Matt Newbery is in his ninth year as the Director of Sports Information for the MIAA. He coordinates the league’s media relations and statistics and handles the designing and editing of the association’s publications. Newbery also aids in the administration of MIAA championship events.

He was an assistant in the sports information office at Pittsburg State where he graduated in 1990 with a bachelor’s degree in communication.

Ralph McFillen was appointed commissioner of the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association in January of 1997 and began his full-time position upon the retirement of the MIAA’s first commissioner, Ken B. Jones in June of that year.

McFillen served as commissioner of the Division I Metro Conference from 1987-95 and commissioner of the Division II Gulf South Conference from 1984-87. McFillen also served as an assistant director of championships at the NCAA from 1972-84. He received a bachelor’s degree in history and physical education at Kansas State University in 1964 and earned a master’s degree in education from KSU in 1967.

The MIAA

The league was first organized in 1912 with 14 member institutions which included Cape Girardeau State Teachers, Kirksville State Teachers, Maryville State Teachers, Springfield State Teachers, Warrensburg State Teachers, Central College, Central Wesleyan, Culver-Stockton, Drury, Missouri Valley, Missouri Wesleyan, Tarkio, Westminster and William Jewel.

In 1924, the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association (MIAA) reorganized to include only the five regional state colleges; Central Missouri, Truman, Northwest Missouri, Southeast Missouri and Southwest Missouri.

In 1957, the MIAA aligned itself with the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) College Division.

Lincoln University became the seventh institution to gain membership in the league in 1970.

The University of Missouri-St. Louis entered the MIAA in 1980, but left the league in 1996.

Southwest Missouri State University left in 1981 to pursue membership in NCAA Division I.

In 1982, the league, for the first time in its history, began sponsoring championships for women’s athletics.

Southwest Baptist University gained membership to the conference in 1986 boosting membership to eight schools.

A major expansion of the league took place in 1989 as Missouri Southern State College, Missouri Western State College, Pittsburg State (Kan.) University and Washburn (Kan.) University joined.

In 1991, Southeast Missouri State University left to pursue NCAA Division I status and Emporia State (Kan.) University became the 12th member of the MIAA.

In 1992, the league changed its name to the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association to better reflect its membership.

In 1997, Ken B. Jones retired after serving since 1981 as the MIAA’s first full-time commissioner.

Lincoln would leave the MIAA after the 1998-99 season.

As a team, Truman appears in several categories in the NCAA record book. In 2001, Truman averaged the 11th-highest goals-per-game (4.00) in NCAA Division II.

On Oct. 15, 1989, Truman scored 51 points against Benedictine (Kan.) to tie for fifth all-time in DII single-game points. The 14 goals scored by the 'Dogs in that game tied the third-most in a game in DII, and Truman's 15 assists in that contest tied for 13th among Division II leaders.

In 1999, the Truman women finished with a 0.359 goals-against average, the seventh-best in a season, while the Bulldogs' 2001 average of 0.398 is the 11th-best in DII.

In the category of single season shutout percentage, Truman ranks ninth for its mark of 0.737 in 1999 and ties for 13th at 0.714 in 2000. The 14 shutouts posted by the 1999 team ties for the 15th-most in a season by a team in Division II, while the 15 shutouts that the 2001 team posted ties for seventh all-time.

The Bulldogs' 21 consecutive conference wins from Sept. 1, 1999, to Nov. 3, 2001, ranks third all-time in Division II, while it also ties for fifth on the consecutive games unbeaten list.

Truman's 10 consecutive shutouts from Sept. 23 to Oct. 28, 2000, ties for the fourth-longest streak in DII.

The 'Dogs led the nation with a 0.38 goals-against average in 2001. On Sept. 4, 1996, vs. Park College, Jill Benson and Carie Toczykowski scored goals 17 seconds apart to rank 12th on the DI list of fastest consecutive goals by the same team.

Mike Cannon ranks tied for 17th among winningest active NCAA Division II coaches with a winning percentage of .683 (109-47-13), and is 16th on the victories list.

Becky Eggleston made 725 saves per game in the net for the 'Dogs from 1985-88 to rank 25th in Division II career saves per game.

Emily Huyck shares the NCAA Division II record for single season solo shutout percentage (0.74) after holding 14 of 19 teams scoreless during the 1999 season. In 2000, she had a solo shutout percentage of 0.68 which ties for seventh among DII single-season leaders, while her 2001 mark of 0.67 ties for 10th all-time. Huyck's 14 shutouts in 1999 and 2001 rank tied for third on the Division II list of single season solo shutouts. In 2000, Huyck charted 13 shutouts in 19 contests which ties for the 10th-most shutouts in a season for DII.

Also among single-season leaders, Huyck posted the 10th-best goals-against average (0.36) in 1999, allowing just seven tallies, and she tied for the 13-best season in DII in 2001 with a 0.38 GAA, giving up just eight goals. Among Division II career leaders, Huyck's 0.48 goals against average is the third-best all-time. She played 5,855 minutes in goal for the 'Dogs, giving up just 15 goals from 1998-2000. Huyck ranks eighth on the list of career minutes in DII.

Another goalkeeper, Jenny Miller, also appears among the NCAA Division II elite. Her career goals against average of 0.79 is the 19th-best in DII, while her 6,850 minutes played from 1995-98 is the fourth most by a Division II netminder.

Molly Swartzbaugh recorded the seventh-quickest goal in NCAA Division II history on Oct. 27, 1997, when she put the ball in the net just 15 seconds into a contest with Drury University.
