

BULLDOGS LOOK TO CLINCH SHARE OF MIAA TITLE WHEN THEY HOST NORTHWEST ON SENIOR DAY

THE DOUBLEHEADER: Truman State University Bulldogs (Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association/NCAA Division II) vs. Northwest Missouri State University Lady Bearcats (MIAA/NCAA DII)

DATE: Tuesday, April 20, 2 p.m.

LOCATION: Kirksville, Mo.

THE DOUBLEHEADER: Truman vs. Quincy University Lady Hawks (GLVC/NCAA DII)

DATE: Thursday, April 22, 2 p.m.

LOCATION: Kirksville, Mo.

TRUMAN (37-6, 12-4 MIAA): Truman had a 10-game winning streak snapped in a 2-0 loss at Emporia on Friday, but bounced back to win its next three weekend games, knocking off ESU 7-6 in the nightcap, followed by 2-0 and 11-3 wins at Washburn on Saturday.

Despite the loss, Truman moved into first-place in the MIAA standings and can clinch at least a share of the regular season title on Tuesday when it host Northwest Missouri. Truman would have to sweep the Bearcats in order to accomplish this.

The Bulldogs, Missouri-Rolla and Emporia State all have four losses in conference action, but Truman has played two more games than those teams. Central Missouri is also still in the hunt with five losses.

The Bulldogs also remained near the top of the NCAA North Central region rankings last week, coming in second to Nebraska-Omaha. The regional rankings determine six teams from eight regions to make the NCAA tournament.

VS. EMPORIA: Stephanie Cepicky, Leann Paul, Elizabeth Economon and Kelly Walsma all had hits in the 2-0 loss to Emporia, but none would score. The Lady Hornets scored both of their runs in the fifth inning on a home run and an error. Loni Wedemeier took the loss, striking out three batters, walking three and scattering three hits.

In the nightcap, Emporia went ahead 3-0 in the first inning, and was ahead 6-1 heading into the fifth. Truman scored its first run in the third inning when Leann Paul grounded out to score Cepicky who led off the frame with a single up the middle. Cepicky led off the sixth with a single, bringing Paul up to bat for the RBI single. A single by Courtney Strubel scored two runs when an error occurred on the throw. A single by Kayla Mueller scored the game-winning sixth run of that frame. Cepicky led the team with a 3-for-4 performance at the plate and scored two runs. Paul and Strubel each had a pair of RBIs. Wedemeier relieved Brenna Wonderly in the fifth inning and struck out four batters for the win.

VS. WASHBURN: The first game remained scoreless until the top of the eighth inning when LeAnn Paul hit a two run home run for the win. She was 2-for-4 for the day. Wedemeier struck out seven batters and gave up five hits to leave her record at 15-3.

The second game, Washburn took a 2-0 lead in the first inning, but gave up nine runs in the second frame. Paul and Strubel had a pair of hits in that inning, while Kelly Walsma, Mueller and Wedemeier had hits as well. Amanda Holland had the first RBI on a sacrifice, Mueller had the second, Brown and Economon got RBIs, Wedemeier’s hit was a grand slam, and Paul hit a round-tripper to finish off scoring in that inning. Paul and Strubel also had RBIs in the sixth inning, Wedemeier’s being the game-winner.

Brenda Wonderly allowed seven hits and struck out two batters in six innings of work.

THE BULLDOGS WERE 7-1 LAST WEEK, and were led in hitting by LeAnn Paul who averaged .500 at the plate. She had 10 hits, two doubles, two home runs and eight RBIs over the eight games. Economon hit .467 last week with seven hits, a double, a home run and three RBIs, but was walked 17 times over the eight-game span.

Cepicky also had 10 hits last week and four stolen bases, while Loni Wedemeier led the team with 5-of-5 stolen bases.

IN NON-REGULATION GAMES THIS YEAR, The Bulldogs are 13-1 and 5-0 in the MIAA. This includes extra inning games and run-rule games in 2004.

In Truman’s five extra inning games, the ‘Dogs are 4-1, the only loss coming to NAIA foe Columbia College in February in eight innings, 5-4. Central Arkansas has been the longest game to date, going 12 innings, while the other four went eight frames. Truman has hit .220 as a team in extra inning games.

In run-rule games, the Bulldogs are 9-0 and 3-0 in the MIAA, and have hit .443. Truman took care of Ouachita Baptist and Bloomfield in just five innings.

MAKING THE NCAA TOURNAMENT: The NCAA Division II Softball Championship provides for a field of 48 teams. Six teams will participate at eight regional campus sites in double-elimination tournaments to determine the final eight participants.

In the North Central region, the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletic Association, North Central Intercollegiate Athletic Conference and Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference all receive automatic bids for their champions, while the other three regional berths will be awarded to the top teams in the North Central region rankings. The winner of the MIAA postseason tournament will represent the league in the NCAA tourney.

AMONG MIAA LEADERS at the start of the week, Economon led the league in home runs (.33 pg), walks (.21 pg), on-base percentage (.608) and slugging percentage (.875). She was second in batting average (.429), RBIs (1.00 pg) and total bases (2.28 pg) and fourth in runs scored (0.88 pg). Through games of April 11, Economon was fourth among NCAA Division II leaders in home runs in a game, 14th in RBIs and eighth in slugging percentage.

Wedemeier was third in stolen bases (.51 pg), fourth in hits (1.27 pg), RBIs (0.85) and total bases (0.85), fifth in runs scored (0.88 pg) and slugging percentage (.594), sixth in on-base percentage (.439) and seventh in home runs (0.17 pg). On the mound, Wedemeier is seventh in the MIAA in ERA (1.21), fourth in strikeouts (6.66 pg) and innings pitched (6.09), fifth in wins (15-3), tied for seventh in complete games (14), tied for eighth in shutouts (4) and eighth in opponent batting average (.219).

Paul ranks third in the MIAA in batting (.400), and ninth in home runs (.16 pg) and total bases (1.81), third in walks (.63 pg) and fourth in slugging percentage (.678).

Strubel is second in the conference with .09 triples a game and is sixth in RBIs (.79 pg).

Cepicky was fourth in MIAA stolen bases (.51 pg), second in walks (.74 pg), eighth in runs scored (.81 pg) and fifth in on base percentage (.455).

Wonderly was ninth in the MIAA with a 1.84 ERA, and was eighth in strikeouts (4.79 pg), tied for sixth in shutouts (5), sixth in opponent batting average (.204) and seventh in innings pitched (5.94 pg).

Walsma was first in the MIAA with a 0.30 ERA and was ninth in strikeouts (4.57 pg), third in opponent batting average (.171) and ninth in innings pitched (5.75 pg).

Truman was ninth nationally in fielding percentage, 11th in win-loss percentage and 22nd in batting average and ERA. To start the week, Truman was second in the MIAA in batting and pitching and third in fielding.

NORTHWEST MISSOURI (20-29, 9-7 MIAA): The Bearcats fell out of the MIAA regular season race after being swept by Pittsburg State on Sunday. The team is currently fifth in the conference standings.

Megan Spring and Angie McCoy are the top players for the Bearcats. Spring is hitting .370 with a team-high 28 RBIs. McCoy is hitting .282 and has team-highs with 29 runs and seven home runs.

On the mound, the Bearcats have the highest ERA in the MIAA. Kelly Hainline leads the team with eight wins and a 2.84 ERA.

QUINCY (26-18, 4-10 GLVC): The Lady Hawks have won four of their last 12 games, and split a doubleheader with Great Lakes Valley Conference foe Indianapolis on Saturday, losing the first game 2-1, but winning the night cap 11-5. OU had a doubleheader with St. Joseph’s (Ind.) on Sunday and a doubleheader at Missouri-St. Louis on Tuesday before the rescheduled doubleheader at Truman Thursday.

Pitcher/outfielder Julie LeMaire is batting .407 with 57 hits, 12 doubles, eight home runs and 45 RBIs. Five others are hitting over .300 with first baseman Christine Venvertloh hitting .372 for second on the team.

LeMaire is 12-7 in the pitching circle with a 3.24 ERA, while Erin Moulton is 11-9 with a 2.98 ERA. Lori Potacki is 3-2 with a 2.45 ERA.

THE SERIES WITH NORTHWEST MISSOURI is even over the last 16 years but has Truman with a 40-32 deficit going back to 1975. The teams split a doubleheader in Maryville last year, but Truman defeated NWMS 10-2 in the MIAA postseason tournament.

THE SERIES WITH QUINCY: Truman leads the series 27-14. Last year, Truman won 2-0, and CONTINUED ON NEXT PAGE ... has won the last six games. QU’s last wins came during the 1994 season, 12-4 and 9-3.

TRUMAN MIAA HITTERS OF THE WEEK:
Elizabeth Economon was named MIAA hitter of the week on March 9 and Loni Wedemeier earned the honor March 16.

Wedemeier batted .526 with a home run, five RBIs and 12 runs scored as the Bulldogs went 6-0 during the Rebel Spring Games. She had at least two hits in four of the six games last week, including a 3-for-4 effort with a double and two runs scored in a 5-3, 8-inning win over South Dakota State March 9. She also pitched three innings of relief for the win. Wedemeier drove home the game-winning run in the bottom of the seventh in Truman’s 1-0 win over Indianapolis (Ind.), tossing a two-hit shutout in the pitching circle as well. Later in the day against Merrimack (Mass.), she was 2-for-4 with a double and a three-run homer in a 7-1 Bulldog win.

Economon broke the MIAA and Truman career home run records while hitting .586 (17-of-29) to start the season. Her game-winning grand slam in a 4-3 opening-day win over Delta (Miss.) State was the 34th home run of her career in 2004 Truman softball program last season and led the team with 10 RBIs and 12 runs scored as the Bulldogs started the season 7-2. Two of the homers came in a 13-2 romp of West Virginia Wesleyan. Economon also had a sixth-inning, game-tying single in a 5-4 win at Columbia (Mo.).

COACH’S RECORD: Lacey Schanz took over the Truman softball program last season and led the team to a 39-16 overall record, an MIAA tournament title, and its fifth-straight appearance in the NCAA Division II postseason tournament. Schanz was the pitching coach at the University of Pennsylvania prior to coming to Truman, and she was the starting catcher at Georgia Tech three seasons.
