THE BULLDOGS (7-4, 1-2 MIAA): Truman snapped a two-game skid and picked up its first MIAA win at Missouri-Rolla last night, 68-60 in overtime. It was the ‘Dogs first overtime game this season, and first wince a 84-73 loss to Missouri Southern on Jan. 25, 2003. The Bulldogs’ last overtime win came in last season’s MIAA opener when they knocked off Central Missouri 80-76 on Dec. 30, 2002, in Warrensburg.

Junior center Jamie Huffman (St. Charles, Mo./Francis Howell Central) led the team with a career high performance, going 7-of-12 from the field and led all scorers with 18 points, five coming in the extra frame. Huffman was also second in rebounding with nine boards, seven on the offensive side. Her 18 points boosted her average to double digits (10.5) for the first time in her career when playing in three or more games. She started the year with a 12-point outing, but fell below a double-digit average after scoring 11 points in the next two games. Huffman has now recorded double digits in the scoring column five times this season, once when she came off the bench.

Four ‘Dogs scored in double digits with freshman center Emily Markovich (Peoria, Ill./Notre Dame) coming off the bench to score 13, senior forward Sarah Sommer (Sparland, Ill./Midland) adding 12 and junior guard Kelli Floyd (Kirksville, Mo.) contributing 10.

Truman has as much as a five-point lead in the first half, but let that slip away late in the period. Th Bulldogs managed to tie the score four times in the last five minutes, but the Lady Miners...

escaped to intermission with a 32-31 lead after Floyd made a charity shot to end the period.

She would also have the last say in the second half, sending the game to overtime with a layup in the final minute of regulation. The ‘Dogs grabbed the lead just once in the second stanza, going ahead by a point (53-52) with 1:44 to go on 2-of-2 free-throw shooting by junior guard Emily Turnbull (Toulon, Ill./Stark County). Turnbull would turn out to be key to the ‘Dogs' success in overtime as well by sparking an 8-3 run by Truman in the last 3:37 of the extra period. She hit a trey to get the ‘Dogs the permanent lead then, and scored four of her six points in the final 10 seconds to seal win.
