TRUMAN (8-15 OVERALL, 4-11 MIAA): The Bulldogs got over a big hurdle in continuing their hunt for postseason action when they handed the Missouri-Rolla Lady Miners an 87-66 pay-back loss last Wednesday. The victory left Truman in a two-way tie with Central Missouri for the eighth spot in the MIAA standings. The 2002-03 regular season finale is shaping up to be big for the ‘Dogs too as they are scheduled to entertain CMSU.

Central Missouri will have to travel to No. 22 Emporia and entertains Pittsburg State before the regular season finale at Truman. But neither Truman or CMSU should count out Missouri-Rolla which could take that eighth spot in the league if it wins its final three games with Northwest Missouri, Missouri Southern and Southwest Baptist.

Emporia, Washburn, Missouri Western and Northwest Missouri have all clinched berths to the Sonic MIAA Championships. The MIAA takes its top eight teams to the postseason tourney in Kansas City’s Municipal Auditorium March 6-9.

LAST GAME: TRUMAN 87, MISSOURI-ROLLA 66: The Truman women stayed in the postseason hunt after handing Missouri-Rolla an 87-66 loss in Kirksville on Saturday. It was payback for the 74-49 defeat of the Bulldogs by the Lady Miners back on Jan. 22, 74-49. Missouri-Rolla led 4-0 in the early going, but Truman used an 8-0 run from there to take the lead for good. Junior guard/forward Adri Tromp (Grand Rapids, Mich./Calvin-Glen Oaks CC) started the run with a layup and scored a few seconds later to tie the score at four apiece, after a steal and fast-break layup. The Bulldogs took their first double-digit lead at 13:22 in the first period after another 8-0 run from there to take the lead for good. Junior forward Annie Westhoff (Webster Groves, Mo.) with 29 seconds to go before intermission left the ‘Dogs with a 42-30 halftime lead. Westhoff scored 16 points in the first half and went on to lead the team with a career high of 30 points.

Truman expanded its lead to 20 by 18:20 in the second half after opening the stanza with a 9-0 run. The Bulldogs enjoyed their greatest lead, 28 points, with 2:17 left to play, 87-59. The Lady Miners managed to hold the Truman subs in check from there while going on a 7-0 run to finish off the game. Junior transfer Sarah Sommer (Sparland, Ill./Midland-Bradley U.) and Tromp scored 18 points and sophomore center Jamie Huffman (St. Peters, Mo./Francis Howell Central) had 10 points to account for Truman’s double-digit scorers. Tromp and Westhoff tied for the team-lead in continuing their hunt for postseason action when they handed Missouri-Rolla an 87-66 pay-back loss last Wednesday. The victory left Truman in a two-way tie with Central Missouri for the eighth spot in the MIAA standings.

The winner of the MIAA postseason tournament will earn an automatic bid to the NCAA Division II tournament, as will the league champions from the Heartland and Lone Star conferences in the South Central region.

The NCAA DII bracket will include 64 teams from eight regions with eight teams from each region making the tournament. The winner in the South Central region is slated to play the winner out

LAST TIME MISSOURI SOUTHERN 83, TRUMAN 73: It was a wild ride in Pershing Arena as the Lions and ‘Dogs took a hotly contested game into overtime. Truman, which had been having trouble putting together two good halves, scored 32 points in the first half and 35 in the second period, but fell short in overtime, 17-6. Junior transfer Sarah Sommer and MSSC’s Jacque Rzeszut were both half a point shy of scoring half of their team’s points for the game. Rzeszut came within one point of tying the MIAA single game scoring record with 45 points, while Sommer tied for the fifth-best game in Truman history with 36 points.

The Bulldogs led early on, taking a 6-0 lead on a pair of layups by junior guard/forward Adri Tromp to start things off, followed by a layup from junior forward Annie Westhoff. Rzeszut cut the ‘Dogs lead to three with the first of her seven three-pointers for the game and went on to score the Lady Lions’ first 19 points. She scored eight straight points, starting with that three, to give MSSC an 8-6 advantage.

Sophomore center Jamie Huffman came off the bench to score the next three points for Truman, and a two-pointer by Sommer finished off a 5-0 run that would give the ‘Dogs their last lead of the game, 11-8. Rzeszut responded with another trey, tying the score at 11 apiece and sparked another 8-0 run for the Lady Lions.

The Bulldogs got down by as much as 10 points three times in the first period, including with 14 seconds to go, before Kelli Floyd made a jumper to leave Truman just eight points in the hole at halftime, 40-32.

In the second half, Rzeszut made a long range bucket just seconds into the period to push the MSSC lead back into double-digits. The Lady Lions’ biggest margin of the game came near the 14-minute mark when they went ahead by 14 points. Sommer then scored five straight points on three free throws and a layup and Westhoff made a pair of charity shots to get the MSSC lead.

MISSOURI SOUTHERN 83, TRUMAN 73: It was a wild ride in Pershing Arena on Saturday as the Lions and ‘Dogs took a hotly contested game into overtime. Truman, which had been having trouble putting together two good halves, scored 32 points in the first half and 35 in the second period, but fell short in overtime, 17-6. Junior transfer Sarah Sommer and MSSC’s Jacquie Rzeszut were both half a point shy of scoring half of their team’s points for the game. Rzeszut also came within one point of tying the MIAA single game scoring record with 45 points, while Sommer tied for the fifth-best game in Truman history with 36 points.

The Bulldogs led early on, taking a 6-0 lead on a pair of layups by junior guard/forward Adri Tromp to start things off, followed by a layup from junior forward Annie Westhoff. Rzeszut cut the ‘Dogs lead to three with the first of her seven three-pointers for the game and went on to score the Lady Lions’ first 19 points. She scored eight straight points, starting with that three, to give MSSC an 8-6 advantage.

Sophomore center Jamie Huffman then came off the bench to score the next three points for Truman, and a two-pointer by Sommer finished off a 5-0 run that would give the ‘Dogs their last lead of the game, 11-8. Rzeszut responded with another trey, tying the score at 11 each and sparking another 8-0 run for the Lady Lions.

The Bulldogs got down by as much as 10 points three times in the first period, including with 14 seconds, before Kelli Floyd made a jumper to leave Truman just eight points in the hole at halftime, 40-32.

In the second half, Rzeszut made a long range bucket just seconds into the period to push the MSSC lead back into double-digits. The Lions’ biggest margin of the game came near the 14-minute mark when they went ahead by 14 points. Sommer then scored five straight points on three free throws and a layup and Westhoff made a pair of charity shots to get the MSSC lead down to seven with 11:16 left in regulation.

The ‘Dogs would out-score MSSC 15-8 over the next six-plus minutes and manage to tie the score at 58 on a made shot by Sommer with 4:40 to go. Sommer scored Truman’s last 21 points of the the second-half with her final bucket coming from outside the arc with 18 seconds remaining to tie the score at 67 each. Rzeszut was then fouled but missed the free throw that Westhoff rebounded with 16 ticks left in regulation. The Bulldogs failed to get a good shot off in the remaining time, sending the game into the extra session.

Rzeszut scored all 17 of Missouri Southern’s OT points and 10-straight to start overtime. She would go 9-of-10 from the line in the third stanza and was a perfect 3-for-3 from the field with a pair of treys. Sommer scored five points in overtime and Huffman made a free throw to account for the ‘Dogs’ six points in the final period.

Westhoff led Truman with eight rebounds and also scored in double figures for Truman with 14 points, while Tromp had 11 points. Sommer was perfect from the line for the game, going 10-for-10 from the line. Rzeszut’s 45-point performance was a new Pershing Arena record by an opponent.
