SERIES RECORD: Pittsburg State holds a 20-7 all-time series advantage over Truman. The Gorillas’ win earlier this season was their seventh straight over the Bulldogs.

In Pittsburg, the Bulldogs have won just twice in ten chances. The last Truman win in Pittsburg was a 76-74 victory in the MIAA postseason tournament semifinals during the 1998-99 season.

EARLIER THIS SEASON -
PITTSBURG STATE-84, TRUMAN-65 (JAN. 3, KIRKSVILLE, MO.)
The Gorillas used a strong second-half to earn a win over Truman by an 84-65 score in Kirksville.

The game was much closer than the final score indicated. The score was tied a few seconds before halftime when Pittsburg State’s Zac Shepherd made a layup and was fouled with two seconds remaining. The three-point play gave the Gorillas a 35-32 halftime lead.

Pittsburg State carried the momentum of that play into the second-half. After Truman made one-of-two free throws to start the half, the Gorillas went on a 15-2 run to put the Bulldogs in a large hole. The Bulldogs got as close as seven with 7:21 remaining, but Pittsburg State outscored Truman by a 22-10 margin the rest of the way.

The Gorillas shot 53.7% from the field, including 58.8% from beyond the arc. They also outrebounded Truman by two and had three less turnovers than the Bulldogs. Truman shot 40.0% from the field but did have a good game from three-point range, hitting seven-of-17 shots.

Truman was led by Chip Sodemann who tied a season-high with 14 points. Grant Agbo continued his streak of scoring in double-figures with 12 points and Austin Kirby added 10. Derek Lindsey was the team’s top rebounder with seven. Returning all-MIAA player Matt Beran returned from an injury for the Bulldogs. In limited playing time, he had two points, one rebound and one block.

Seven Pittsburg State players scored at least seven points, including five who were in double-figures. Jason Taylor led the way with 24 points, 10 rebounds and four assists. Jamey Richardson just missed a double-double with 12 points and nine rebounds and he also blocked five shots.

MOST RECENT GAMES -
MISSOURI-ROLLA-82, TRUMAN-63 (FEB. 25, KIRKSVILLE, MO.)

Three-point shooting and free throw shooting was the difference in the game. The Miners shot 61.1% from beyond the arc and 81.8% from the free throw line, while the Bulldogs hit just 23.5% from three-point range and 55.0% at the charity stripe. The Miners hit seven more three-pointers and 16 more free throws than Truman. Missouri-Rolla also had 11 more rebounds in the game.

The Bulldogs scored the first nine points of the game as the Miners missed their first eight field goal attempts and turned the ball over twice in the first four minutes of the game. After that, it was all Missouri-Rolla. The Miners used a 34-9 run over the next 11 1/2 minutes to grab a 16-point lead and they went into the break up 35-22.

Missouri-Rolla then opened up the second half by scoring the first nine points. Truman fought back to within 11 midway through the final period but could never get the lead into single-digits.

Truman's Matt Beran put on a show in his final game at Pershing Arena. The senior had his second consecutive double-double as he scored 24 points and pulled down 11 rebounds. Grant Agbo added 13 points for Truman.

Muonelo had 30 points in the contest, including five three-pointers to help Pitt State shot 52.0 percent from the field (26 of 50) in the game.

The Miners hit seven more three-pointers and 16 more free throws than Truman. Missouri-Rolla also had 11 more rebounds in the game. The Miners shot 61.1% from beyond the arc and 81.8% from the free throw line, while the Bulldogs hit just 23.5% from three-point range and 55.0% at the charity stripe.
Richardson finished with 16 points. Ocasio led the Lions with 21 points - 14 in the second half - before fouling out with 21.1 seconds to play in the game. Darrell Redmond (13), Deon Rose (12) and Ameer Watts (11) also finished in double figures for the Lions.

BULLDOG SENIORS: Matt Beran and Aaron Mueller will play their final game in a Bulldog uniform this Saturday. Both players have made huge contributions to the Bulldogs’ program over the last four years.

Beran has quietly put together one of the top four-year careers in Truman history. For his career, he has recorded 936 points and 667 rebounds. He is just the eighth player in school history with over 900 points and 600 boards. He is currently ranked tied for ninth in Truman’s record book in career rebounds, 20th in scoring and fifth in blocks.

For his career, Beran is averaging 9.5 points, 6.7 rebounds, 2.3 assists and 0.7 blocks a game and is shooting 48.9% from the field. He has been the team’s top rebounder the last three seasons and starting last year, has been one of the team’s top scoring threats. In 2003, he was named honorable mention all-MIAA.

Mueller has been a very reliable guard the past four years, giving the team an outside scoring threat and a reliable ball handler. He has missed just one game during his career, and is one of 20 Bulldogs to appear in at least 100 games.

Mueller has hit 107 three-pointers for his career, which ranks eighth on Truman’s career list. He is averaging 1.4 assists a game and has a 1.2 assist-to-turnover ratio the past four years. Over the last two years, his assist-to-turnover ratio is 1.7. The 2002-03 season was his best statistically, as he finished the year with 41 three-pointers and was fourth in the MIAA with a .402 percentage beyond the arc.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS: The two Bulldog seniors have excelled off the court as well, with both receiving academic all-district honors last week. Matt Beran was a first-team selection, while Aaron Mueller was a second-team pick.

Beran has a 3.84 GPA while working towards his accounting degree at Truman. Mueller has a 3.93 GPA as an exercise science major.

BULLDOGS IN THE MIAA: The Bulldogs are currently fourth in the MIAA in scoring defense, allowing 71.2 points a game. Truman is also in the upper-half of the league statistics in field goal percentage defense (4th), rebounding offense (5th) and defensive rebounds (3rd).

Individually, Matt Beran is ranked fifth in field goal percentage, eighth in rebounding and 15th in scoring.

Grant Agbo is ranked seventh in field goal percentage, 13th in rebounding and 16th in scoring.

game. The next freshmen in the rebounding race is teammate Andy Calmes with 4.7 boards a game.

late in games.

Since the MIAA started awarding a Freshman of the Year award in 1994, only one Truman player, Paul Taylor in 1995, has received the honor.

POST PRODUCTION: In the first-half of Wednesday’s game, 20 of Truman’s 22 points came from its post players Matt Beran and Grant Agbo. This has been a trend lately with most of the Bulldogs’ offense coming from their inside players.

Over the last five games, Truman’s post players, Grant Agbo, Matt Beran, Andy Calmes, Garret Grimm and Adam Ogle, have averaged 40.6 points a game, which is over 63% of the team’s offense during that stretch.

Those players are shooting 50.3% from the field in those games, compared to just a 30.0% mark from the rest of the team.

GETTING TO THE LINE: Truman has one of the better field goal percentage defense marks in the MIAA, but lately have been getting in trouble by putting the opposition where that stat doesn’t matter ... on the free throw line.

Over the last five games, the Bulldogs have committed an average of 25.0 fouls a game, leading to opponents attempting 32.7 free throws a game. In that same span, Truman has gone to the free throw line just 13.7 times a contest.

REGIONAL RANKINGS: Through games played on Feb. 22, three MIAA schools were ranked in the South Central region. Washburn is first in the region, Northwest Missouri is third and Emporia totals by a Bulldog this season ... Truman has had the same Truman turned the ball over its next possession, leading to two made free throws by the Bearcats' Sky Wilson. The Bulldogs quickly drove down and made a layup to make the score 66-63 and Parker was fouled with four seconds left. Truman had a slimmer of hope when Parker missed the first shot, but he drained the second free throw to seal the Bearcats' victory.

Central Missouri took the lead for good with a little over 12 minutes remaining in the game, but it could never pull away from Truman. Four times in the last three minutes, the Bulldogs pulled within one point. Following the final time, Truman forced a turnover and had a chance to win the game. However, its shot with four seconds remaining missed the mark and time expired as the teams scrambled for the loose rebound.

The Mules used a pair of 11-0 runs to take a large lead at half. The 48 points was the most Truman has allowed in the first half this season.

The Bulldogs rallied early in the second half, twice cutting the lead to eight. Truman couldn’t contain Brown, though, as he scored 17 of his game-high 25 points in the final period, putting out every Bulldog rally and giving the Bearcats a comfortable win.

The Bulldogs rallied in the last 2:25 from beyond the arc. The only place the Bearcats couldn’t score from was the free throw line where they were just two-of-nine. Truman won the rebounding battle 57-57 with 5:47 left but once again the Bulldogs fell just short down the stretch.

TRUMAN-67, MISSOURI SOUTHERN-64

The Bulldogs shot nearly 61 percent in the second half, and Ryan Welker made four of his five three-point attempts as the Bulldogs snapped Missouri Southern’s 15-game home-court winning streak, 67-64, on Saturday.

The Bulldogs also snapped a 23-game MIAA road losing streak and swept a conference opponent for the first time since the 1999-2000 season.

The Lions shot only 39.3 percent in the first half but capitalized on nine turnovers by Truman for a 33-29 lead at the break. The Bulldogs, led by 11 points from Calmes, made 48 percent of their shots in the opening half.

Missouri Southern jumped to a 38-31 lead to start the second half, but Welker’s jumper 2:27 into the period sparked the Bulldogs onto a 16-4 run.

The Lions answered with eight quick points, capped by a driving layup from senior Ameer Watts, to reclaim the lead. However, back-to-back threes from Welker set up Truman for the stretch run.

Missouri Southern took a one-point lead, 62-61, after junior Hiram Ocasio converted two free throws with 1:12 left. On the next possession, Welker took a feed from senior Matt Beran and converted a layup just 14 seconds after Ocasio’s score and the Lions couldn’t answer.

A Watts layup pulled the Lions within three with 11 seconds to play and Beran missed two free throws with eight seconds to go that could’ve iced the game.

The Lions didn’t get a good look at the basket on their ensuing possession and Watts’ running three-point attempt caromed off the backboard just before time expired.

Watts finished with 13 points and eight assists to lead Missouri Southern, which also got 12 points and six rebounds from Ocasio. Seniors Darrell Redmond and Deon Rose added 11 and 10 points, respectively, as the Lions matched season lows with three three-pointers made and an 18.8 shooting percentage from long range.

TRUMAN-60, SOUTHWEST BAPTIST-58

The Bulldogs shot over 50% from the field for the second straight game and the team picked up another road victory with a 60-58 win over Southwest Baptist.

The Bulldogs led for most of the second-half, up by as many as 12-points with 11 minutes remaining. However, a 9-0 later in the half put Southwest Baptist up 55-52 and the team two ended up going into the final two minutes of the game tied.

After trading baskets, Truman’s Grant Abgo put the Bulldogs up 60-58 with just over a minute remaining in the game. Southwest Baptist missed a three on the next possession, but Abgo couldn’t seal the win when he missed the front end of a one-and-one with 11 seconds left. The Bearcats got off two shots in the final seconds, but both missed giving Truman a two-point win.

The Bulldogs got off to a good start in the game, using an 11-4 run midway through to take a seven-point lead. The Bulldogs led just twice in the half, but both came in the final minute as a late run gave the home team a 27-26 halftime advantage.

Truman turned the ball over seven more times in the game but shot 51.0% from the field, while holding the Bearcats to just a 35.6% in field goal attempts.

The Bulldogs’ post players provided almost all of their offense. Grant Abgo had a team-high 20 points, followed by Matt Beran with 18. Andy Calmes came off the bench to chip in 10 points. Those three players were 21-of-35 (60%) from the field. Abgo and Austin Kirby both grabbed eight boards and Beran added six rebounds and four blocked shots.

Grady scored 11 of his game-high 25 points in overtime, seven of those coming during a 9-0 Griffon run that turned a tie ballgame into a Missouri Western win.

The game went into overtime after close battle that featured five ties in the final two-and-a-half minutes of regulation. Truman took a lead after four of those ties, including a 72-70 advantage after two Matt Beran free throws with seven seconds remaining. Truman left too much time on the clock, however, as Robert Bishop was able to dribble down and make a layup with less than a second remaining.

Truman opened the game on a 6-0 run and led 22-14 midway through the first half. Missouri Western continued to lead for most of the second-half, until the Bulldogs caught up with them in the final three minutes.

Free throws and fouls were again the key stats in a Truman loss. The Bulldogs were whistled for 14 more fouls, leading to the Griffons shooting 45 free throws in the game, compared to just 16 for Truman. Missouri Western made 22 more free throws than the Bulldogs, making up for the fact they hit five less field goals and one less three-pointer.

Missouri Western won the rebounding battle by a 43-36 margin. Truman had a small edge in the turnover margin by turning the ball over just nine times, compared to 10 for the home team. The Griffons shot 47.3% from the field compared to a 44.9% for the Bulldogs.

The Miners hit seven more three-pointers and 16 more free throws than Truman. Missouri-Rolla also had 11 more rebounds in the game.

The Bulldogs scored the first nine points of the game as the Miners missed their first eight field goal attempts and turned the ball over twice in the first four minutes of the game. After that, it was all Missouri-Rolla. The Miners used a 34-9 run over the next 11 1/2 minutes to grab a double-digit lead for the majority of the final half. As in past games, foul trouble forced Trump to sub in Bench players, but Emporia State didn't cool down at the break as it came out and shot 50% from the field, 40% from beyond the arc and 73.7% from the free throw line. The Hornets were led by Demond Perris with 16 points and eight rebounds. Tony Travis also scored 16 points and recorded six assists. Aaron Shaw came off the bench to score 14.
