MIAA Timeline

* The Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association was first organized in 1912 with 14 member institutions which included Cape Girardeau State Teachers, Kirksville State Teachers, Maryville State Teachers, Springfield State Teachers, Warrensburg State Teachers, Central College, Central Wesleyan, Culver-Stockton, Drury, Missouri Valley, Missouri Wesleyan, Tarkio, Westminster and William Jewell.

* In 1924, what was then known as the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association (MIAA) reorganized to include only the five regional state colleges; Central Missouri, Truman, Northwest Missouri, Southeast Missouri and Southwest Missouri.

* The University of Missouri-Rolla joined the conference in 1935 expanding membership to six.

* In 1936, the MIAA aligned itself with the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) College Division.

* Lincoln University became the seventh institution to gain membership in the league in 1970.

* The University of Missouri-St. Louis entered the MIAA in 1980, but left the league in 1996.

* Southwest Missouri State University left in 1981 to pursue membership in NCAA Division I.

* In 1982, the league, for the first time in its history, began sponsoring championships for women’s athletics.

* Southwest Baptist University gained membership to the conference in 1986 boosting membership to eight schools.

* A major expansion of the league took place in 1989 as Missouri Southern State University, Missouri Western State College, Pittsburg State (Kan.) University and Washburn (Kan.) University joined.

* In 1991, Southeast Missouri State University left to pursue NCAA Division I status and Emporia State (Kan.) University became the 12th member of the MIAA.

* In 1992, the league changed its name to the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association to better reflect its membership.

* In 1997, Ken B. Jones retired after serving since 1981 as the MIAA’s first full-time commissioner.

* Lincoln would leave the MIAA after the 1998-99 season.
