BULLDOGS FACE DEFENDING NATIONAL CHAMPIONS AND LINCOLN AT THE HILLIARD TIPOFF CLASSIC

THE CLASSIC: 2003 Hillyard Tipoff Classic
DATES: Nov. 28-29, 2003
ARENA: St. Joseph Civic Arena
LOCATION: St. Joseph, Mo.

THE GAME: Truman State University Bulldogs (Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association/NCAA Division II) vs. Northeastern State University Redmen (Lone Star Conference/NCAA Division II)
DATE/TIME: Nov. 28, 5:30 p.m.

THE GAME: Truman State University Bulldogs (Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association/NCAA Division II) vs. Lincoln University Blue Tigers (Heartland Conference/NCAA Division II)
DATE/TIME: Nov. 29, 5:30 p.m.

BROADCAST: Bulldog basketball games are broadcast on KRES 104.7 FM in Moberly, Mo. The games can also be heard over the web at www.regionalradio.com/html/kres.html.

Sports Director Brad Boyer does play-by-play with commentary from long-time Bulldog announcer, Hank Jannsen. The pregame show begins approximately 15 minutes before the game.

FREE ADMISSION AT THE DOME: When Truman faces Harris-Stowe in the Edward Jones Dome, admission will be free for fans attending the game. The game is a test run for the Dome, which is the site of the 2004 NCAA Division I Midwest Regionals and the 2005 NCAA Division I Final Four.

TRUMAN (0-2): The Bulldogs will face Northeastern State (Okla.) and Lincoln this week at the Hillyard Tipoff Classic, hosted by Missouri Western.

Truman is just two plays away from being undefeated on the season. However, the breaks have not gone the team’s way at the end of games as it has two losses by a combined three points. The latest loss came last Tuesday when the team fell to Culver-Stockton in overtime by a 68-66 score.

SCOUTING NORTHEASTERN STATE (2-1): Prior to this week’s game against Lincoln, the Redmen were 2-1 on the year with wins over Lincoln and Bacone and a loss against John Brown.

Northeastern State, ranked sixth in the preseason poll, returns wins over Lincoln and Bacone and a loss against John Brown.

In the three games, the team was shooting 47.5% from the field and nearly 45% from three-point range. The team is also outrebounding opponents by six boards a game.

Derek Cline is the leading scorer with 23.7 points a game, including 5.3 three-pointers a game. He is shooting 49% from the field and 48.5% from beyond the arc. Shiloh Shores is the only other player averaging double-figures with 12.3 points a contest while shooting 54.2% from the field.

Lateef Jackson is the leading rebounder with over 10 rebounds a game and Collin Pitcock leads the team with 11 assists on the year. Sidney Melvin has a team-high four blocks.

Head coach of the Redmen is Larry Gipson who has a 137-44 record in men's basketball before.

SCOUTING LINCOLN (0-2): Prior to this week’s home game against Northeastern State, the Blue Tigers were 0-2 on the year with a loss to the Redmen and Southern Indiana. The team lost three starters off of last year’s 13-13 squad.

In the two games, both against nationally-ranked teams, Lincoln is allowing 89 points a game and being outscored by 31 points. The Blue Tigers are shooting 41.6% from the field, 22.7% from three-point range and 56.3% from the free throw line.

Jonas Pierre leads the team with 9.5 points a game, followed by Albert Strickland with 9.0 a game. Pierre, who has come off the bench in both contest, also has a team-high 7.5 rebounding and 2.0 blocking average. Otis Black is putting up 3.5 assists a game and DJ Hogue has hit three three-pointers on the season.

Charles Terry is in his first season as the head coach of the Blue Tigers.

Lincoln, a former member of the MIAA, and Truman have faced each other 72 times, with the Bulldogs holding a slim 37-35 advantage. The Blue Tigers have won all four meetings between the two since leaving the MIAA, including a pair of victories last year. (see page 4)

LAST TIME OUT:
CULVER-STOCKTON-68, TRUMAN-66 (PERSHING ARENA)

An off-balance shot at the buzzer downed the Bulldogs as they fell in overtime by a 68-66 score to Culver-Stockton. Tony Gavin grabbed a missed Bulldog shot with seven seconds remaining and raced down the court to hit the game-winner as time expired.

For the second time in two outings, the Bulldogs played a close game, this one with 11 ties and 18 lead changes. Truman forced 21 turnovers but shot just 31% from the field in the loss, including 24% in the second period and overtime.

The Bulldogs led for most of the first-half, but the Wildcats scored the final four points of the half to tie the game at 33. In the second period, Culver-Stockton appeared to have the game in hand when it hit a three-pointer with less than a minute left to go up 58-54. However, Austin Kirby answered with a three for Truman and Chip Sodemann hit one-of-two free throws with three seconds left to force overtime.

In the extra period, Truman jumped out to a 66-61 lead, but missed its final five field goal attempts, allowing Culver-Stockton to score the final seven points of the game.

points against Culver-Stockton. For the year, he is averaging over 32 minutes a game, second-most of the team, and has a team-high six three-pointers. He is also averaging 3.0 rebounds, 2.5 assists, 1.0 steal and has a 2.5 assist-to-turnover ratio.

Grant Agbo, who missed the exhibition games with an injury, has come off the bench to average 10.5 points and 5.5 rebounds. He has been sent to the free throw line 10 times, twice as much as anyone else on the team, and has converted seven of those.

Calmes is averaging 4.5 points and 5.5 rebounds, including a game-high nine boards against Quincy. He leads the team with four blocks and also has three steals.

Adam Ogle has averaged five minutes off the bench, giving the team a spark in the low post. He has a field goal in each game and is 2-of-3 from the field for the year.

COLD SHOOTING: The biggest factor in the team’s two losses is the Bulldogs are shooting just 35.4% from the field. Last season, the team was 0-13 in games in which they shot under 45%.

HEAD COACH JACK SCHRADEL: Jack Schrader is starting his ninth season as head coach of the Truman men's basketball team. Prior to being named the head coach, he served as an assistant coach at Truman for four years under Willard Sims.

In eight years under Schrader, the Bulldogs have made five appearances in the MIAA postseason tournament. He has a 90-132 (.405) career record at Truman and, in 1998-99, led the team to one of its best seasons that concluded with an appearance in the 1998-99 NCAA championship semifinals. Truman claimed the MIAA postseason tournament championship that year and Schrader was named the conference’s co-coach of the year and the NABC regional coach of the year.

Prior to coaching the Bulldogs, Schrader coached professional and high school teams all over the world. He was a member of the Arizona State Sun Devils for three years and was drafted by and high school teams all over the world. He was a member of

UP NEXT: Truman returns home on Wednesday, Dec. 3, for a contest against Maryville at 7 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 6, the team will face Harris-Stowe in the Edward Jones Dome in St. Louis at 1:30 p.m.

Lincoln hung around in its non-conference road battle against Lincoln but could not pull out the victory.

The Bulldogs cut a double-digit deficit to just four with under five minutes to play in the game. However, the Blue Tigers responded with a field goal and a three-pointer to put the game away.

Both teams were cold from the field on the night as Truman shot 31.7% and Lincoln shot 33.3%. The big difference in the game came on the boards and at the free throw line. Lincoln outrebounded Truman 54-28 and went to the free throw line 16 more times, which it was able to convert into 11 more points from the free throw line than the Bulldogs.

Lincoln was outscored 15-4 in the final two minutes of the game as a 61-59 lead turned into a 74-65 loss. Andre’ King’s three-pointer with 1:33 left gave Lincoln the lead for good and the Blue Tigers hit 10-of-12 free throws down the stretch to seal the win.

Lincoln won the game at the charity stripe as they made 19 free throws compared to just seven for the Bulldogs. The Blue Tigers also turned the ball over just eight times compared to 16 for Truman.

Four Bulldogs were in double-figure scoring led by Chip Sodemann with 15. Matt Beran added 14 points, Adam Glosier had 13 and Ryan Welker had 12. Truman, who was outrebounded by 26 in the first meeting with Lincoln, won this rebounding battle by a 41-33 margin as Sodemann and Glosier had teammate highs with eight apiece.

The bulldogs led for most of the first-half, but the wildcats scored the final four points of the half to tie the game at 33. In the final period, Culver-Stockton appeared to have the game in hand when it hit a three-pointer with less than a minute left to go up 58-54. However, Austin Kirby answered with a three for Truman and Chip Sodemann hit one-of-two free throws with three seconds left to force overtime.

In the extra period, Truman jumped out to a 66-61 lead, but missed its final five field goal attempts, allowing Culver-Stockton to score the final seven points of the game.

Kirby had 19 points to lead the Bulldogs. He was five-of-eight from three-point range and also grabbed two rebounds and had two steals and three assists. Matt Beran added 12 points and eight rebounds and Grant Agbo was in double-figure scoring for the second-straight game with 10 points. Derek Lindsey had another all-around game with seven points, and a team-high nine rebounds and five assists.

Matt Heine led the Wildcat with a double-double of 20 points and 11 rebounds. Ryan Birch also had a double-double with 11 points and 11 boards and Gavin grabbed 11 points and eight assists.

QUINCY-72, TRUMAN-71 (PERSHING ARENA)

Another Quincy/Truman battle went down to the wire and for the third straight year, the Hawks escaped with a single-digit win, this one by a 72-71 score.

Neither team executed well down the stretch in the season opener for both teams. Truman led by one at 69-68 with 2:48 remaining in the game, but missed several opportunities to go ahead by more. Quincy finally took advantage and took back the lead with a layup with 1:19 remaining, and built a three-point advantage with two free throws with three seconds left.

Truman had a chance to tie the game when Grant Agbo was fouled while making a field goal with 15 seconds remaining. He missed his charity shot and Truman got the offensive board, but missed several opportunities to go ahead by more. Quincy took the lead back with a three-pointer with less than a minute left to go up 58-54. However, Austin Kirby answered with a three for Truman and Chip Sodemann hit one-of-two free throws with three seconds left to force overtime.

In the extra period, Truman jumped out to a 66-61 lead, but missed its final five field goal attempts, allowing Culver-Stockton to score the final seven points of the game.
