Lacey Schanz took over as the seventh Bulldog head coach in the summer of 2002 and continued the success of past coaches as the team made its fifth straight trip to the NCAA Division II tournament.

Schanz, formerly an assistant at the University of Pennsylvania, was the pitching coach in 2001 at Penn where she was in charge of designing and implementing pitching and catching drills. Other duties included supervising hitting drills, calling pitches in games, recruiting, team travel and assisting the head coach with budgeting, fund raising and development.

“My style is to be aggressive, we’ll take chances and I think we have the talent to do that,” Schanz said. “I hope to create a family atmosphere and enhance the chemistry off the field to help improve play on the field.”

Schanz was a four-year letterwinner on the Georgia Tech softball squad as a catcher and designated hitter. She also excelled in the classroom, making the dean’s list four times, and was a recipient of the Alexander-Tharpe Athletic Scholarship.

Schanz started 75 of 109 career games over a three-year span as a Yellow Jacket and had a career batting average of .220 with 55 hits, 22 runs and two home runs. She suffered a career-ending injury during preseason in 2001.

Schanz has also coached girls 10-16 years old in the Sport Zone spring training clinic in Southampton, Pa., and was a camp instructor at Georgia Tech.

A native of Kansas City, Mo., she was a catcher for Raytown High School, performing in every game of her career, totalling over 600 innings. Raytown was 73-17 during her tenure and won four Suburban Middle Seven Conference championships. Schanz was a first-team all-league selection as a senior and a three-time second-team pick.

Schanz was also the starting catcher for the Kansas City Thunder in 1996. She graduated cum laude from Georgia Tech in 2001 with a degree in management and a minor in information technology.

Student Assistant Shelby Ortwerth

Shelby Ortwerth completed her career last season as a two-time all-conference second baseman for the Bulldogs. Ortwerth was a second-team all-MIAA pick in 2002 after leading the team in stolen bases (11-of-12) and sacrifices (15). In just two seasons, she finished ranked third among Bulldog career stolen base leaders with 30.

She was also an all-American outside hitter on Truman’s national runnerup volleyball team in 2002, and was a Daktronics second-team all-region performer as a member of the 2001 Truman conference champion and NCAA Elite Eight qualifying volleyball squad.

Ortwerth charted 899 kills and 1,156 digs in two years on the volleyball team at Culver-Stockton College. As a sophomore, she tallied 588 kills (3.84 per game) and a school record 842 digs (5.50 per game). She also finished second on the team with 58 aces. At the close of her sophomore campaign, Ortwerth was named an honorable mention NAIA all-America as well as first-team all-region and all-conference in volleyball. She was also tapped for first-team all-conference and honorable mention all-America honors in softball.

Ortwerth is completing a degree in exercise science at Truman.
Elizabeth Economon
St. Louis (Notre Dame)

Economon becomes Truman’s sixth first-team all-American, but is the Bulldogs’ first two-time all-American selection. First-team all-MIAA and repeated as the MIAA’s MVP. Led the conference single-season (16) and career (53) home run records. In NCAA Division II statistics, she finished 10th in home runs (0.26 pg), 29th in RBIs (0.98 pg) and 10th in batting average (.389). Across the country, she was a Louisville Slugger/National Fastpitch Coaches Association third-team all-America and repeat first-team all-region choice. The only Bulldog named to the North Central region all-tournament team, and her second-straight selection. Named MIAA athlete of the week twice. Had a 14-game hitting streak. Had three games with four hits. Set Bulldog records for batting average, hitting streak and hits in a season (80). Tied her own school record with 47 runs. Led the MIAA in batting average, slugging percentage, on-base percentage, RBIs, home runs and runs scored. A CoSIDA second-team academic all-district selection and a member of the MIAA commissioner’s academic honor roll.
