* MIAA Match
Home Matches in BOLD

Week At-a-Glance:
With just four matches to play in the regular season, the Truman women’s soccer team still sits in the drivers seat for the MIAA regular season title and can stay there with a pair of wins at Washburn and Central Missouri this week.

The Bulldogs, winners of ten straight, are one point back of Nebraska-Omaha entering the weekend action but benefit from having played one less match than UNO to this point. The Mavs have just one match - at home against Missouri Southern - this weekend before wrapping up their regular season at Southwest Baptist and Central Missouri next week.

Meanwhile, Truman (12-2-2, 11-1 MIAA) continues to move just one match at a time, starting Thursday night at Washburn (8-7-1, 5-6-1). Then, on Saturday, the Bulldogs will face Central Missouri (9-5-2, 8-3-1) on Halloween night.

Both of Truman’s foes this week are extremely tough at home with WU posting a 6-1 mark at Yaeger Stadium, while the Jennies have protected their home pitch to a 5-0 record.

The match against UCM will also pit a pair of teams found in the most recent South Central rankings, with the Bulldogs moving up to third with two wins last week and UCM coming in at No. 9. UNO (No. 5) and Northwest Missouri (No. 10) also represent the MIAA in the regional poll.

The top-6 teams - which includes each conference’s champion - will make the NCAA tournament with seeds 1, 4, 5 at one site and seeds 2, 3 and 6 at another.

Bulldog Coaching Staff:
Mike Cannon is in his 17th season as the program’s head coach, having compiled a 228-78-29 (.723) overall record at Truman. He has guided the purple and white to eight (of ten) MIAA championships and has reached the NCAA tournament seven times.

He is assisted by Martin Clayes, who is in his second season at Truman as a member of the coaching staff following a four-year stint as a player on the men’s soccer team.

Scouting the Opposition:
Washburn “Lady Blues”
- Top Offense: Leah Talley (6 goals, 2 assists); Ashley Taylor (4 goals)
- Top Goalkeeper: Ashley Kline (16 starts, 1.47 GAA, 67 saves)
- Head Coach: Tim Collins (68-50-22, 7th season at WU)
- Last Time vs. WU (Sept. 17, 2009) – Freshman Olivia Hayes converted on a penalty kick in the 21st minute, and the Truman defense clamped down the rest of the way to help the Bulldogs pick up a 1-0 win against Washburn. Hayes nabbed a breakaway, splitting a pair of WU defenders, before being taken down from behind by defender Jordan Shefte just inside the box. Shefte was shown a straight red card for the foul, and Hayes made the Lady Blues pay by blasting her ensuing PK past goalkeeper Ashley Crone.

From there, the Bulldogs controlled action thanks to the one-man advantage for the final 69 minutes, forcing Bulldog keeper Jayne Grisham to make just three saves on the afternoon. Truman outshot Washburn 15-5 on the day, including an 8-3 advantage on goal.

Central Missouri “Jennies”
- Top Offense: Melanie Hall (9 goals, 4 assists); Cara Hennahane (4 goals)
- Top Goalkeeper: Lauren Bamvukais (16 starts, 0.60 GAA, 46 saves)
- Head Coach: Lewis Theobald (34-13-8, 3rd season at UCM)
- Last Time vs. UCM (Oct. 12, 2009) – Senior midfielder Katie Hinrichs headed in the game-winner with just less than five minutes to play, as the Truman women’s soccer team came from behind to knock off Central Missouri, 2-1, in Kirksville. The win marked the eighth straight for the Bulldogs.

UCM got off to a 1-0 lead in the 33rd minute on a goal by Aaryn Burke. The goal snapped a 685-minute scoreless streak by the Bulldog defense, the longest since a seven-match shutout stretch during the 2003 season.

After the Jennies carried the lead into the intermission, Truman knocked the score right away in the second half when sophomore Megan Buri dribbled down the right side and fed senior Katie Reuck for a header in the 51st minute that hit the back of the net. It was Reuck's fifth goal of the season and 20th of her career.

Then, in the 86th minute, Buri again played a cross into the box which found an open Hinrichs on the back post to give Truman the lead. Hinrichs notched her first goal of the season before sophomore goalkeeper Jayne Grisham saved three Jennies shots in the final four minutes to preserve the home win for Truman. Grisham made eight saves in helping Truman pick up win No. 10 – marking the 15th consecutive season of double-digit wins for the program.

Series Info:
Truman vs. Washburn (Truman leads all-time series, 11-3-1).
Truman vs. Central Missouri (Truman leads all-time series, 19-4-4).

Quick Kicks:
- Freshman Olivia Hayes continues to make her case for MIAA freshman of the year, as she ranks second in the conference in goals scored (11), points per game (1.38), and game-winning tallies (5).
- Sophomore Jayne Grisham found the number ‘nine’ to her liking, moving from 9th place and going all the way to 7th with her 10th career goal snapped a 685-minute scoreless streak by the Bulldog defense, the

Up Next:
The Bulldogs will conclude the regular season with two matches next week, first at home against Missouri Western on Nov. 3 at 12 pm before traveling to Emporia State for a 1 pm match on Nov. 5.
