TRUMAN (9-15 OVERALL, 5-11 MIAA): The Bulldogs went a long way to securing a berth in the Sonic MIAA Championships when they registered a 66-61 win at Missouri Southern on Saturday. Truman exacted revenge over the Lady Lions for a 84-73 overtime loss on Jan. 25 when Sarah Sommer scored a team season high of 36 points and MSSC’s Jacquie Rzeszut came one-off the MIAA record with 45 points.

The rematch was nearly as exciting after Truman led for nearly the entire game, except for one tied score in the first half and a minute-and-a-half period in the second half when MSSC got ahead of the 'Dogs by two. The Lady Lions also tied the score with four minutes left and got within three points of the Bulldogs with 13 seconds to go after making a pair of free throws and a three-pointer.

The victory propelled Truman into sole ownership of the eighth spot in the MIAA standings after Central Missouri lost to No. 22 Emporia State on Saturday. The ‘Dogs are also just one game out of seventh in the MIAA standings, sitting just behind Missouri Southern now. While MSSC has Missouri-Rolla on the agenda this week, the Lady Lions will wrap up the regular season at No. 12 Washburn.

If the ‘Dogs pick up wins in their final two games and MSSC loses a game, Truman could sneak in to the postseason tourney as the No. 7 seed. Central Missouri hosts Pittsburg on Wednesday before heading to Truman for what could be a postseason-deciding game. If the Bulldogs tie UMR or CMSU in the league standings, Truman will likely have the tie-breaker over both of those teams by virtue of its win over top-seeded Washburn earlier this year.

Emporia, Washburn, Missouri Western, Northwest Missouri, Pittsburg State and Southwest Baptist have all clinched berths to the Sonic MIAA postseason tournament. The MIAA takes its top eight teams to the postseason tournament in Kansas City’s Municipal Auditorium March 6-9.

The winner of the MIAA postseason tournament will earn an automatic bid to the NCAA Division II tourney, as will the league champions from the Heartland and Lone Star conferences in the South Central region.

The NCAA DII bracket will include 64 teams from eight regions with eight teams from each region making the tournament. The winner in the South Central region is slated to play the winner out of the Great Lakes region in the 2003 NCAA Elite Eight to be held in St. Joseph and hosted by Missouri Western.

BULLDOGS IN LAST SEVEN GAMES: After snapping an eight-game MIAA losing streak with a 76-71 win over then-No. 5-ranked Washburn on Feb. 1, Truman has won four of its last seven games and it making a run for the MIAA postseason tourney.

The Bulldogs have shot 44.2% over the last seven games, to their opponent’s 39.4% performance, and have averaged 6.3 three-pointers a contest. They have also out-rebounded their last seven foes by 1.7 boards a game.

Junior forward Annie Westhoff (Webster Groves, Mo.) has averaged 20.7 points during that span, while junior transfer Sarah Sommer (Sparland, Ill./Midland-Bradley U.) has 14.9.

ing second on the boards with 7.4 a game.
Sommer has shot 52.6% from the field and a team-best 47.6% from three-point land (10-of-21).

Sophomore guard Kellie Floyd (Kirksville, Mo.) and Sommer each have 19 assists. Sommer and sophomore center Jamie Huffman (St. Peters, Mo./Francis Howell Central) each have four blocks over the seven-game skew, while Huffman leads the team off the bench with 55.3% shooting from the field (21-of-38).

LAST GAME: TRUMAN 66, MISSOURI SOUTHERN 61: The Bulldogs got off to a 7-0 start on the Lady Lions with a pair of buckets by Sarah Sommer and a three-pointer by Annie Westhoff in between. Truman outscored MSSC 20-8 by the 12:35 mark to take its greatest lead of the game. However, the Lady Lions embarked on an 8-1 run after that to cut the score to five before the clock put the Bulldogs up ahead again and spark a 10-2 run that would leave Truman with a six-point lead with eight minutes remaining. Missouri Southern regrouped during intermission and opened the second period with a 9-2 run to grab their first lead at the 15-minute mark, 36-34. Kelli Floyd then hit a two-pointer before the Bulldogs got off to a 7-0 start on the Lady Lions with a pair of buckets by Sarah Sommer and a three-pointer by Annie Westhoff. Truman led the MIAA in three-pointers per game for nearly the entire season until falling to second this week with 6.83 a game.

Sommer is 15th among league scoring leaders (12.6 ppg) and fourth in three-point field goal percentage (.419). She also still touts the best three-point effort in the conference this year when she was 5-of-5 vs. Westminster, while sophomore guard Kelli

In fact, Westhoff has led or tied for the lead in scoring 10 times this year and has topped the ‘Dogs in rebounding in nine contests. The Bulldogs have doubled their number of wins to four since Westhoff garnered a spot among the starters, while Truman had won two games in the nine games prior.

She already ranks 14th among Bulldog career scoring leaders with 850 points since she joined the team in 2000, and is 10th among career three-point leaders as Truman (55).

Westhoff has made at least three treys in seven games in 2002-03, including two of the last three encounters.

The Lady Bearcats opened the second period by outscoring Truman 5-2 in the first few minutes, taking their first double-digit lead at 17:41, 39-28. SBU expanded its lead to 13 points at 17:04, culminating a 7-2 run to start the half. After that, the Bulldogs rallied and cut their deficit to four behind an 11-2 run that put the score at 43-39 with 12:27 to go. The Lady Bearcats would push their lead back into double-digits three more times before taking a permanent double-digit lead with 3:42 left to play. Jennifer Fisher scored seven of the ‘Dogs’ last nine points, starting at 2:29, but SBU had an answer each time and made 3-of-4 free throws in the final minute to seal the win, 69-57.

HEAD COACH: John Sloop became the second head coach in the history of the Truman women’s basketball program in July of 2000. Sloop spent the five previous years as the assistant for the Truman men’s basketball team. In his first season as taskmaster for the Bulldogs, Sloop’s team posted nine wins, but made a rapid improvement last year with a 14-13 record. The 2001-02 squad qualified for the MIAA tournament for the fourth time in the last five years and produced first-team all-MIAA center Jennifer Perkins. Sloop has a career record of 32-45 (.416).

Jim Middleton, who also serves as the director of athletics at Southwest Baptist, is in his ninth season coaching the Lady Bearcats. At SBU and for his career, Middleton has a record of 166-86 (.659).

MIAA GAMES

PITTSBURG STATE 77, TRUMAN 56: The Bulldogs never did hold the lead in a 77-56 loss to Pittsburg State on Saturday. The Gorillas took an early 40 lead before freshman forward Sarah Bernard got Truman on the board with a three-pointer at 18:17. The ‘Dogs kept the PSU lead under six for the first 10 minutes, but watched the Gorillas take their first double digit lead at 7:02 after Stephanie Shanline hit two long range shots. Truman was outscored 15-6 after that and took a 43-25 deficit into the locker-room at the break.

The Bulldogs couldn’t cut into their deficit much to start the second half, but did get it down to 14 at 13:34 behind a 5-0 run. Freshman forward Lisa Miceli came off the bench to spark a 7-4 run for the ‘Dogs with a layup and later a pair of free throws that cut the margin to 11 with 6:46 left to play. But PSU used a 11-4 run to put the game away and take its first 20-point lead at 1:39 to go. Amanda Davied led Pittsburg and all scorers with 21 points and 14 rebounds, while Bernard topped Truman with 10 points.

The Bulldogs shot 40.8% for the game, but turned the ball over 22 times. Pittsburg shot 49.2% from the field and outrebounded the ‘Dogs 34-28.
MISSOURI-ROLLA 74, TRUMAN 49: Junior guard Adri Tromp scored the Bulldogs’ first seven points, giving Truman an early 3-0 lead in the 74-49 loss to Missouri-Rolla on Wednesday. Tromp hit a three to get the ‘Dogs on the board and then went 4-for-4 from the line. About half a minute later junior forward Annie Westhoff made one from outside the arc to give Truman its last lead of the game (10-8) at 14:17. A jumper by Westhoff a minute later tied the score at 12 apiece, but UMR proceeded on a 5-0 run from there to take the lead for good.

Missouri-Rolla expanded its lead to as much as nine by the three-minute mark, but a pair of threes by junior forward Jennifer Fisher and Westhoff, and another bucket by Westhoff, kept the lead under 10 for the remainder of the half as the Bulldogs took a 36-28 deficit to the lockerroom at intermission.

The Lady Miners quickly got their lead into double-digits after starting the second period with an 8-0 run and outscored the ‘Dogs 33-10 through the first 15 minutes of the second half.

Westhoff led the team with a 20 points, one off of her career high, and posted her second double-double of the year with 10 rebounds. However, Tromp led the team on the boards with 12 and was the only other ‘Dog in double figures in the scoring column with 12 points as well. It was her second double-double of the season.

Truman shot just 26.2% from the field and 20.0% from beyond the arc, its worst performances of the season, while the Lady Miners were .500 from the field and 4-of-10 (40.0%) from three-point land.

MISSOURI SOUTHERN 83, TRUMAN 73: It was a wild ride in Pershing Arena on Saturday as the Lions and ‘Dogs took a hotly contested game into overtime. Truman, which had been having trouble putting together two good halves, scored 32 points in the first half and 35 in the second period, but fell short in overtime. 17-6. Junior transfer Sarah Sommer and MSSC’s Jacquie Rzeszut were both half a point shy of scoring half of their team’s points for the game. Rzeszut also came within one point of tying the MIAA single game scoring record with 45 points, while Sommer tied for the fifth-best game in Truman history with 36 points.

The Bulldogs led early on, taking a 6-0 lead on a pair of layups by junior guard/forward Adri Tromp to start things off, followed by a layup from junior forward Annie Westhoff. Rzeszut cut the ‘Dogs lead to three with the first of her seven three-pointers for the game and went on to score the Lady Lions’ first 19 points. She scored eight straight points, starting with that three, to give MSSC an 8-6 advantage.

Sophomore center Jamie Huffman then came off the bench to score the next three points for Truman, and a two-pointer by Sommer finished off a 5-0 run that would give the ‘Dogs their last lead of the game, 11-8. Rzeszut responded with another trey, tying the score at 11 apiece and sparking another 8-0 run for the Lady Lions.

The Bulldogs got down by as much as 10 points three times in the first period, including with 14 seconds, before Kelli Floyd made a jumper to leave Truman just eight points in the hole at halftime, 40-32.

In the second half, Rzeszut made a long range bucket just seconds into the period to push the MSSC lead back into double-digits. The Lady Lions’ biggest margin of the game came near the 14-minute mark when they went ahead by 14 points. Sommer then scored five straight points on three free throws and a layup and Westhoff made a pair of charity shots to get the MSSC lead down to seven with 11:16 left in regulation.

The ‘Dogs would out-score MSSC 15-8 over the next six-plus minutes and manage to tie the score at 58 on a made shot by Sommer with 4:40 to go. Sommer scored Truman’s last 21 points of the the second-half with her final basket coming from outside the arc with 18 seconds remaining to tie the score at 67 each. Rzeszut was then fouled but missed the free throw that Westhoff rebounded with 16 ticks left in regulation. The Bulldogs failed to get a good shot off in the remaining time, sending the game into the extra session.

Rzeszut scored all 17 of Missouri Southern’s OT points and 10-straight to start overtime. She would go 9-of-10 from the line in the third stanza and was a perfect 3-for-3 from the field with a pair of treys. Sommer scored five points in overtime and Huffman made a free throw to account for the ‘Dogs six points in the final period.

Westhoff led Truman with eight rebounds and also scored in double figures for Truman with 14 points, while Tromp had 11 points. Sommer was perfect from the field for the game, going 10-for-10 from the line. Rzeszut’s 45-point performance was a new Pershing Arena record by an opponent.

SOUTHWEST BAPTIST 69, TRUMAN 57: Junior forward Annie Westhoff (Webster Groves, Mo.) put Truman on the board first a few seconds into the game and the two teams traded the lead five times and tied the three times during the first five minutes of play. Southwest Baptist went ahead for good at 15:41 during a 7-0 run. Westhoff would score the 'Dogs' first 11 points of the game and finish with her third double-double of the year with 15 points and 10 boards. Truman managed to keep SBU's lead under double-digits in the first half, taking just a six-point deficit into the locker-room at halftime, 32-26.

The Lady Bears opened the second period by outscoring Truman 5-2 in the first few minutes, taking their first double-digit lead at 17:41, 39-28. SBU expanded its lead to 13 points at 17:04, culminating a 7-2 run to start the half. After that, the Bulldogs rallied and cut their deficit to four behind an 11-2 run that put the score at 43-39 with 12:27 to go. The Lady Bears would push their lead back into double-digits three more times before taking a permanent double-digit lead with 3:42 left to play. Senior forward Jennifer Fisher (Fordland, Mo./Marshfield) scored seven of the 'Dogs' last nine points, starting at 2:29, but SBU had an answer each time and made 3-of-4 free throws in the final minute to seal the win, 69-57.
TRUMAN 74, NORTHWEST MISSOURI 72: The Truman women's basketball team jumped into a tie for eighth in the MIAA with its second straight win, a 74-72 edging of Northwest Missouri State on Wednesday evening.

Adri Tromp led the Bulldogs with a double-double, tying for the team lead in scoring with 16 points and grabbing nearly as many rebounds with 14. The Bulldogs tied the Bearcats at 35 at halftime and made just 4-of-21 three-pointers, but outrebounded the 'Cats 42-36.

The Lady Hornets stayed close, tying the score at 10:45 and again at 10:31 before the Bulldogs used a 5-1 run to take a four-point lead.

However, 23 turnovers proved to be Truman's undoing, as well as eight long range buckets by ESU to the Bulldogs' four.
MISSOURI WESTERN 88, TRUMAN 53: After six tied scores and five lead changes in the first half, freshman guard Ali Long (Lebanon, Mo.) gave Truman a one-point lead at half-time by hitting a three-pointer with three seconds to go in the first half. The Bulldogs led by as much as six points at the eight-minute mark in the first period, following a pair of three-pointers in the final minute-and-a-half to win, 88-53.

But Truman’s second half woes reared their ugly head again as the ‘Dogs went the first four minutes without a bucket and let the Lady Griffons out-score them 23-8 through the first 10 minutes. MWSC took its first double-digit lead at 15:49 (11 points) and took a 20-point lead at 9:45 on a three-pointer by Michelle Parlett. The Lady Griffons would sink 16 treys for the game, led by Carly Lee with six and followed by Parlett with five. Missouri Western went ahead by more than 30 points with a little over three minutes to go and hit a pair of three-pointers in the final minute-and-a-half to win, 88-53.

PITTSBURG STATE 85, TRUMAN 76: Junior forward Annie Westhoff (Webster Groves, Mo.) put Truman on the board first and would finish the evening with her fourth 20-plus effort of the season, leading all scorers with 25 points. The two teams battled through six tied scores and six lead changes in the first half before Truman took an eight-point lead with 3:11 left in the first half, following an 11-2 run. PSU cut that margin by two on a pair of free throws, but a layup by sophomore guard Kelli Floyd (Kirksville) extended Truman’s lead back to eight with 2:24 left in the half. However, the Gorillas allowed the Bulldogs just one more free throw before intermission, while finishing off the first period by scoring another eight points. The ‘Dogs took a slim 38-37 lead at the break.

The second half went much the same way with eight tied scores and seven lead changes. The Gorillas grabbed a 10-point lead at 14:58 behind a 10-0 run. Aided by three-pointers from freshman guard Ali Long (Lebanon, Mo.), Westhoff and junior guard/forward Adri Tromp (Grand Rapids, Mich./Calvin-Glen Oaks CC) and junior guard/forward Adrij Tromp (Grand Rapids, Mich./Calvin-Glen Oaks CC), Truman clawed its way back to tie the score at 61 with 9:30 left in the game. The Bulldogs’ last lead came with 2:11 on the clock (76-75) on a free throw by sophomore center Jamie Huffman (St. Peters, Mo./Francis Howell Central).

But PSU held the ‘Dogs scoreless after that and went 8-for-8 at the line down the stretch to clinch the victory, 85-76.

Tromp scored 18 points and junior transfer Sarah Sommer (Sparland, Ill./Midland-Bradley U.) scored 10, but all three of the ‘Dogs’ double-figure scorers fouled out in the last three minutes. Kamie Scrivner led the Gorillas with 21 points and was 9-of-11 from the free throw line, including going 6-for-6 in the last minute of play.

TRUMAN 87, MISSOURI-ROLLA 66: The Truman women stayed in the postseason hunt after handing Missouri-Rolla an 87-66 loss in Kirksville on Saturday. It was payback for the 74-49 defeat of the Bulldogs by the Lady Miners back on Jan. 22, 74-49. Missouri-Rolla led 4-0 in the early going, but Truman used an 8-0 run from there to take the lead for good.
