The final MetroSports broadcast is scheduled for Nov. 8 and will feature Pittsburg at Central Missouri at 7 p.m. in a game to decide the 2001 MIAA champion.

TRUMAN (7-3 OVERALL, 5-3 MIAA): The two most prolific quarterbacks in conference history, Truman’s Eric Howe and Missouri Western’s Kasey Waterman, will complete their statistical careers on Saturday as the Griffons play host to the Bulldogs for the regular season finale.

Waterman claimed the MIAA records for career passing yards and career total offense early in the season, while Howe moved into second all-time around the same time.

Howe begins the week with 8,762 passing yards and 8,701 yards of career total offense, but only played in four games as a reserve his first season. Waterman has been the starter at MWSC since his freshman season and has accumulated 9,436 passing yards and 9476 total offensive yards since then.

It is an important game for both men and both teams in that the winner will be making an appearance in the Mineral Water Bowl which hosts the next highest ranking teams from the MIAA and the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference that do not make the NCAA playoffs. The two contending teams in the NSIC are Winona State University (Minn.) and the University of Minnesota-Duluth, both of which face each other for their conference championship this Saturday.

THE MINERAL WATER BOWL is held in Excelsior Springs, Mo., and will take place on Saturday, Dec. 1. The team selections will be announced on Monday, Nov. 12.

The featured speaker at this year's Mineral Water Bowl Banquet will be former Kansas City Chiefs All-Pro defensive end Art Still. The banquet will be held on the night before the game.

Bowl day starts with the Mineral Water Bowl Parade at 10:30 am downtown. It will include marching bands, floats, and this year, the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Kansas City's Marching Cobras, founded by Willie Arthur Smith.

This year bowl week activities will start with a police escort for the teams as they arrive in town on Thursday and a Chamber of Commerce reception that evening at the Elms Hotel.

THE GRIFFONS AND BULLDOGS are sitting in the seventh and eighth spots in the Midwest region this week, respectively. The ‘Dogs had been ranked fifth in the region the week before, but fell to No. 4 Central Missouri State last weekend, 58-27.

North Central Conference teams, North Dakota and Nebraska-Omaha seem to have a lock on the No. 1 and No. 2 spots in the region, while Winona State (Minn.) and Minnesota-Duluth are sitting in the sixth and seventh spots, respectively.

The top four teams in the region will earn a bid to the 2001 NCAA Division II playoffs.

THE BULLDOGS HAVE GUARANTEED THEIR SIXTH WINNING SEASON in the seven-year tenure of head coach John Ware. In fact,

Truman has enjoyed winning seasons 10 of the last 12 years, going back to Ware's days as assistant head coach under Eric Holm. Ware's team will be looking to register eight wins for the first time since going 8-3 in 1994. The 'Dogs have 13 campaigns with eight or more wins and six seasons with nine wins, including a 9-0 season in 1933 under Don Faurot, and 9-1 seasons in 1961 under Red Wade and 1971 under Sloan.

The Bulldogs began the season with two victories for the first time since 1994 after defeating Division I-AA Drake University 40-29 and Quincy, 51-7. Truman then suffered its first MIAA opener loss in seven seasons to Emporia 34-14 before registering five straight wins.

‘DOGS IN THE NCAA: Senior quarterback Eric Howe (West Des Moines, Iowa) boasts the 153rd-best pass efficiency rating (144.5) among NCAA Division II leaders this week. He also ranks tied for 23rd in the nation with 251.6 total offensive yards per game. Howe's 31 completions vs. Washburn ranks tied for 12th among NCAA Division II leaders with 6.4 a game.

Howe's outstanding performances this season have also helped Truman earn a 16th-place ranking in Division II with 428.5 yards of total offense per game, and with 279.6 passing yards per game, Truman ranks 16th among DII leaders. The Bulldogs are also ranked 30th in scoring offense with 32.4 points per game. Truman ranks tied for 22nd in the nation with 239.4 total offensive yards per game. Howe’s 31 completions vs. Washburn ranks tied for 12th among NCAA Division II leaders with 6.4 a game.

Junior slot receiver Andrew Blakley (St. Joseph, Mo./Central) ranks tied for 12th among NCAA Division II leaders with 6.4 a game. Junior split end Alfonso Pugh (Galesburg, Ill.) is ranked tied for 29th with 10.9 yards per punt return.

Junior Austin Lepper (Ames, Iowa/Gilbert) is tied for sixth in DII field goals with 1.3 per game. Sophomore strong safety Derek Kent (Lucas, Iowa/Chariton) was ranked tied for 22nd in the nation with 5.5 solo tackles per game.

MISSOURI WESTERN (8-2 OVERALL, 6-2 IN THE MIAA) Kasey Waterman ranks 22nd in the nation with a 136.1 pass efficiency rating, and is 26th among NCAA Division II leaders with 239.4 total offensive yards per game. Though Waterman leads the offense, the Missouri Western defense has been the story of the Griffons season.

The MWSC defense has allowed its opponents just 15.9 points a game to rank 20th in NCAA scoring defense. The Griffons also rank tied for 21st in DII in pass defense (183.2 ypg) and are 16th in rushing defense (99.7 ypg) and total defense (282.9 ypg).

Senior flanker Jerris Evans is 11th in the nation this week with 14.0 yards per punt return.

He has a career record of 43-32 (.573) as head coach of the Bulldogs, and is 40-17 (.702) in MIAA games. Ware is a 1981 graduate of Drake University and received a masters degree from 1987. Ware is 4-2 vs. Missouri Western.

Jerry Partridge has guided the Griffon for the last five years and is 33-22 during that span. It is his first job as a college head coach.

RED ZONE SCORING: Of the 47 times Truman has gotten inside its opponent’s 20-yard line, the Bulldogs have scored 40 times, including 31 touchdowns and nine field goals. Truman’s opponents have enjoyed success 25 of the 27 times they have been in Truman’s red zone, scoring 18 TDs and seven field goals.

HOWE FOR THE HARLON HILL: Senior quarterback Eric Howe, who is now second all-time in the MIAA, and first at Truman, in career passing yards (8,762) and total offensive yards (8,701) (see page 5 for complete charts), is a candidate for the NCAA Division II player of the year award, the Harlon Hill trophy as he completes the most prolific career ever enjoyed by a Truman quarterback, and one of the best ever in the conference.

After playing in just five games as a freshman, Howe will have trouble catching Kasey Waterman of Missouri Western who is completing his career this season and claimed the top spots in the MIAA in both categories in game two this season.

Against Washburn, Howe ran the ball for a career high 51 yards on 12 carries (lost 29), averaging 4.3 yards a carry in a 27-26 cliffhanger win for Truman. He also had a career long run of 24 yards to kick off a Bulldog late-game scoring drive, and ran in the game-winning TD vs. Washburn.
