TRUMAN (5-5 OVERALL, 1-1 MIAA): With four of their first five MIAA games on the road, the Bulldogs will be glad for their return to Pershing Arena on Wednesday after falling at No. 16 Washburn 85-57 on Saturday. Things don't get any easier after Wednesday either as the ‘Dogs hit the road again, this time to perennial MIAA power Emporia before meeting up with the No. 5 Missouri Western Lady Griffons a week from Wednesday.

Truman opened the MIAA slate by picking up an 80-76 overtime win at Central Missouri on Dec. 30, improving their record in MIAA openers to 9-12. It was also the second time this year the Bulldogs trailed at halftime (40-39) but came back to win.

The Dogs have just three home games in the month of January, and play three out their first nine MIAA games on the road. However, the Bulldogs have five home dates in February and finish the regular season at home on March 1 with CMSU.

LAST GAME: WASHBURN 85, TRUMAN 57
The Lady Blues had five points on the board when junior guard/forward Adri Tromp (Grand Rapids, Mich./Calvin-Glen Oaks CC) put Truman in the scoring column with a three-pointer a minute and a half into the game. The Bulldogs tied the score twice around the 15-minute mark, the first time on a bucket by sophomore guard Kelli Floyd (Kirksville) and the second time about a minute later when sophomore center Jamie Huffman (St. Peters, Mo./Francis Howell Central) came off the bench and made a layup. A three-pointer by senior forward Jennifer Fisher (Fordland, Mo./Marshfield) at 8:23 in the first half got the ‘Dogs within three-points of the Lady Blues, but Truman could not capitalize and saw WU go on a 12-0 run to take a 15-point lead by the six-minute mark. The ‘Dogs looked to take that 15-point deficit into the break, but it was cut to 12 when junior transfer Sarah Sommer (Sparland, Ill./Midland-Bradley U.) made a three-pointer with 23 seconds to go before intermission.

In the second half, Truman managed to cut the Washburn lead to 11 on a jumper by junior guard Keagan Thalin (Glenview, Ill./Glenbrook South) at 17:29 only to see the Lady Blues go

Truman 88, William Penn 56

Junior forward Annie Westhoff and junior guard/forward Adri Tromp tied for the team lead with 17 points each and Westhoff grabbed a team-high nine rebounds. It was Tromp's best outing so far at Truman, and she was a perfect 7-for-7 from the charity stripe. For the game, the Bulldogs were 12-of-14 from the line and charted their second game with double-digits in the three-point column, sinking a total of 12. In the last two games, the Bulldogs have hit 27 threes and have 11.7 a game over the first three contests of the season.

The Bulldogs took its first 20-point lead on a three by freshman guard Jamie Huffman with just under five minutes left in the game. Huffman, coming with a jumper with 40 seconds on the clock to leave the halftime score at 40-21 in the 'Dogs' favor.

The Lady Statesmen tallied first in the second stanza to cut the margin to 17, but a layup and two free throws by Tromp, followed by another Bernard three-pointer pushed Truman's lead back above 20 for nearly the remainder of the game. WPU managed to cut the Bulldogs' lead to 19 one more time midway through the half, but were then out-scored 13-4 as Truman took a 28-point lead at the five-minute mark on a layup by junior guard Keagan Thalin. The Bulldogs took their first 30-point lead on a layup by sophomore center Annie Westhoff with just under five minutes left in the game.

Truman enjoyed its greatest margin, 34-points, twice in the final two minutes, the first time on a bucket by Long and the second on the 'Dogs' final tally of the game, a three-pointer by Westhoff with 48 seconds remaining. The Lady Statesmen made two free throws in the closing seconds to cut the Bulldogs' final margin of victory to 32 points, 88-56.
DRURY 77, TRUMAN 62

The Bulldogs did not get off to a good start, falling behind by 10-points by the 13-minute mark in the game. Bernard hit a three right after that to cut the deficit to seven. Drury managed 10-points by the 13-minute mark in the game. Bernard hit a free throw attempts. From the field, with one three-pointer, and connecting on both scoring the Bulldogs' last nine points of the half, going 3-for-3 Sommer helped Truman cut Drury's lead to one at halftime after cutting their deficit to two points on a three-pointer by Westhoff.

The 'Dogs took their only lead of the game in the second stanza, when Thalin made the first bucket of the half, followed by a jumper from Sommer. However, they could not hold onto long and found themselves down by 11 points halfway through the period. Truman got the Panthers' lead below double-digits with under six minutes left in the game on a 40-run, but saw it again climb to 12 on a DU three-pointer. The Bulldogs were outscored 9-6 in the final two minutes after missing four of the last five free throws.

QUINCY 62, TRUMAN 61

Minus one tied score midway through the first half and Quincy's game-winning bucket with 17 seconds remaining in the contest, Truman led the Lady Hawks for nearly the entire game on Tuesday night. The Bulldogs were up by as much as 11 points in the first period and that much again midway through the second half. However, a late rally by QU, which out-scored the 'Dogs 10-0 run to claim another double-digit lead (10 points) with 4:37 to go. Westhoff and sophomore guard Kelli Floyd each hit a three and junior guard Keagan Thalin each had a bucket during the run. The 'Dogs were still ahead by nine with 1:58 left in the first, but were out-scored 6-2 to take a 57-52 lead into intermission.

QUU came out strong in the second period going on a 30-run to get Truman's lead down to one. With a little over nine minutes left in the game, the Bulldogs had pushed their lead back to 11 behind a 7-0 run that started with a Thalin three-pointer and included another bucket by Thalin and was finished with a two-point score by Fisher. QU whittled that lead down to two with about five minutes left in the game after an 11-2 run and cut it to one point with a minute-and-a-half remaining.

A couple of costly turnovers in the last 42 seconds of the game gave the Lady Hawks the opportunities they needed to pull out the upset victory.
The Bulldogs got off to a not-so-hot start after the Blue Tigers took their first double-digit lead at 11:11, 18-7. Junior forward Annie Westhoff (Webster Groves, Mo.) then sparked a 14-0 Bulldog run with a three-pointer that ended with about four minutes to go in the first half and left the 'Dogs with a three-point lead. A bucket by junior guard Adri Tromp (Grand Rapids, Mich./Calvin-Glen Oaks CC) hit a three-pointer at 9:54 in the closing minutes to take a 30-27 lead into the first 10 minutes of the second period, but the Blue Tigers proceeded to whittle the Lady Panthers margin down to 10 midway through the half. The Bulldogs kept Lincoln's lead under six points for nearly nine points with 10 seconds to go.

TRUMAN VS. DRURY - 12-19-02 - KIRKSVILLE, MO.

Drury got off to a 16-4 start on the Bulldogs before junior guard/forward Adri Tromp hit a three-pointer at 9:54 in the first to cut the Lady Panthers’ lead to nine. DU answered with a fast break layup to get back its double-digit lead. A bucket by junior guard Keagan Thalin next was nearly the last time the ‘Dogs would see the lead under double-digits though, and the Lady Panthers would take a 35-22 lead at the break.

In the second period, DU’s lead climbed to as much as 18 at the 15-minute mark. The ‘Dogs put together a 12-4 run after that to whittle the Lady Panthers margin down to 10 midway through the half. A 6-3 run shortly after that got the Drury lead down to nine with 9:32 to go. But the Lady Panthers proceeded on an 18-6 run after that, taking their first 20-point lead with 3:39 left in the game, 72-52. A three-pointer by Tromp and a fastbreak layup by freshman forward Sarah Bernard got the margin down to 16, but it was too little too late as DU stayed with it and came away with the 77-62 win.
Midway through the second half, the Truman Bulldogs used 8-0 and 7-0 runs to overcome a 15-point deficit and tie the score, sending the MIAA women’s basketball opener into overtime before pulling out an 80-76 win at Central Missouri this evening.

Senior forward Jennifer Fisher (Fordland, Mo./Marshfield) came off the bench and tied the score at 70 with less than a second remaining. Junior guard Keagan Thalin (Glenview, Ill./Glenbrook South) and sophomore guard Kelli Floyd (Kirksville) combined to go 7-of-8 from the line as the ‘Dogs made 8-of-10 free throws in the extra session to seal the win.

Thalin led the team with 16 points, going 5-of-7 from the field and the line, and sinking her only three-point attempt. A total of four ‘Dogs scored in double figures as junior forward Annie Westhoff (Webster Groves, Mo.) had 15 points, sophomore guard Jamie Huffman (St. Peters, Mo./Francis Howell Central) had 14 and junior transfer Sarah Sommer (Sparland, Ill./Midland-Bradley) had 13.
