Matt Newbery is in his sixth year as the Director of Sports Information for the MIAA. He coordinates the league’s media relations and statistics and handles the designing and editing of the association’s publications. Newbery also aids in the administration of MIAA championship events.

He was an assistant in the sports information office at Pittsburg State University where he graduated in 1990 with a bachelor’s degree in communication.

Ralph McFillen was appointed commissioner of the MIAA in January of 1997 and began his full-time position upon the retirement of the MIAA’s first commissioner, Ken B. Jones in June of that year.

McFillen served as commissioner of the Division I Metro Conference from 1987-95 and commissioner of the Division II Gulf South Conference from 1984-87. McFillen also served as an assistant director of championships at the NCAA from 1972-84. He earned a bachelor’s degree in history and physical education at Kansas State in 1964 and earned a master’s degree in education from KSU in 1967.

The league was first organized in 1912 with 14 member institutions which included Cape Girardeau State Teachers, Kirksville State Teachers, Maryville State Teachers, Springfield State Teachers, Warrensburg State Teachers, Central College, Central Wesleyan, Culver-Stockton, Drury, Missouri Valley, Missouri Wesleyan, Tarkio, Westminster and William Jewell.

In 1924, the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association (MIAA) reorganized to include only the five regional state colleges; Central Missouri, Truman, Northwest Missouri, Southeast Missouri and Southwest Missouri.

Lincoln University became the seventh institution to gain membership in the league in 1970.

The University of Missouri-St. Louis entered the MIAA in 1980, but left the league in 1996.

Southwest Missouri State University left in 1981 to pursue membership in NCAA Division I.

In 1982, the league, for the first time in its history, began sponsoring championships for women’s athletics.

Southwest Baptist University gained membership to the conference in 1986 boosting membership to eight schools.

A major expansion of the league took place in 1989 as Missouri Southern State College, Missouri Western State College, Pittsburg State (Kan.) University and Washburn (Kan.) University joined.

In 1991, Southeast Missouri State University left to pursue NCAA Division I status and Emporia State (Kan.) University became the 12th member of the MIAA.

In 1992, the league changed it’s name to the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association to better reflect its membership.

In 1997, Ken B. Jones retired after serving since 1981 as the MIAA’s first full-time commissioner.

Lincoln would leave the MIAA after the 1998-99 season.
