BULLDOGS ON THE WEB AT GOBULLDOGS.TRUMAN.EDU

FEB. 19, 2004

THE GAME: Truman State University Bulldogs (Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association/NCAA Division II) vs. Emporia State University Hornets (Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association/NCAA Division II)

Date/Time: Feb. 21, 2004, 3:30 p.m.
Arena (Cap.): Pershing Arena (3,000)
Location: Kirksville, Mo.

BROADCAST: Bulldog basketball games are broadcast on KRES 104.7 FM in Moberly, Mo. The games can also be heard over the web at www.regionalradio.com/html/kres.html.

Sports Director Brad Boyer does play-by-play with commentary from long-time Bulldog announcer, Hank Jannsen. The pregame show begins approximately 15 minutes before tip-off.

FOOD DRIVE: Truman fans will receive free admission to the Bulldogs’ home game this Saturday by bringing canned food goods for the Captains Roundtable food drive.

TRUMAN (6-18, 3-12 MIAA): The Bulldogs’ playoff hopes took a hit last night with an overtime loss at Missouri Western. The team will look to keep their faint postseason tournament chance alive on Saturday when they host Emporia State.

Truman remains just two-games behind Missouri-Rolla for the final spot in the Sonic/MIAA championship. The Bulldogs would have to pass two teams to move into that slot, as Southwest Baptist is now a game ahead of Truman.

The Bulldogs’ offense came alive last night but a last second shot by the Griffons sent the game into overtime. In the extra period, it was all Missouri Western as they outscored Truman 17-12 in the second overtime period, it was all Missouri Western as they outscored Truman 17-12 in the second overtime.

SCOUTING EMPORIA STATE (19-5, 11-4 MIAA): The Hornets appear headed toward a NCAA tournament berth as they sit third in the conference with an 11-4 record. All of the team’s conference losses have come on the road, two of them in overtime.

Emporia State is involved in high scoring games as it has one of the top offenses in the country, but also the worst scoring defense in the MIAA. The team leads the league in turnover margin and is second in field goal percentage, three-point percentage and three-point field goals made.

Six players average double-figures for the Hornets and four of those athletes are shooting over 50% from the field. Tony Travis leads the squad with 15.3 points a game and Demond Perris averages a team-high 13.5 points in MIAA games.

Thomas Vincent leads the team with 55 three-pointers, six more than teammate Aaron Shaw. Travis leads the team with just under five assists a game and Greg Patton and Vincent are one-two in the conference in assist-to-turnover ratio. Perris leads the team with 6.7 rebounds a game and Ed Desir paces the squad with 28 blocks.

Head coach of the Hornets is David Moe who is in his third year at the school and has a coaching mark of 42-25.

SERIES RECORD: Emporia State holds a 13-9 all-time series lead over the Bulldogs following its win earlier this season. The Hornets have won the last five meetings since a 62-58 Bulldog win in Emporia in 2001.

In Kirksville, the series is tied at five wins apiece. The Hornets have won in Pershing Arena in each of the last three years, with the last Truman win being a 84-64 victory in 2000.

EARLIER THIS SEASON -

EMPORIA STATE-85, TRUMAN-80
(JAN. 10, EMPORIA, KAN.)

In an exciting game that featured 10 ties and 17 lead changes, the Hornets were able to hold off the Bulldogs for an 85-80 win.

The Bulldogs led 77-76 with a minute remaining, but was outscored 9-3 down the stretch. A three-pointer by Greg Patton gave Emporia State the lead for good and a fast break layup gave the home team an 81-77 advantage with 40 seconds remaining.

Truman’s Grant Agbo had a three-point play to get the Bulldogs within one, but four free throws by the Hornets wrapped up the game.

Emporia State jumped out to an early 19-11 lead in the game, but the Bulldogs fought back. Truman briefly led twice in the first-half and trailed by just a 38-37 margin at the break. Neither team led by more than five points in the final half, but the quick 5-0 burst by the Hornets in the final minute was enough to give them the win.

Truman hit one more three-pointer and outrebounded the Hornets 41-35 in the game. Emporia State, however, went to the charity stripe 12 more times in the game and turned the ball over five less times than the Bulldogs.

Five Bulldogs were in double-figures scoring, led by Matt Beran who came off the bench to score 16 points on seven-of-12 shooting from the field. He also recorded seven rebounds, five assists and a blocked shot. Another hot hand off the bench was Matt Brock who had 12 points, all coming on four first-half three-pointers. Agbo had a second consecutive double-double with 11 points and 10 rebounds. Andy Calmes added 13 points and a point.

Hornets have won the last five meetings since a 62-58 Bulldog win in Emporia in 2000.

In Kirksville, the series is tied at five wins apiece. The Hornets have won in Pershing Arena in each of the last three years, with the last Truman win being a 84-64 victory in 2000.

The game went into overtime after a close battle that featured five ties in the final two-and-a-half minutes of regulation. Truman took a lead after four of those ties, including a 72-70 advantage after two Matt Beran free throws with seven seconds remaining. The Bulldogs left too much time on the clock, however, as Robert Bishop was able to dribble down and make a layup with less than a second remaining.

Truman opened the game on a 6-0 run and led 22-14 midway through the first-half. Missouri Western answered with a 10-0 run to take the lead. After the two teams traded the lead several times, the Griffons went on a small burst at the end of the half to take a 41-37 lead into the break.

Truman had a small edge in the turnover margin by turning the ball over just nine times, compared to 10 for the home team. Missouri Western made 22 more free throws than the Bulldogs, making up for the fact they hit five less field goals and one less three-pointer.

Missouri Western continued to lead for most of the second-half, until the Bulldogs caught up with them in the final three minutes.

Free throws and fouls were again the key stats in a Truman loss. The Bulldogs were whistled for 14 more fouls, leading to the Griffons shooting 45 free throws in the game, compared to just 29 for Truman. Missouri Western made 22 more free throws than the Bulldogs, making up for the fact they five less five field goals and one less three-pointer.

Missouri Western won the rebounding battle by a 43-36 margin. Truman had a small edge in the turnover margin by turning the ball over just nine times, compared to 10 for the home team. The Griffons shot 47.3% from the field compared to a 44.9% for the Bulldogs.

Missouri Western had four players in double-figures, led by Grant Agbo with 12 points. Chip Sodemann and Adam Ogle added 11 and Andy Calmes chipped in with 10 points. Calmes also led the team with seven rebounds.

Missouri Western got a big game from DeVonte King who had 18 points and 13 rebounds. Battles added 22 points for the Griffons.

The Bulldogs slipped to fourth in the MIAA in scoring defense, as they now allow 70.2 points a game. Truman is also in the upper-half of the league statistics in field goal percentage defense (4th), rebounding offense (5th) and defensive rebounds (3rd).

Individually, Grant Agbo is ranked seventh in field goal percentage, 12th in rebounding and 14th in scoring. Matt Beran is ranked tenth in rebounding.

ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT: Two players from the Truman men’s basketball team were named to the academic all-district team, as selected by members of CoSIDA. It is the seventh straight season that at least one member of the Bulldog basketball program has been named to an academic all-district team.

Matt Beran was named first-team academic all-district. It is his second time being honored, as he earned second-team accolades last season. Beran has a 3.84 GPA while working towards his accounting degree at Truman. He has twice been named to the MIAA commissioner’s academic honor roll and was named to the academic all-MIAA team last year.

Aaron Mueller was named to the academic all-district team for the first time, being included as a second-team member. Mueller has a 3.93 GPA at Truman as an exercise science major. He has been named to the MIAA commissioner’s academic honor roll two times during his Truman career.

CAREER LEADERS: Matt Beran currently has 643 career rebounds, just the 11th player in Truman history to grab over 600 boards. He needs just four more to move into the top 10 list.

Beran has also recorded 889 points in his career, which currently ranks 28th in the Truman record books. He needs 32 more points to break into the top 20 in that list.

Only nine other Bulldogs in the history of the program have recorded over 800 points and 600 rebounds. Beran is also currently tied for fifth in career blocks with 69.

Another senior has also been climbing the career chart. Aaron Mueller has hit 106 three-pointers for his career, which ranks eighth in Bulldog history.

GETTING TO THE LINE: Truman has one of the better field goal percentage defense marks in the MIAA, but lately have been getting in trouble by putting the opposition where that stat doesn’t matter ... on the free throw line.

Over the last four games, the Bulldogs have committed an average of 24 fouls a game, leading to opponents attempting 31.3 free throws a game. In that same span, Truman has gone to the free throw line just 12.5 times a contest.

BENCH SCORING: The Bulldogs have gotten great scoring production from their bench lately, with 54.6% of the team’s scoring over the last three games coming from bench players.

Andy Calmes has been one of the top players off the bench over the second-half of conference play. In the last six games, he is averaging 9.5 points and is shooting 50% from the field.

BROCK HEATING UP AGAIN: Matt Brock is in the middle of another hot streak from beyond the arc. In the last three contests, he has hit three three-pointers twice and is shooting 50% (seven-of-14) from beyond the arc.

REGIONAL RANKINGS: Through games played on Feb. 15, three MIAA schools were ranked in the South Central region. Washburn is first in the region, Northwest Missouri is third and Emporia State is fifth.

MISC. NOTES: Truman committed less turnovers than Missouri Western last Wednesday. It is the first time the Bulldogs have had a positive turnover margin for a game in MIAA play ... the Bulldogs have been outrebounded in each of the last three games. Prior to that, Truman had outrebounded teams in six of the seven contests ... Jack Schrader is 4-10 in his career against Emporia State ... David Moe is 5-0 in his career against Truman.

1,000 WINS: The Truman men’s basketball program won the 1,000th game in program history earlier this season against Harris-Stowe. This year is the 84th season of Bulldog basketball and the program has an all-time record of 1,003-895 (.528).

BULLDOG COACHING STAFF: Jack Schrader is starting his ninth season as head coach of the Truman men’s basketball team. Prior to being named the head coach, he served as an assistant coach at Truman for four years under Willard Sims.

In eight years under Schrader, the Bulldogs have made five appearances in the MIAA postseason tournament. He has a 96-148 (.393) career record at Truman and, in 1998-99, led the team to one of its best seasons that concluded with an appearance in the 1998-99 NCAA championship semifinals. Truman claimed the MIAA postseason tournament championship that year and Schrader was named the conference’s co-coach of the year and the NABC regional coach of the year.

Prior to coaching the Bulldogs, Schrader coached professional and high school teams all over the world. He was a member of the Arizona State Sun Devils for three years and was drafted by the Phoenix Suns in 1975 and played professionally in Europe. Assisting Schrader for the fourth consecutive year is Tim Deidrick. Deidrick started his coaching career under former Bulldog head coach Willard Sims in 1992 as a student and graduate assistant. He also coached at Scottsdale Community College (Ariz.) and St. Louis Community College before returning to Truman in 2000.

UP NEXT: Truman will host Missouri-Rolla next Wednesday in a 7:30 p.m. game in Pershing Arena. The Miners are currently 12-12 overall and 5-10 in conference play.

The game will be Senior Night as the men’s and women’s basketball teams will honor their seniors between games.

BILL BERAN DONATIONS: The men’s basketball team and Campus Christian Fellowship (CCF) would like to thank the fans at the Truman/Central Missouri game for donating over $4,000 to help offset medical expenses for Bill Beran, the father of senior forward Matt Beran. Donations can still be made by sending money to the Bill Beran Fund, Victor State Bank, 201 Washington Street, Victoria, IA 52347.

TRUMAN-83, MARYVILLE-69
The Bulldogs dominated the low post as they defeated Maryville by a 83-69 score.

Truman outscored the Saints 46-22 in the paint and 22-6 in second-chance points. The Bulldogs had their best shooting night of the season, including 47.1% in the first-half as they built a 42-22 lead. The team also won the rebounding battle by a 54-36 margin.

Every Bulldog who dressed for the game got into the scoring column, led by Ryan Welker with 13 points. For the second straight game, Welker was three-of-four from three-point range. Grant Agbo also hit double-figures with 11 points. Andy Calmes barely missed a double-double with nine points and 13 rebounds and Garret Grimm pulled down 10 boards.

Several Truman players got to see more playing time than usual in the final half. Transfers Jon Hardy and Ryan Hatcher both scored their first points as Bulldogs as Hardy scored seven and Hatcher hit a three-pointer. Matt Brock scored the final two Bulldog points and had a game-high four steals.

Stan Dooley led Harris-Stowe with 19 points and six rebounds and Antonio Gray come off the bench to record 14 points and seven rebounds.

Notes:

- The Bulldogs shot a season-best 51.1% from the field as they won their MIAA opener with a 79-76 win over Missouri Southern. Truman outrebounded the Lions 35-24 and went to the free throw line 17 more times on its way to the victory.
- The Bulldogs held the Lions scoreless over the final 2:55 of the game, which enabled them to comeback from a 76-74 deficit. Andy Calmes hit a free throw to get the Bulldogs within one, but missed the second shot. Derek Lindsey tipped the ball out for the offensive rebound and later in the possession, Lindsey found Grant Agbo for a layup to give Truman the lead for good.
- Missouri Southern missed three field goal attempts and two free throws in the final 1:15 as it could not tie or regain the lead.
- The Lions appeared to be in control of the game early on as they built a 17-7 lead prior to the first media timeout. A 7-0 run got the Bulldogs back in the game and they would eventually take a 44-39 lead into half after shooting 54.2% from the field in the half.
- The second-half was back-and-forth early on with four ties and four lead changes. Missouri Southern took a 56-55 lead with 13:08 left in the game and Truman did not see the lead again until Agbo’s game-winner with just under two minutes remaining.
- Agbo led the team with a season-high 22 points on seven-of-10 shooting from the field and eight-of-11 from the free throw line. The Bulldogs scored 34 bench points, including a season-high 11 from Calmes. Chip Sodemann chipped in with nine points and Aaron Mueller added eight. Ryan Welker had a team-high seven rebounds.
- Missouri Southern was led by Deon Rose and Ameer Watts who each scored 19 points. Hiram Ocasio was in double-figure scoring with 10.
The Gorillas used a strong second-half to earn a win over Truman by a 14-65 score in Kirksville.

The game was much closer than the final score indicated. The score was tied a few seconds before halftime when Pittsburg State's Zac Shepherd made a layup and was fouled with two seconds remaining. The three-point play gave the Gorillas a 35-32 halftime lead.

The Miners hit a three-pointer 22 seconds into the game which was a sign of things to come. Missouri-Rolla never trailed in the game, in large part because they hit 11-of-20 three-pointers. Truman shot 44.7% from the field but hit just two three-pointers and turned the ball over 16 times in the game. The Miners only shot 38.5% from the field, but grabbed 14 offensive rebounds and only turned the ball nine times.

Despite never leading, the Bulldogs stayed close in the first-half. They were down just three with two minutes remaining the half, but Missouri-Rolla went on an 8-2 run to take a 32-23 lead into the break.

The Miners then ran away with the game early in the second-half. Missouri-Rolla was led by guards Ike Muonelo and DeAndre Johnson. Muonelo had 20 points and four three-pointers while Johnson added 17 points and five three-pointers. Brian Westre had 12 points and Josh Shaw led the team with nine rebounds. Muonelo also recorded team-highs with three assists and four steals.
EMPORIA STATE-85, TRUMAN-80

In an exciting game that featured 10 ties and 17 lead changes, the Hornets were able to hold off the Bulldogs for an 85-80 win. The Bulldogs led 77-76 with a minute remaining, but was outscored 9-3 down the stretch. A three-pointer by Greg Patton gave Emporia State the lead for good and a fast break layup gave the home team an 81-77 advantage with 40 seconds remaining. Truman's Grant Agbo had a three-pointer to cut the lead, but hit some key shots down the stretch as they escaped Kirksville with a 67-61 road victory over Truman.

Emporia State jumped out to an early 19-11 lead in the game but the Bulldogs fought back. Truman briefly led twice in the first-half and trailed by just a 38-37 margin at the break. Neither team led by more than five points in the final half, but the quick 5-0 burst by the Hornets in the final minute was enough to give them the win.

Truman hit one more three-pointer and outrebounded Emporia State by three boards and the visitors turned the ball over five less times than the Bulldogs.

Five Bulldogs were in double-figures scoring, led by Matt Beran who came off the bench to score 16 points on seven-of-12 shooting from the field. He also recorded seven rebounds, five assists and a blocked shot. Another hot hand off the bench was Matt Brock who had 12 points, all coming on four first-half three-pointers. Agbo had a second consecutive double-double with 11 points and 10 rebounds. Andy Calmes added 13 points and a team-high six assists and Austin Kirby had 11 points.

Emporia State was paced by Tony Travis who had 24 points, six rebounds and six assists. Demond Perry had a team-high 19 points and seven rebounds. Patton recorded 11 points and seven assists and Thomas Vincent was in double-figures scoring with 10.

MISSOURI WESTERN-67, TRUMAN-61

The Griffons struggled from the free throw line for most of the night, but hit some key shots down the stretch as they escaped Kirksville with a 67-61 road victory over Truman.

Missouri Western held the lead for most of the second-half, but Truman was within two points twice in the final minute. Both times, the Griffons went to the free throw line and knocked down both shots to keep it a two-possession ballgame. Missouri Western would go on to win as the Bulldogs missed their final three field goal attempts.

The Griffons led throughout most of the game, but by never more than eight points. Both teams started out cold from the field. The score was tied at 16 with nine minutes remaining in the first-half, when Missouri Western went on a 8-0 run which helped it lead at the break by a 30-24 score.

Truman had its only lead in the final half at 52-50 with 6:40 remaining, but the Griffons quickly retook the lead and was able to hang on the rest of the way.

The Bulldogs shot 81.8% from the free throw line, helping them to stay in the game despite shooting below 40% from the field. The Griffons outrebounded Truman by three boards and the visitors turned the ball over five less times than the Bulldogs.

Truman had a player record a double-double for the third straight game. This time it was Matt Beran who had 13 points and 10 rebounds. Grant Agbo had a team-high 15 points and Chip Sodemann was in double-figures with 11.

Missouri Western was led by the duo of Robert Bishop and Langston Grady who scored 16 and 15 points, respectively. Steve Carter added nine points and 10 rebounds.

However, its shot with four seconds remaining missed the mark and time expired as the teams scrambled for the loose rebound.

The Mules used a pair of 11-0 runs to take a large lead at half. The only place the Bearcats couldn’t score from was the free throw line.

SOUTHWEST BAPTIST-84, TRUMAN-69

Southwest Baptist’s Jarrett Brown stole the show in Pershing Arena as he helped his team defeat Truman by a 84-69 score.

The Bears won the game in the first-half as they shot 70% from the field, including six-of-nine from beyond the arc. Truman led 18-17 with 11:45 remaining, but was outscored 31-13 the rest of the period, giving Southwest Baptist a 48-31 halftime lead. The 48 points was the most Truman has allowed in the first-half this season.

The Bulldogs rallied early in the second-half, twice cutting the lead to eight. Truman couldn’t contain Brown, though, as he scored 17 of his game-high 25 points in the final period, putting out every Bulldog rally and giving the Bears a comfortable win.

For the game, Southwest Baptist shot 58.3% from the field and hit 12-of-21 three pointers in the final period, putting out every Bulldog rally and giving the Bears a comfortable win.

TRUMAN-67, MISSOURI SOUTHERN-64

Truman shot nearly 61 percent in the second half, and Ryan Welker made four of his five three-point attempts as the Bulldogs snapped Missouri Southern's 15-game home-court winning streak, 67-64, on Saturday.

The Bulldogs also snapped a 23-game MIAA road losing streak and swept a conference opponent for the first time since the 1999-2000 season.

The Lions didn't get a good look at the basket on their ensuing possession and the Bulldogs rejoined the game home-court winning streak, 67-64, on Saturday.

Missouri Southern jumped to a 38-31 lead to start the second half, but both came in the final minute as a late run gave the home team a 27-26 halftime advantage.

The Lions answered with eight quick points, capped by a driving layup from senior Amer Watts, to reclaim the lead. However, back-to-back threes from Welker set up Truman for the stretch run.

Missouri Southern took a one-point lead, 62-61, after junior Hiram Ocasio converted two free throws with 1:12 left. On the next possession, Welker took a feed from senior Matt Beran and converted a layup just 14 seconds after Ocasio's score and the Lions couldn't answer.

A Watts layup pulled the Lions within three with 11 seconds to play and Beran missed two free throws with eight seconds to go that could've iced the game.

The Lions didn't get a good look at the basket on their ensuing possession and Watts' running three-point attempt caromed off the backboard just before time expired.

Watts finished with 13 points and eight assists to lead Missouri Southern, which also got 12 points and six rebounds from Ocasio. Seniors Darrell Redmond and Deon Rose added 11 and 10 points, respectively, as the Lions matched season lows with three three-pointers made and an 18.8 shooting percentage from long range.

TRUMAN-60, SOUTHWEST BAPTIST-58

Truman shot over 50% from the field for the second straight game and the team picked up another road victory with a 60-58 win over Southwest Baptist.

The Bulldogs led for most of the second-half, up by as many as 12-points with 11 minutes remaining. However, a 9-0 later in the half put Southwest Baptist up 55-52 and the team two ended up going into the final two minutes of the game tied.

After trading baskets, Truman's Grant Agbo put the Bulldogs up 60-58 with just over a minute remaining in the game. Southwest Baptist missed a three on the next possession, but Agbo couldn't seal the win when he missed the front end of a one-and-one with 11 seconds left. The Bearcats got off two shots in the final seconds, but both missed giving Truman a two-point win.

The Bulldogs got off to a good start in the game, using an 11-4 run midway through to take a seven-point lead. The Bulldogs led just twice in the half, but both came in the final minute as a late run gave the home team a 27-26 halftime advantage.

Truman turned the ball over seven more times in the game but shot 51.0% from the field, while holding the Bearcats to just a 35.6% in field goal attempts.

The Bulldogs' post players provided almost all of their offense. Grant Agbo had a team-high 20 points, followed by Matt Beran with 18. Andy Calmes came off the bench to chip in 17 points for Truman, which made four of its five attempts from long range in the second half.

TOT-FG Game: 35.6%     3pt-FG Game: 23.1%     FThrow Game: 81.3%
The Mules only shot 41.2% from the field but took advantage of numerous trips to the free throw line as they defeated Truman on Saturday by a 73-56 score.

The Bulldogs made the same number of field goals as the Mules and Central Missouri scored 20 more points than the Bulldogs at the free throw line.

Truman never led in the game but the score was still close at the break with Central Missouri leading by a 29-26 margin. The Mules never led by more than four points in the first-half.

The game remained close early in the second-half, with Truman drawing within one in the first five minutes. Over the next seven minutes, Central Missouri would pull away though, with a 20-3 run.

Four Mules were in double-figures, led by Kenan Oliver who had 17 points to go along with a team-high seven rebounds. Derek Weber and Pat Schumacher each scored 13 and Reggie Soward added 11.

Truman could not take advantage of a season-high game by Chip Sodemann, who scored 20 points. He hit eight-of-13 from the field, including three from beyond the arc. Matt Beran was the only other player in double-figures with 10 and Derek Lindsey led the team in rebounding with nine.

The Bulldogs made the same number of field goals as the Mules and turned the ball over 18 times. Northwest Missouri scored 20 points off the Bulldogs' turnovers, while Truman was able to score just five off the Bulldogs' miscues.

For the game, the Bulldogs shot 49.2% from the field and turned the ball over just 15 points in the first 16 minutes of the final half and Northwest Missouri was able to build up a 24-point lead at one point.

The Bears dominated the second-half to pull away for the easy victory. Truman scored just 15 points in the first 16 minutes of the final half and Northwest Missouri was able to build up a 24-point lead at one point.

For the game, the Bears shot 49.2% from the field and turned the ball over just eight times. Truman, meanwhile, shot 41.2% from the field and turned the ball over 18 times. Northwest Missouri scored 20 points off the Bulldogs' turnovers, while Truman was able to score just five off the Bears' miscues.

The Bulldogs had just one player in double-figures as Matt Beran scored 14. Math Brock hit three-of-four three-pointers in the game and Derek Lindsey had a game-high six rebounds.

Five Bulldogs were in double-figures, led by Byron Jackson with 12 points. He also had a team-high eight rebounds in the game. Jesse Shaw filled up the stat sheet with 11 points, six rebounds, four assists and four steals.

Truman did hold the MIAA's leading scorer, Kelvin Parker, to eight points in the game. Parker hit just three-of-13 shots from the field.
WASHBURN-70, TRUMAN-54

The sixth-ranked Washburn Ichabods used a large run to start the second half to turn its game with Truman into an easy 70-54 win Saturday at Pershing Arena.

Washburn never trailed in the game, going into halftime with a 34-22 lead after slowing pulling away from Truman throughout the half.

In the second-half, the Ichabods went on a 20-6 run over the first nine minutes to open up a 26-point lead. The Bulldogs would never get closer than 16 the rest of the way.

The Ichabods shot just 37.7 percent from the field, but out-rebounded Truman by a 44.34 margin and forced eight more turnovers than they gave up. Washburn scored 21 points off turnovers, compared to just four for the Bulldogs.

Truman shot 39.6% from the field and was just 2-of-15 from beyond the arc.

Washburn had balanced scored with three in double-figures, led by Jeremy Cunningham with 15. Travis Robbins had 11 points and a team-high seven rebounds, while J.P. Meitner scored 10 points.

Truman had two players in double-figures as Matt Beran and Andy Calmes each scored 10. Beran just missed a double-double with nine rebounds.

MISSOURI WESTERN-90, TRUMAN-79 (OT)

Missouri Western's Langston Grady outscored the Bulldogs by four points in the extra period as the Griffons managed a 90-79 overtime win over Truman.

Grady scored 11 of his game-high 25 points in overtime, seven of those coming during a 9-0 Griffon run that turned a tie ballgame into a Missouri Western win.

The game went into overtime after a close battle that featured five ties in the final two-and-a-half minutes of regulation. Truman took a lead after four of those ties, including a 72-70 advantage after two Matt Beran free throws with seven seconds remaining. The Bulldogs left too much time on the clock, however, as Robert Bishop was able to dribble down and make a layup with less than a second remaining.

Truman opened the game on a 6-0 run and led 22-14 midway through the first half. Missouri Western answered with a 10-0 run to take the lead. After the two teams traded the lead several times, the Griffons went on a small burst at the end of the half to take a 41-37 lead into the break.

Missouri Western continued to lead for most of the second-half, until the Bulldogs caught up with them in the final three minutes.

Free throws and fouls were again the key stats in a Truman loss. The Bulldogs were whistled for 14 more fouls, leading to the Griffons shooting 45 free throws in the game, compared to just 16 for Truman. Missouri Western made 22 more free throws than the Bulldogs, making up for the fact they hit five less field goals and one less three-pointer.

Missouri Western won the rebounding battle by a 43-36 margin. Truman had a small edge in the turnover margin by turning the ball over just nine times, compared to 10 for the home team. The Griffons shot 47.3% from the field compared to a 44.9% for the Bulldogs.

Truman had four players in double-figures, led by Grant Agbo with 12 points. Chip Sodemann and Adam Ogle added 11 and Andy Calmes chipped in with 10 points. Calmes also led the team with seven rebounds.
