THE BULLDOGS (7-5, 1-3 MIAA): Truman was down by just three points with 4:27 left in regulation on Saturday, but fell to the No. 9 Emporia State Lady Hornets, 94-80. The Bulldogs tied the score four times and grabbed the lead three times, once by two points, in the first eight minutes. However, ESU out-scored the 'Dogs 19-7 after that to take their first double-digit lead of the game at the seven-minute mark, 34-23. Truman was down by their widest margin of the half at 14 points with 1:37 to go in the first period. But a three-pointer by sophomore guard Ali Long (Lebanon, Mo.) about 10 seconds later sent Truman to the locker room down, 45-34.

Junior center Jamie Huffman (St. Charles, Mo./Francis Howell Central) made the Bulldogs' first two baskets of the game, and began second-half scoring with a layup just seconds into the period. After charting a new career high of 18 points in the last game with Missouri-Rolla, Huffman charted another career-high with 19 points against Emporia.

Huffman's second-half layup sparked the 'Dogs as they went on to out-score the Lady Hornets 20-12 in the first seven minutes, cutting the Truman deficit to three. Senior forward Sarah Sommer (Sparland, Ill./Midland) was key to the Bulldogs' success during those opening minutes after she contributed 12 of those first 20 points in the second stanza. She made all six of her shots, two from behind the line, and had a pair of threes with the second trey finishing off that run. Truman managed to draw within two points at 7:47 and was within three points of the Lady Hornets with 4:27 left to play. But ESU made a three-pointer and quick layup to go ahead by eight points with 3:33 left. The Lady Hornets did not miss a shot after that, sealing the ‘Dogs’ fate with 2-for-2 free-throw shooting, another three-pointer and four two-point buckets after that. Long connected for two points with 1:42 left to give Truman its final tally in the 94-80 loss.

The Bulldogs shot over .500 for the first time this season (.508), while ESU was 45.5 for the game. But ESU was 13-of-27 from three-point land and out-rebounded the ‘Dogs. 39-31.

Senior guard Adri Tromp (Grand Rapids, Mich. Calvin Christian) led the team on the boards with eight. Adri Tromp is fourth in league rebounding (7.7 rpg), and is fifth in defensive rebounds (7.2 rpg) and blocked shots (1.08 bpg).

In his first season as taskmaster for the Bulldog women, Sloop's team posted nine wins, the same number of wins as his 2002-03 squad. He led last year's team to its second-straight MIAA postseason tournament appearance, its fifth appearance in the last six years.

His experience with the Truman men includes an NCAA Division II Final Four appearance in 1999, as well as some of the top names in Missouri college and high school basketball.

After Sloop graduated from Maryville University in St. Louis in 1991, Sloop served under Charlie Spoonhour for one season at Southwest Missouri State University before moving to St. Louis University with Spoonhour for the next two seasons. He was an assistant coach at Southwest Missouri State University during the 1994-95 season for Mark Bernsen.
