TRUMAN (3-22, 1-16 MIAA): The Bulldogs will bring their 2001-02 season to a close on Saturday when they take on Missouri Southern on Senior Day at Pershing Arena. The ‘Dogs will bid farewell to four graduating team members, including two fifth-year seniors.

Truman will also hope to snap a five-game losing skid and head into preparation for the 2002-03 season on a positive note. The ‘01-02 season will be remembered as a one in which the ‘Dogs dropped more than their share of tight contests. Ten of the team’s MIAA losses have come by 10 points or less, including four by four points or fewer. The Bulldogs will miss the MIAA postseason tournament for the first time in six years.

Seven years ago, Truman posted a 6-20 record in head coach Jack Schrader’s first year, but gradually improved until 1998-99, when the team finished 26-7 and placed third in the nation.

The ‘Dogs have set several school records in 2001-02, including marks for three-pointers made in a season (now at 237), team three-point attempts (now at 707). Truman also set school single-game records with 16 threes made and 41 attempts.

The team’s record-setting year with the three-pointer has been led by a two-pronged long range attack, in MIAA Freshman of the Year candidate Mark Huppe (Overland Park, Kan./St. Thomas Aquinas) and junior Jiri Mikl (Ostrava, Czech Republic/Cs. Exil 491). Huppe has made 90 triples this year, the second highest single-season total in school history, and Mikl has hit on 62, a total that ranks ninth on the single-season list.

MISSOURI SOUTHERN (18-7, 11-6 MIAA): The Lions have dropped three of their last five games, including road decisions at Central Missouri State and Pittsburg State (Kan.). They’re also coming off a 91-76 home loss, their only home defeat of the season, to Missouri Western on Wednesday.

The Lions have already clinched a home game in the first round of the MIAA postseason tournament next week, but could surge from the No. 4 seed to No. 3 with a win and a Washburn (Kan.) loss. MSSC holds a tiebreaker over WU, thanks to its 94-77 win over Northwest Missouri State earlier this season.

The Lions rank among MIAA leaders in almost every statistical category, including No. 2 rankings in scoring offense (83.4 ppg), scoring margin (+11.8 ppg), steals (11.00 pg), turnover margin (+5.24) and offensive rebounds (14.48). MSSC tops the conference with 3.76 blocked shots per game.

Senior guard Eddin Santiago makes his final appearance against the Bulldogs. So far this year, Santiago leads the Lions with 15.1 points a game (10th in the league), and leads Division II in assists (7.84 pg). He tops the MIAA with 3.44 steals, and ranks third in DII. Santiago also leads the conference with an 88.4 free throw percentage and a 3.06 assist-turnover ratio.

Earlier this month, Santiago set the DII career steals record, and also now owns the MIAA career assists mark. He has 786 career assists and 372 career steals.

Senior guard Terry Shumpert averages 13.1 points, while senior center Arnaldo Febres (11.8 ppg) and junior Antonio Latimer (10.3) round out MSSC’s double-digit scorers. Junior forward Jamahr Warren is the Lions top rebounder (7.8 rpg).
