WOMEN'S SOCCER TEAM TO HOST NORTHERN KENTUCKY IN NCAA QUARTERFINAL GAME

NCAA Tournament Quarterfinal Game: Truman State University Bulldogs (MIAA/NCAA Division II) vs. Northern Kentucky University Norse (Great Lakes Valley Conference/NCAA DII)

Date/Time: Saturday, Nov. 17, 2001, at Noon
Location/Pitch: Kirksville, Mo./Truman Soccer Park

TRUMAN (18-2 OVERALL, 11-1 IN THE MIAA): The Bulldogs are now 2-0 in NCAA tournament openers, charting their second postseason win over the University of Northern Colorado last Saturday, 1-0. It was a pay-back for UNC handing the 'Dogs their first loss of the season back on Sept. 15 in Greeley, Colo., 1-0.

The 'Dogs, who received a first-round by in the NCAA Division II championship tournament, hosted their first NCAA tournament game last weekend and again got the opportunity this weekend as Northern Kentucky comes to Kirksville for a quarterfinal game on Saturday at noon.

The Bulldogs are enjoying their best season in the 18-year history of the Truman women's soccer program. They have already broken team records for shutouts (15), wins (18) and consecutive wins (13). The 'Dogs tallied that 15th shutout over Northern Colorado in last weekend's NCAA tourney game.

IN THE LATEST NCAA DIVISION II STATISTICAL RANKINGS, Emily Huyck led the nation with a 0.32 goals against average, but has since dropped that to 0.30. Huyck has helped the team lead the nation in goals-against average (0.31), while the 'Dogs also rank second in shutout percentage (0.74) and are tied for eighth in won-loss-tied percentage (0.895) among Division II leaders this season.

NORTHERN KENTUCKY (21-1 OVERALL, 11-0 IN THE GLVC): In the latest NCAA statistical rankings, senior midfielder Tricia Ruark was 10th among Division II leaders with 2.72 points a game, while junior midfielder Bessie Black was 12th with 2.65. Ruark was also tied for third in the nation in assists (1.06 apg), while senior forward/midfielder Jeanna Martin was fifth (0.95 apg), senior forward Betsy Moore was eighth (0.85 apg) and Black was tied for 13th (0.75 apg). Junior goalkeeper Megan Zalla had the fifth-best goals-against average in DII at 0.40.

The Norse were second in the nation in scoring offense (5.4 ppg), fourth in goals against average (.40), seventh in shutout percentage (0.65) and fifth in won-loss-tied percentage (0.95).

Moore was named player of the year for the Great Lakes Valley Conference. She was also named to the all-GLVC first-team, along with Black, Martin, senior midfielder/forward Lori Kevill, Ruark and senior defender Amanda Trout. Senior defender Eva Broeg was a second-team all-conference pick and Bob Sheehan was named GLVC coach of the year.

The Norse went 11-0 in conference action, claiming their fourth consecutive league crown. Last season, NLU was the national runner-up, losing to UC-San Diego in the NCAA Division II Women's Soccer Championship game, 2-1. Last year's team finished with a record of 21-2-2.

IN 1997, THE TRUMAN MADE ITS FIRST POSTSEASON TRIP and won a first-round game at St. Joseph's (Ind.), 1-0. However, the Bulldogs lost the quarterfinal game at West Virginia Wesleyan the following week, 1-0.

ABOUT THE NCAA TOURNAMENT: There are eight regions and 24 teams participating in the 2001 DII tournament. All games will be played on campus sites of the participating institutions.

Final Four games will be played Nov. 30 and Dec. 2 at a campus site of a participating institution as determined by the NCAA women’s soccer committee.

The winner of Saturday’s quarterfinal game in Kirksville will advance to the final four and face the winner of the Incarnate Word (Texas)/Univ. of California-San Diego game that will be played on Sunday at 7 p.m. central time.

SERIES RECORD: The Bulldogs have lost all three of their previous meetings with Northern Kentucky, including last year’s meeting on Oct. 29 in Kirksville, 3-2. They also lost 1-0 in 1999 and 2-0 in 1998.

TRUMAN DEFEATS NORTHERN COLORADO IN SECOND-ROUND GAME: The Bulldogs came up with their second postseason win with a 1-0 victory over Northern Colorado in the second-round game of the NCAA Division II women’s soccer tournament in Kirksville last week.

Another freshman, Anna Sonderman (Manchester Mo./Nerinx Hall), pulled the heroics for Truman, scoring in the 59th minute off of a feed from senior midfielder Kelli Best (Urbandale, Iowa). It was Sonderman’s second goal of the year and the first game-winner of her career.

She is one of three true freshmen who have made an impact on the team this season. Sonderman has played in 17 games as a reserve and has three assists on the year for a total of seven points.

OTHER TRUMAN RECORDS TO FALL THIS SEASON: Besides the Bulldogs single-season shutout mark broken last weekend, the Bulldogs have also won the most games in school history (18), surpassing the old mark by three already. The 13 wins that the ‘Dogs had from Sept. 16 to Nov. 3, 2001, broke the old Truman win-streak that had stood at 11.

BULLDOGS CLAIM THIRD MIAA CROWN: The Bulldogs clinched their third-straight MIAA title this year. Truman has claimed every conference championship since the MIAA began sponsoring women’s soccer in 1999. The regular season finale falter was the first MIAA loss for the ‘Dogs through 21 straight league games and the first-ever for the team in MIAA play. In fact, the Bulldogs had not even given up a goal in 12-straight conference games until the CMSU tally in the first meeting this season on Sept. 29.

BULLDOG RECORD-BREAKER: Freshman striker Sara Murray (Eeden Prairie, Minn.) is a major contender for the MIAA freshman of the year award. Three weeks ago, she scored three goals in three games, breaking the Truman single-season goals record with her 17th vs. Missouri-Rolla. The old record of 16 was shared by Kathy Corson (1989) and Trishia Harting (1996). Her 17 goals so far this year also stands as a new MIAA mark, breaking the old standard of 16 by Missouri-Rolla’s Liz Szkyrbalo and Denise McMillian in 1999.

Murray is also now third in single-season points at Truman with 39, just five off the school standard. However, the MIAA mark stands at just 42 by Szkyrbalo in ’99.

Murray is also second among Bulldog single season shots leaders with 85 this year, but is off the Truman record of 102 by Shauna Putnam in 1989.

Murray tied the MIAA record for goals scored in a game when she put four in the net vs. Southwest Baptist on Sept. 22.

MILLER AMONG TRUMAN CAREER LEADERS: Senior midfielder Melissa Miller (Olathe, Kan./South) is sixth all-time at Truman with 19 goals and ranks seventh with 17 career assists. Miller is also sixth in career points (55) and eighth in shots with 142 from 1998-01.

HUYCK MAKING HISTORY: Emily Huyck (Omaha, Neb./Westside) broke the school record for career shutouts when she recorded her 41st vs. Southwest Baptist on Oct. 26. The record was formerly held by Jenny Miller who had 39 from 1995-98.

Miller also holds the Truman record for minutes, a mark that is the third-most by a goalkeeper on the NCAA Division II level (6,850:34) and will be impossible for Huyck to pass after playing in just 10 games when Miller was a senior.

However, Huyck again set a new MIAA standard for single season minutes this year that currently stands at 1782:31, breaking her old mark of 1752:48 set in 1999. She also holds the conference record for career minutes (5,773:11).

Huyck is now fourth in saves (295) and second in games played (68) among school career leaders.

She could also break the school record for fewest goals allowed in a season, having only given up six so far this season. Huyck currently shares the record with Jenny Miller at seven.

Heading into her senior campaign, Huyck had already put her name in the NCAA record book. She shares the NCAA record for fewest goals allowed in a season, having recorded her 41st vs. Southwest Baptist on Oct. 26. The record was former-Mizzou's, set in 1999, to Sept. 2, 2000, without allowing a goal. Huyck also went 871:33 minutes from Oct. 9, 1999, to Sept. 2, 2000, without allowing a goal, the fifth-longest streak in DII.

From Sept. 17 to Oct. 29, 2000, she played 955:21 scoreless minutes, the third longest in NCAA Division II by a netminder without allowing a goal. Huyck also went 871:33 minutes from Oct. 9, 1999, to Sept. 2, 2000, without allowing a goal, the fifth-longest streak in DII.

Huyck's 14 shutouts that year is the third-most total shutouts in a season for DII. She also posted the 10th-best goals-against average, allowing just seven tallies in '99 for a goals against average of 0.36.

In 2000, Huyck charted 13 shutouts in 19 contests which was good for the eighth-best shutout percentage (.68) and the 10th-most total shutouts in a season for DII.

TRUMAN AMONG NCAA AND MIAA LEADERS: Huyck leads the MIAA and NCAA Division II with a 0.30 goals against average.

Huyck is eighth in scoring (0.25 pg). She is ninth in assists (0.25 pg) and tied for sixth in assists (0.30 apg).

Junior defender Karla Danekas (Naperville, Ill/Central) is tied for ninth in assists (0.25 apg). Freshman midfielder Ellen Wright (Kirkwood, Mo.) is ninth in MIAA scoring (0.85 pg) and tied for eighth in goals per game (0.35).

The Bulldogs lead the conference in team defense (0.30 GAA) and team offense (2.35 gpg).

Truman claims third-straight MIAA title in three-year history of MIAA's sponsorship of women's soccer.

COACH'S RECORD: Mike Cannon is in his... ninth year at the helm of the Bulldogs. He currently has a record of 109-46-13 (.688) and is the winningest women’s soccer coach in the 18-year history of the program at Truman. Cannon registered his 100th career victory in the ‘Dogs’ 5-0 win at Northwest Missouri on Sept. 30, 3-0. Heading into the season, he was ranked 16th by percentage and 20th by victories among NCAA Division II active coaches. Cannon is a 1992 graduate of Truman and played for the Bulldog men’s soccer team from 1988-91.

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

Six Bulldog seniors, Kelli Best, Missy Ell, Emily Huyck, Melissa Miller, Laura Paul and Nicole Thorpe, are winding down their careers at Truman. Following are run-downs of their careers as Bulldogs:

Kelli Best (Urbandale, Iowa) has played in 72 career games for the ‘Dogs, making 56 starts, and scored seven goals and assists for a career total of 19 points. The midfielder is a two-time all-conference selection, earning second-team honors as a sophomore in 1999. Best has twice been named to the MIAA commissioner’s academic honor roll and was an academic all-MIAA recipient as a sophomore as well. Last year, she was named a third-team scholar-athlete for the Central region by the NSCAA.

A starting midfielder, Missy Ell (O’Fallon, Mo./St. Dominic) has seen action in 63 career games for the Bulldogs and made 25 starts. She has scored six goals and five helpers for a career total of 17 points. Ell was an honorable mention all-conference selection a year ago. She was given the team’s 110% award last season that clinched Truman’s second-consecutive MIAA title. Thorpe is a two-time all-MIAA title. She has twice been named academic all-MIAA after earning all-conference honors while maintaining at least a 3.5 grade point average. As a freshman, she was voted the most improved player by her teammates, as a sophomore she earned the team’s 110% award and last season she received goal of the year honors for her score in the Northern Kentucky game. Thorpe has started nearly every game the last three seasons, making 69 total starts for her career. She scored the game-winning goal in the 1-0 victory over Central Missouri last season that clinched Truman’s second-consecutive MIAA title. Thorpe is a two-time member of the MIAA commissioner’s academic honor.

FRESHMAN ON THE WRIGHT TRACK: Freshman midfielder Ellen Wright (Kirkwood, Mo.) has also been a standout newcomer for the Bulldogs this season. Usually the first off the bench, Wright is second to Sara Murray in goals this year with seven, and is third in scoring with 17 points. She scored both goals in beating Central Missouri 2-1 on Sept. 29.
