed the top spots in the MIAA in both categories in game two this season and now has 8,349 yards passing and 8,422 yards of total offense since 1998.

Howe has averaged 236.9 passing yards and 1.9 touchdowns a game for his career. In the second game of the season, he claimed Truman records for career passing yards, total offensive yards and passing TDs (now 62).

He is five pass attempts from the Bulldog record of 1,022 set in 1990.

The two-time all-MIAA quarterback was named MIAA player of the week (10/4-01) after completing 17 of 27 passes for 317 yards and four TDs vs. Southwest Baptist. Howe turned in the second-best and third-best seasons in the history of the MIAA as a sophomore and junior, with 2,966 and 2,945 passing yards this season and now has 8,349 yards passing, respectively.

He has thrown for 200 or more yards in 25 games, and has surpassed the 300 yards mark nine times.

Howe has thrown for three or more touchdowns in 12 career games and has seven games with four passing TDs. He contributed to five touchdowns when he threw for four and kept the ball on another vs. Quincy this year.

Howe has thrown 17 passes for 50 yards or more, scoring touchdowns on 15 of those tosses. Of those 17 passes, five were more than 60 yards, two were more than 70 yards, two were more than 80 yards. He had a career long with a 93-yard TD pass vs. Washburn in 2000. That 93-yard bomb was the longest pass reception for a touchdown in school history.

Last Weekend, Howe decided to run the ball for a career high 51 yards on 12 carries (lost 29), averaging 4.3 yards a carry in a 27-26 cliffhanger win for Truman over Washburn (Kan.). He also had a career long run of 24 yards to kick off a Bulldog late-game scoring drive.

BLAKLEY CLIMBING TRUMAN CAREER PASSING LISTS ... Andrew Blakley (St. Joseph, Mo./Central) moved up to third among Truman career receiving yards (1,996) and receptions (162) leaders after making 10 catches for 76 yards vs. Washburn.

Blakley, with 13 career receiving touchdowns, needs one more to tie for seventh with...
Tom Geredine (1969-73) and Larry Tisdale (1984-85) among Bulldog career receiving touchdown leaders.

OTHER ‘DOGS HEADED FOR TRUMAN CAREER LISTS: Alfonso Pugh and Geoff Jensen are poised to enter that same list as have 12 receiving TDs so far in their careers. With 1,090 yards heading into this weekend, Jensen is 144 yards away from entering the Truman career receiving yards list at 16th.

AMONG MIAA & NCAA LEADERS, Howe tops the MIAA in pass efficiency (167.8) and is ranked fourth in the nation this week among NCAA Division II leaders. He is second in league total offense, and 19th in the nation, with an average of 265.7 yards a game. Howe is also second in the MIAA with 259.7 passing yards per game.

Sophomore tailback Brian Cosmano (Glenview, Ill./Glenbrook South) is ninth in league rushing (61.7 ypg). Blakley is second in the league in receiving yards (92.2 ypg) and receptions (5.83 yg), fourth in all purpose yards (121.5 ypg) and seventh in kickoff returns (21.5 ypg). He is 22nd in the nation in receiving yards. Jensen is ninth in league receiving yards (64.3 ypg) and receptions (4.0 pg) and eighth in kickoff returns (20.1 ypg).

Junior cornerback Nick Weite (Ottumwa, Iowa) is ranked third in all of NCAA Division II in field goals per game. Lepper ranks second in the MIAA with 9.5 per game. He is 22nd in the nation in receiving yards. Senior guard Lennie Harrison (Webster Groves, Mo.) is ranked third in MIAA conference tackle leaders with 9.5 per game.

Junior strong safety Derek Kent (Lucas, Iowa/Chariton) is third among conference tackle leaders with 9.5 per game. Junior linebacker Jake Willrich (Grimes, Iowa/Dallas Center-Grimes) is tied for seventh in sacks (2).

Junior cornerback Justin Walter (Chillicothe, Mo.) ranks second in the MIAA in passes defended (10).
