Truman received the AVCA/Molten Team Academic Award in 2001 with a 3.45 GPA.

In 2001, Cassy Felkerson (right) and Eliza Hoerner became the first all-Americans in team history. Felkerson, who led the Bulldogs with a .328 hitting percentage and 3.60 kills and 1.05 blocks per game, was a first-team honoree on the American Volleyball Coaches Association squad and a second-team Daktronics pick. Hoerner, who led Truman with 0.48 aces per game and finished second in kills (3.33 pg), blocks (0.81) and hitting percentage (.298), was a second-team AVCA selection. The two were also first-team all-conference choices, as they helped the ‘Dogs to a 37-2 record, including 16-0 in the MIAA, and a berth in the NCAA Elite Eight.

In 2002, Monica Marlowe (right) and Shelby Ortwerth were named to the American Volleyball Coaches Association all-America teams. Marlowe was a second-team selection after averaging over 11 assists and three digs per game. Ortwerth was a third-team pick after leading the Bulldogs with 3.81 kills and 3.65 digs a game. Both players were also first-team all-MIAA and South Central region selections. The two helped the Bulldogs to a 28-9 record in 2002. They were also named to the Elite Eight all-tournament team. The team won the South Central region title for the second straight year and advanced to the NCAA championship game.

Academic All-Americans

Truman’s all-time assists leader, Kirsten Bernthal, became the first Bulldog volleyball player to earn academic all-America honors when she was picked for the third team in 1996. As a senior that year, Bernthal was named MIAA MVP and set the school single-season assists record. A three-time academic all-MIAA pick and a 1996 all-region choice, her 6,077 career assists are the most in MIAA history. She was named the NCAA woman of the year for Missouri in 1997.

In 2001, Cassy Felkerson turned a first-team double-double, earning Verizon academic all-America honors along with AVCA all-America accolades. She completed her career in second on the school’s career hitting percentage and blocks average charts. Selected as MIAA MVP in 2001, Felkerson ended her career with 1,268 kills and 432 blocks. She finished with a 3.94 GPA in chemistry/pre-medicine and helped the ‘Dogs to a 37-2 record and an NCAA Elite Eight appearance.

Also in 2001, Jenny Glenn joined Felkerson as the only Bulldogs to earn first-team academic all-America status. An all-region and second-team all-MIAA performer, Glenn completed her career with 955 kills and 958 digs to go with a .239 career hitting percentage. An MIAA Presidential Scholar and a three-time all-conference pick, Glenn graduated with a 4.0 GPA in exercise science. As a senior, she helped Truman to a 37-2 record and an NCAA Elite Eight appearance.

The Bulldog volleyball team has an 8-4 record all-time in NCAA tournament play.

Central Missouri-3, Truman-0
Truman-3, Missouri Western-1
Truman-3, Central Missouri-1
North Alabama-3, Truman-2

The 2000 Bulldogs were MIAA co-champions for the first time and returned to the postseason. Truman was the No. 3 seed in the South Central regional held at North Alabama.

In the opening match, the Bulldogs notched their first-ever NCAA tournament win with a 3-1 victory over Missouri Western. Jenny Glenn and Janelle Zehr each had 13 kills while Monica Marlowe recorded 40 assists and 18 digs in the 15-2, 15-13, 14-16, 15-4 win.

Another MIAA opponent, Central Missouri, was next. Marlowe had another big game as she recorded 55 assists and 24 digs. Five Bulldogs were in double-figures in kills as Truman won 15-12, 7-15, 17-15, 15-2.

In the regional final, Truman gave the host school all it could handle, but fell 20-18 in the deciding fifth game. Truman won games one and four by 15-5 and 15-11 scores, while the Lions won games two and three by scores of 15-4 and 15-7. Cassy Felkerson had 17 kills in the match while Marlowe led the team with 33 assists and 10 digs.

The team ended the year with a 30-6 overall record and a national ranking of 19 in the final AVCA poll.

2001

Truman-3, Henderson State-0
Truman-3, North Alabama-0
South Dakota State-3, Truman-2

Truman entered the 2001 NCAA tournament on a 24-match winning streak and earned the right to host the South Central regional tournament.

The team swept through the regional with a pair of 3-0 wins over Henderson State and North Alabama. In the Henderson State match, Jenny Glenn had 13 kills and 10 digs to lead the Bulldogs to a 30-18, 30-20, 30-24 win. In the regional final, a rematch of the previous year, Truman swept North Alabama by 32-30, 30-24, 30-19 scores, behind 23 kills by Glenn and 45 assists and 15 digs from Monica Marlowe.

After winning its first regional title in school history, the team travelled to Allendale, Mich., for the Division II Elite Eight. Truman faced South Dakota State in the NCAA quarterfinals and fell in five games, 24-30, 30-18, 30-20, 28-30, 15-7. Cassy Felkerson had 20 kills and five Bulldogs recorded 10 or more digs.

The team ended the year with the school's best-ever record of 37-2 and was ranked third in the final AVCA poll.

Truman-3, North Alabama-2
Truman-3, Central Missouri-0
Truman-3, West Texas A&M-1
Truman-3, Grand Valley State-1
BYU-Hawaii-3, Truman-0

Truman had an up-and-down season in 2002 but put it all together near the end of the year with the school's best postseason run.

The squad entered the tournament as a No. 2 seed in the South Central regional hosted by Washburn. After a first-round bye, the Bulldogs blew a 2-0 lead but held on for a 30-22, 30-24, 17-30, 20-30, 15-13 win over North Alabama. Tiffany Graham, Jessaca Sears and Shelby Ortwerth all had kill/dig double-doubles and Graham was involved in two blocks late in the game to help Truman advance.

In the regional finals, the Bulldogs swept Central Missouri by a 31-29, 32-30, 30-23 margin. Marlowe had 38 assists and 11 digs in the win.

Back to the Elite Eight for the second-year in a row, Truman faced the top team in the country and host school, West Texas A&M in the quarterfinals. The Bulldogs shocked one of the largest crowds in NCAA Division II history with a 30-26, 30-28, 17-30, 30-23 win. Sears had 19 kills and 13 digs to lead the team.

In the NCAA semifinals, Truman received 22 kills from Ortwerth and 20 kills and 21 digs from Sears in a 30-27, 31-29, 26-30, 30-22 win over Grand Valley State (Mich.). In the championship match, Truman couldn't slow down BYU-Hawaii as the team hit .281 for the match. Sears had 11 kills as Truman fell 30-21, 30-24, 30-21.

Truman concluded the campaign with a 28-9 overall record and a No. 2 AVCA national ranking.
