Kirksville Country Club

The Kirksville Country Club was built in 1986. There has been a golf course in the location since 1922, but previous courses consisted of only nine holes. The course plays host to numerous high school and college tournaments. The Truman women's Bulldog Classic has been played there since 1993 and the men's Fall Classic since 1994. The course was also the site of the first Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association men's golf tournament. Par for the course is 36-35 71 for both men and women. The course is 6,418 yards from the men's tees, while the women's course is 4,601 yards.
