TRUMAN (5-7, 1-2 MIAA): The men's basketball team hits the road again for two straight starting with Saturday's contest against Emporia State.

Truman should have plenty of momentum on its side after knocking off No. 21 Northwest Missouri on Wednesday night in Pershing Arena. The Bulldogs shot 55.9% from the field in that game and four players were in double-figures as Truman won 83-71. It was their first win over a ranked opponent since 2000-01 when the Bulldogs defeated another nationally-ranked Northwest Missouri team by a 68-58 score in Pershing Arena.

Emporia State is looking to bounce back after dropping its first MIAA contest on Wednesday at Missouri Western. The Griffons hit 13 three-pointers as they defeated Emporia State by an 80-61 score.

EMPIRIA STATE (6-6, 2-1 MIAA): Following Wednesday's loss to Missouri Western, the Hornets are 2-1 in MIAA play and a perfect 2-0 in conference home games. The Hornets have a high scoring team, averaging almost 80 points a game, but are also allowing the most points per game in the conference, giving up 81.7 points a contest.

TRUMAN PROBABLE STARTERS
3-Chip Sodemann, Fr., G, 5-11 (9.8 ppg, 2.6 rpg)
32- Ryan Welker, Fr., F, 6-5 (6.8 ppg, 2.7 rpg)
35-Derek Lindsey, Fr., G, 6-3 (2.4 ppg, 2.4 rpg)
40-Matt Beran, Jr., F, 6-6 (12.1 ppg, 8.2 rpg)
50-Adam Glosier, Jr., C, 6-7 (10.3 ppg, 6.3 rpg)

Emporia State is averaging over seven three-pointers a game, the third-best mark in the MIAA. However, the Hornets are last in the conference in rebounding with a -4.0 rebounding margin.

Robbie Ballard leads the team with 19.5 points a game and four other players, Demond Perris, Thomas Vincent, Shawn Herrman and Aaron Shaw, are all averaging over 10 points as well. Perris leads the team with 6.0 rebounds a game following closely behind by Herrman with 5.9 boards a contest. Shaw is averaging over four rebounds and four assists a game.

The Hornets are coached by David Moe who is in his second season at Emporia State. He went 7-19 last year in his first year as a collegiate head coach.

RECENT GAMES- Truman-83, Northwest Missouri-71: The Truman men’s basketball team broke through with one of its biggest wins in the last few seasons on Wednesday, knocking off nationally-ranked Northwest Missouri by a 83-71 score in the MIAA home opener for the squad.

The Bulldogs never trailed in the game, jumping out of the gates on a 14-4 run. The team led by as much as 13 in the first-half but Northwest Missouri answered with a 10-0 run at the end of the half to trail just 36-33 at the break.

Truman got off to another strong start in the second-half, opening up an eleven-point advantage at 48-37 with just under 16 minutes to go. Northwest Missouri would never get closer than three as clutch Bulldog shooting helped put down several Bearcat rallies.

Truman shot 55.9% from the field on the night and turned the ball over just eight times. Jiri Mikl ended with 20 points, 13 in the second-half, and hit four-of-10 from three-point range. It was a balanced offensive effort for the Bulldogs as Adam Glosier added 18 points, Matt Beran had 16, Chip Sodemann had 12 and Aaron Mueller chipped in with nine. Derek Lindsey led the effort on the boards with eight and Sodemann had a season-high seven assists.

Northwest Missouri, the top three-point shooting team in the MIAA, was held to just six three-pointers and a .286 percentage beyond the arc. Scott Fleming ended the game with 17 points and Kelvin Parker had 15. Austin Meyer was in double-figures for any Truman opponent this year, as they won 80-71.

Washburn was led by Ryan Murphy who had 20 points and 13 rebounds. Manny Clifton came off the bench to score 13 for the Ichabods.

CENTRAL MISSOURI-66, TRUMAN-63: Truman shot 50.9% from the field, the best for any Truman opponent this year, as they won 80-71.

The Bulldogs turned the ball over just nine times on the night but only forced eight turnovers and were outrebounded 35-25. Truman had a good night from the free throw line, going there 24 times and converting on 20 of those.

Jiri Mikl had a season-high 21 points after hitting seven-of-12 from the field and all six of his free throw attempts. Matt Beran just missed a double-double with 15 points and nine rebounds and also led the team with three assists, two steals and a block. Bret Maxwell tied a career-high with 11 points.

WASHBURN-80, TRUMAN-71: The Bulldogs outscored nationally-ranked Washburn over the last 35 minutes but could not overcame a 14-6 hole. The Ichabods shot 50.9% from the field, the best for any Truman opponent this year, as they won 80-71.

The Bulldogs moved up to fourth in the conference rebounding battle with eight.

Ryan Welker led the team with 11 points and Adam Glosier was the other Bulldog in double-figure scoring with 10. Aaron Mueller had nine points after hitting three three-pointers while Chip Sodemann had eight points and four assists despite playing just 24 minutes before fouling out. Matt Beran was the leading rebounder with eight.

The Mules scored 29 of their points off of Bulldog turnovers with 19 of those coming in the second-half. Truman won the rebounding battle 39-36, shot better than the Mules from the field and three-point range and had seven more assists.

MIAA LEADERS: The Bulldogs moved up to fourth in the conference in scoring defense and is eighth in scoring offense in the latest MIAA statistics. Truman is also among the top of the leaders list in field goal percentage defense (2nd), free throw percentage (4th), three-point field goal percentage (4th), assists (4th), assist-to-turnover ratio (4th) and blocked shots (t-4th).

Individually, Matt Beran is 18th in scoring, third in rebounding and tenth in field goal percentage. Adam Glosier is currently 14th in rebounding while Aaron Mueller is seventh in three-pointers made and tenth in three-point percentage. Jiri Mikl moved into the scoring leader list in the 20th spot. Gavin Welker returned among the block leaders, tied for ninth.

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE: Defending your home court is always important in conference play but could be even more so this season in what appears to be a very balanced league. So far in MIAA action, the home team has won 11 of 15 games (73%).

BACK-TO-BACK 20s: Jiri Mikl has back-to-back 20-point games, the first Truman player to accomplish that this year. In the win over Northwest Missouri, he was eight-of-15 from the field, including four-of-10 from three-point range. He ended the game with 20 points, 13 of which came in the second-half. Against Washburn, Mikl was seven-of-12 from the field and six-of-six from the free throw line, ending the game with 21 points.

After averaging just over seven points and being held scoreless twice in the first five games of the season, Mikl has turned up his play. Over the last seven games, he is averaging 15.1 points a game, shooting 50% from the field and grabbing nearly three boards a game.

DOUBLE THREAT DOWN LOW: Matt Beran and Adam Glosier are combining to form a dangerous post pairing for the Bulldogs.

Beran has scored in double-figures in two straight games, a positive sign after he had been slowed down by an injury which occurred against Hannibal-LaGrange. One of the top rebounders in the MIAA, Beran is averaging 7.7 rebounds in the three conference games.

Glosier has also improved as the season has gone on. In the last five games, he has scored in double-figures four times, is averaging 13.6 points and 5.8 rebounds and shooting 63.0% from the field.

LEADING THE OFFENSE: Freshman Chip Sodemann is the only Truman player to start all 12 games this year and is doing a good job running the Bulldogs offense. Against Northwest Missouri, he had his eighth double-figure scoring game of the year with 12 points and dished out a season-high seven assists while turning the ball over just once.

For the season, he is averaging over three assists a game and has a 1.36 assist-to-turnover ratio. Sodemann has been even better lately, recording at least four assists in five of the last six games.

HOT SHOOTING: Truman's hot shooting of late continued against the Bearcats as the Bulldogs shot a season-best 55.9% from the field. After shooting less than 40% over the first three games, Truman has shot 46% or better in every game since then but two. The team is shooting 50% in its three MIAA games.

This statistic has been key in whether Truman wins or loses. The Bulldogs are 4-0 when they shoot better than 50% from the field but just 1-7 when they shoot 50% or below. Eighty points is also a key number for the squad as they are 4-0 when scoring that many.

FREE THROW SHOOTING: The Bulldogs continue to make their free throws as well. Truman is shooting 73.1% from the line on the season and 80.4% in MIAA games. The team has not shot worse than 75% in a game since the Central Christian game back on Dec. 2.

Truman has also knocked down its foul shots in the clutch as it has made 27-of-35 (77.1%) free throws in either the final two minutes of regulation or during an overtime period. Chip Sodemann has been especially good down the stretch, hitting 10-of-11 free throws in the final minutes.

TAKING CARE OF THE BALL: The Bulldogs seem to have learned from their mistakes about taking care of the ball. After losing to Central Missouri in large part because of 27 turnovers, Truman has turned the ball over just 17 times combined in the last two games against Washburn and Northwest Missouri.

CLOSE CALLS: Truman has had its opportunities in almost every loss this year. Five of the team’s seven defeats have come by less than ten points. In contrast, all five of Truman’s wins have come by at least 12 points.

HEAD COACH JACK SRHRADER: Jack Schrader is in his eighth season as head coach of the Truman men’s basketball team after serving as an assistant coach at Truman for four years under Willard Sims.

In seven years under Schrader, the Bulldogs have made five appearances in the MIAA postseason tournament. Prior to this season, he was 83-110 (.430) for his career at Truman and, in 1998-99, led the team to one of its best seasons that concluded with an appearance in the 1998-99 NCAA championship semifinals. Truman claimed the MIAA postseason tournament championship that year and Schrader was named the conference’s co-coach of the year and the NABC regional coach of the year.

Prior to coaching the Bulldogs, Schrader coached professional and high school teams all over the world. He was a member of the Arizona State Sun Devils for three years and was drafted by the Phoenix Suns in 1975 and played professionally in Europe.

SEASON HIGHLIGHT REEL:
◆ Matt Beran was named to the Milner Classic all-tournament team after averaging 20 points and 14 rebounds a game. In that tournament, he had career-highs with 23 points and 18 rebounds against Florida Tech.

◆ The Bulldogs register their first 100-point victory in more than three years when they defeat Central Christian College of the Bible 111-47.

◆ Truman's bench players score 41 points and shot 68% from the field as the Bulldogs match last year's win total with a 80-58 victory over Hannibal-LaGrange.

◆ Truman wins its biggest non-conference game of the year with a 78-65 victory at Drury. Adam Glosier leads the Bulldogs with 20 points on 10-of-13 shooting.

◆ The Bulldogs defeat a nationally-ranked team for the first time in two seasons with a 83-71 win over No. 21 Northwest Missouri.

* Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association match

UP NEXT: Truman is on the road next Wednesday, facing Missouri Western in a 7:30 p.m. contest in St. Joseph, Mo. The Bulldogs return home on Jan. 18 for an afternoon tilt against Pittsburg State.

TAKE A KID TO THE GAME: Truman will be sponsoring another Take A Kid To The Game day on Jan. 25 when the Bulldogs take on Missouri Southern in a men’s/women’s doubleheaders.

The NCAA’s mascot J.J. Jumper will also be at the games on the 25th. Along with free admission to games, kids can meet J.J. Jumper and get free team posters and pom poms.

SONIC SHOT OF THE CENTURY: On Jan. 18, the traveling Sonic Shot-of-the-Century will be in Kirksville. One person will be chosen at random from those who register at the game, and will have the opportunity to win $10,000 by making a layup, a free-throw, a three-pointer and a half-court shot within 24 seconds. The contestant will win a prize for each shot he or she makes, regardless if they win the grand prize.

In addition, the Truman NCAA Division II runnerup volleyball team will be honored immediately following the 10K shootout.

2003 SONIC MIAA TOURNAMENT: The men’s and women’s Sonic MIAA Postseason Tournaments will be held at a neutral site this year for the first time. The Sonic MIAA Tournament will take place on March 6-9 at Municipal Auditorium in Kansas City, Mo. For ticket information, call the Truman ticket office at (660) 785-4167.
