Chris Hegg completed 45 passes for 447 yards in this 1985, 44-45, thrilling win for the Bulldogs over NCAA Division II No. 1-ranked Central Ohio State.

As a team and individually, the Truman Bulldogs appear in several places on the list of various NCAA Division II football records. Teamwise, the ‘Dogs rank 14th in Division II, regarding all-time winning percentage with .610 (95 years, 500-313-34), and are eighth on the Division II victory list.

Truman is seventh in the category for longest Division II winning streaks since 1931. Between 1931-35, the ‘Dogs rolled up 27 consecutive victories under Coach Don Fauror.

In the category for longest unbeaten streaks (wins and ties), Fauror’s Skein is tied for 17th in NCAA Division II.

In 1985, Truman led the nation in total offense with 471.4 yards per game and passing offense at 345.1 yards a game.

In 1982, the Bulldogs finished first in scoring offense in DII with 510 points per game. Truman is also listed among the NCAA’s list of cliffhangers, defined as games won on the last play of the game. In 2001, the Bulldogs beat WU when Austin Lepper made a 46-yard field goal with six-tenths of a second left to play.

JARRETT ANDERSON made an indelible mark in the NCAA record book with his career performance at Truman. After leading the nation in rushing (2,140 yards) and scoring (168 points) in 1996, he rewrote three NCAA standards and shared two others (see page 40).

Currently, Anderson ties the NCAA record for seasons with more than 1,000 yards rushing (4).

Anderson’s ‘96 total of rushing yards is the fifth-best at the Division II level and the 17th-best season at any level. His season yards per game (194.5 in 1996) is the sixth-best in DII history and ranks 24th at all levels.

Anderson is eighth in DII, and 14th among all divisions, in career rushing yards (6,166). In career yards per game, he is 15th in DII and 39th at any level (143.4).

With 440 career points, Anderson is sixth in DII and 16th among all divisions. His ‘96 single season scoring total (168 points) is 12th in DII and is tied for 32nd at any level.

Anderson’s total of 6,926 career all-purpose yards puts him 12th in DII and 28th among all divisions. He is 20th in DII all-purpose yards gained in a single season with 2,307 in 1996.

DAVE AUSTINSON, a place-kicker for the 1981 and 1982 Bulldogs, owns the Division II mark for career points per game scored by kicking with a minimum of 145 points (8.3, 149 in 18 games).

ANDREW BLAKLEY entered the NCAA Division II career receptions list following his junior season, and finished his career by tying for the lead in the nation with 8.7 receptions per game in 2002. His 300 career receptions (for 3,458 yards) leaves him ranked sixth on the NCAA’s all-divisions list, while he is second in DII. He is also 13th on the Division II single season receptions list with his 96 catches in ’02.

CURT CIRA, a defensive lineman, is in an eight-way tie for second on the DII list for single game forced fumbles. He poked two balls loose in a Sept. 16, 2000, game vs. Southwest Baptist. and vs. Pittsburg State on Oct. 27, 2001.

JASON DOUGLAS entered the NCAA record book as a true freshman in 2002 when he became the most recent occurrence in the NCAA DII record book Oct. 18, 1975, at Missouri-Rolla. It was the most recent occurrence in the NCAA DII record book until 2002.

GARY EVANS shares the Division II record for most interceptions in a single game with six other players. He picked off five stray aerals Oct. 18, 1975, at Missouri-Rolla. It was the most recent occurrence in the NCAA DII record book until 2002.

CHARLES HEGG, responsible for nine Division II records in 1985, still ties the single season mark for most games gaining 300 or more yards total offense (8).

He led the nation in total offense in 1985 with 545.8 yards per game, the 14th-best average in the Division II record book. Hegg’s total year of 3,782 yards is the eighth-best season in DII history and ranks 68th among all divisions. His 3,741 passing yards in ’85 is the eighth-best season in Division II, while his 340.1 passing yards per game that year ranks 18th in DII. Hegg’s career passing average (265.3) from 1984-85 is the 19th best, and his career total offensive yards per game mark (270.9) is the 15th-best in DII.

ERIC HOWE added his name to the NCAA record book in 2001. Howe is one of eight players tied at three for number of seasons gaining 2,500 yards or more of total offense when he did it from 1999-2001. His 9,040 career yards of total offense is the 21st-best among all-time NCAA Division II leaders. Howe’s 9,097 career passing yards rank 19th among DII leaders.

DALE “PALEY” MILLS, who at one time held 10 college division records, is 29th among Division II career rushing leaders. The All-America gained 4,502 yards between 1957-60 and led college division rushers in 1958 and 1959. For all divisions, Mills ranks 31st in career scoring with 407 points and is 23rd in career points per game with 11.3. He ranks 13th in career points and eighth in career points per game in NCAA DII.

ALFONSO PUGH, a split end, ranks ninth on the NCAA Division II list for career punt return average with a mark of 14.7 from 19990-02.

Two other Bulldogs were national champions in their statistical categories. BOB FLETCHER led Division II in punting average (43.2 yards per kick) in 1979, and MIKE HARRIS finished first in rushing (145.3 yards per game) in 1978.

Harris gained 1,598 yards on 329 attempts that season.
