With nearly every full-time and part-time starter back this year, the Truman women's basketball team has high expectations for its 2003-04 squad.

Leading the pack is second-team all-Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association forward Annie Westhoff who led the team and was sixth among league leaders with 15.7 points a game. She helped the Bulldogs set new team records for three-pointers, sinking a team-best 47 for the season.

Senior forward Sarah Sommer is also back after leading the team with a .396 three-point field goal percentage and averaging 12.4 points per contest.

Westhoff and Sommer combined to score over 43% of the team's points last year, and 85 of the squad's 173 treys.

“Annie should become just the 12th Bulldog to score 1,000 points as she enters the season with 909,” Sloop indicated. “I think she will continue to get better and help us improve as a team too.”

Sophomore guard Ali Long worked her way into a starting position after coming off the bench for the first half of the season. She started the team's last 12 games, averaging over four points per game during that span.
“Ali will have the opportunity to play more in the early going,” Sloop said. “She helped a lot during the second half of the season last year, and helped the team play better in general. She’ll battle for more minutes and brings a lot of intangibles to the court.”

Junior center Jamie Huffman played in 25 games as the Bulldogs’ highest scoring reserve, averaging 5.8 points per game. She shot a team-best 47.7 percent from the field during the season.

“Jamie will be healthy to start the year for first time since she’s been here,” Sloop said. “She has shown good things in preseason and has had her best fall yet. As she continues to get better, I expect her to contribute a lot more.”

Senior guard Emily Turnbull was a key reserve off the bench for the Bulldogs averaging nearly 11 minutes a game in 25 games as the backup point guard.

“Emily looked more aggressive and quicker this fall,” Sloop indicated. “Her leadership is one of the most important aspects that she brings to the team.”

Senior center Lisa Miceli provided depth at the post position, contributing 1.6 points per game in 12 contests.

Four newcomers could help right away as well. Emily Markovich (5-10) adds good depth to the forwards and will help inside where the ‘Dogs have lacked a true center.

Freshmen Megan Patti and Natalie Schupbach will help out at guard, while Schupbach can fill in at forward if needed too.

Freshman Noelle Peterson, a walk on, provides additional height in the lineup at 5-10 and could come off the bench to help.

“I expect all the newcomers to compete for playing time and to contribute,” Sloop indicated. “The quicker they adjust to the college game, both physically and mentally, the more opportunities they’ll get.”

The Bulldogs open the campaign with an exhibition game at Division I Illinois State before the regular season gets underway at Quincy (Ill.) on Nov. 15. Next, a trip to Lincoln precedes a three-game homestand with contests against William Penn (Iowa), Central Methodist and Drury. DU won both meetings with the ‘Dogs last season and made a trip to the sweet 16 of the NCAA Division II tournament. Truman registered wins over Lincoln and William Penn a year ago.

The Bulldogs then play at Rockhurst before entertaining Lincoln in a rematch for the ‘Dogs’ final non-conference game at Pershing. Truman wrap up non-league play with a pair of games in the Bahamas Dec. 21-22 against a couple of NCAA Division III teams, including Susquehanna University (Pa.).

The MIAA slate begins on Dec. 30 with a home game vs. Missouri Southern, one of five teams the Bulldogs split with in conference play in 2002-03.

Truman will face Emporia State, picked to finish first in the league by MIAA coaches, on Jan. 10. ESU, Missouri Western, Pittsburg State and Southwest Baptist all swept the ‘Dogs a year ago.

John Sloop became the eighth head coach in the 31-year history of the Truman women’s basketball program in July of 2000. Sloop had spent the five previous years as the assistant for the Truman men's basketball team. In his first season as taskmaster for the Bulldog women, Sloop’s team posted nine wins, the same number of wins as his 2002-03 squad. He led last year’s team to its second-straight MIAA postseason tournament appearance, its fifth appearance in the last six years.

His experience with the Truman men includes an NCAA Division II Final Four appearance in 1999, as well as some of the top names in Missouri college and high school basketball.

After Sloop graduated from Maryville University in St. Louis in 1991, Sloop served under Charlie Spoonhour for one season at Southwest Missouri State University before moving to St. Louis University with Spoonhour for the next two seasons.

He was an assistant coach at Southwest Missouri State University during the 1994-95 season for Mark Bernsen. While at Division I SMSU, Sloop assisted in nearly every aspect of the program, including recruiting, scouting and on-the-floor coaching.

He began his coaching career while still in college. After a career-ending ankle injury, he was hired by his former high school basketball coach as an assistant at Lafayette High School in St. Louis. While at Lafayette, Sloop also directed summer basketball camps for boys and girls in kindergarten through high school age. In 1992, he served as head coach of the Springfield Kings, a 16-and-under Amateur Athletic Union team.

Sloop’s duties as the men’s assistant at Truman included recruiting, organizing practice sessions, on-the-floor coaching, strategy development, scheduling, travel arrangements, video and monitoring academic progress of student-athletes. He was also a member of the NABC Assistant Coaches Board of Directors.
