The top eight teams in the conference will get the opportunity to play in the Sonic MIAA Championship postseason tournament March 6-9.

Truman opened the MIAA slate by picking up an 80-76 overtime win at Central Missouri but lost eight straight MIAA games before breaking the losing streak with the Washburn win.

Truman had 19 second-chance points and used a 15-2 run starting at 11:22 in the second period to grab a six-point lead with 7:33 to go. A three-pointer by freshman guard Ali Long kicked off the spurt that included a pair of treys by junior forward Annie Westhoff and two buckets by sophomore center Jamie Huffman, along with a 2-for-2 performance from the line by Tromp.

The Bearcats managed to tie the score with as little at 1:26 remaining, but the ‘Dogs sank 5-of-8 free throws after that, taking a five-point lead with 11 seconds left. Northwest hit a three at the buzzer to leave the final score, 74-72.

Tromp led the team from the line as well hitting 8-of-10 charity shots, while Westhoff was 3-for-3 and sophmore guard Kelli Floyd was 2-for-2. on a layup by sophomore center Jamie Huffman with just under five

Truman enjoyed its greatest margin, 34-points, twice in the final two minutes, the first time on a bucket by Long and the second on the ‘Dogs’ final tally of the game, a three-pointer by Westhoff with 48 seconds remaining. The Lady Statesmen made two free throws in the closing sec-

DRURY 77, TRUMAN 62

The Bulldogs did not get off to a good start, falling behind by 10-points by the 13-minute mark in the game. Bernard hit a three right after that to cut the deficit to seven. Drury managed 10-points by the 13-minute mark in the game. Bernard hit a free throw attempts. Sommer helped Truman cut Drury's lead to one at halftime after cutting their deficit to two points on a three-pointer by Westhoff. On a 10-3 run with just under seven minutes left in the first half, to build a 10-point lead three more times before the 'Dogs went 9-6 in the final two minutes after missing four of the last five free throws.

QUINCY 62, TRUMAN 61

Minus one tied score midway through the first half and Quincy’s game-winning bucket with 17 seconds remaining in the contest, Truman led the Lady Hawks for nearly the entire game on Tuesday night. The Bulldogs were up by as much as 11 points in the first period and that much again midway through the second half. However, a late rally by QU, which out-scored the 'Dogs 4-3 in the final minute, gave the Lady Hawks the win, 62-61.

Truman started the game with a 6-0 run and took a 17-6 lead at the 12-minute mark in the first half on a three-pointer by junior forward Annie Westhoff. A QU layup by Lisa Farrell got the margin back to nine, but a layup by Westhoff again pushed Truman’s lead to 11. The Lady Hawks proceeded on a 15-4 run immediately after that to tie the score at 23 apiece by the eight-minute mark in the first stanza. Truman answered by going on a 10-0 run to claim another double-digit lead (10 points) with 4:37 to go. Westhoff and sophomore guard Kelli Floyd each hit a three and junior guard Keagan Thalin and senior forward Jennifer Fisher each had a bucket during the run. The ‘Dogs were still ahead by nine with 1:58 left in the first, but were out-scored 6-2 to take a 37-32 lead into intermission.

QU came out strong in the second period going on a 3-0 run to get Truman’s lead down to one. With a little over nine minutes left in the game, the Bulldogs had pushed their lead back to 11 behind a 7-0 run that started with a Thalin three-pointer and included another bucket by Thalin and was finished with a two-point score by Fisher. QU whittled that lead down to two with about five minutes left in the game after an 11-2 run and cut it to one point with a minute-and-a-half remaining.

A couple of costly turnovers in the last 42 seconds of the game gave the Lady Hawks the opportunities they needed to pull out the upset victory.
